After the presentation the groom on behalf of his bride in a few well-chosen words thanked one and all for the beautiful gifts and invited them to their new home. All joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. Music supplied by Messrs. Leo Farrell, James O'Connell and Tony Noonan. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies. All departed in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Farrell many years of happy wedded life. (Patriot please copy).

YMCA WORLD SERVICES STRENGTHENED — T. Roy Cudmore and Walter J. Cox, Co-chairman of the World Service Committee of the local YMCA have received the first complete report of the post war activities of YMCA International. Begun in 1889 the World Service program of the YMCA has an unbroken record of service and an established reputation for fundamental International concern. The first post-war meeting of the YMCA World's Alliance was held at Geneva, Switzerland in March under the chairmanship of Dr. John R. Mott. This assembly was held in conjunction with the World Council of Churches and the International Missionary Council. During the proceedings, plans were formulated for the extension of the work in war torn countries, and the National YMCA bodies of former enemy countries were admitted to the World's Alliance. This meeting was aptly described as the "YMCA's Own United Nations". Fifty-five North American secretaries are now serving abroad and others are awaiting passage to China, Burma and Palestine to assist in existing YMCA work in these turbulent fields. Groups in the Charlottetown YMCA will have an opportunity to learn more of the World Service feature of the International Movement during the forthcoming season. Films, literature and interesting displays will be available through the International Committee.

British And Foreign Bible Society

The British and Foreign Bible Society was founded on March 7, 1804, at a public meeting held in the London Tavern, 123 Bishopsgate Street, London. Its sole object was "to encourage the wider circulation of the Scriptures without note or comment". Its first foreign translation was for Canada, a Mohawk-English Gospel of St. John, translated by Captain Norton, chief of the Six-Nation Indians in Upper Canada.

As early as 1807, in Pictou, N.S. a society was formed and in the same year two hundred Testaments were given as a grant to the people of Nova Scotia.

Quickly societies sprang up in Nova Scotia, Quebec, Niagara, Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, Saint John, N.B. and Montreal. In 1863 Upper Canada sent an agent to visit Vancouver Island, who formed branches in Victoria and Nanimo, and also in New Westminster.

In 1904, the Centenary year of the parent society, it was decided that the auxiliaries throughout Canada should federate and form the Canadian Bible Society. The first constitution of the Canadian Bible Society, auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible was approved in 1905. In 1929 it was approved that the name of the Society be changed to "The British and Foreign Bible Society in Canada and Newfoundland."

During the 140 years of the parent society, 761 translations of the Bible or portions have been made 550,000,000 volumes issued, Scriptures left behind in certain enemy lands still available, war emergencies met by Scripture distribution to those on active service to prison and interment camps, for those on life-saving craft, the Society has hundreds of colporteurs who distribute "the Book" far and wide. It has established Bible Houses as a means of distribution.

P.E.I. Auxiliary

In 1938 the Prince Edward Island Auxiliary was organized in Charlottetown During the years it has shared in the great cause, from year to year making its contribution. At the present time there are eighty-three branches in the auxiliary; each with its officers. It has 165 life members on its rolls, nineteen names being added during the past year.

A Depository has been appointed recently at Herman's Bookstore, 142 George George Street, Charlottetown. Bibles and New Testaments may be procured at low prices.

"Bible Sunday" Week will be observed Sunday, Oct. 13th. Bible Weeks starts Monday, Oct. 14th.

Literature And Life

OFF GUARD

By Bookman

It is quite impossible for us to be on guard all the time; by that I mean that we should do everything after looking at it from all angles. Habit takes care of that, and we form habits good and bad. There is such a thing as custom, which Lord Bacon said was "the chief magistrate of man's life."

Being off guard in some ways has its advantage, for then we are not posing but are natural. The hypocrites of our Lord's day, whose conduct He so condemned were but play-actors, being scrupulously careful about certain things, but they "strained at gnats and swallowed camels."

Little things reveal character. I am sure that we all admit that W. E. Gladstone was a great British statesman—one of Britain's greatest sons. He was outstanding as a speaker in the House of Commons, but his character is seen to in those little things—"those little unremembered acts of kindness and of love." We are told that he was in the habit of saying "good morning" to a street sweeper at a certain street corner, but missed the boy one day and for several days. Upon enquiry, he found that he was in the hospital. He went to see him, sat by his bed, read the Bible to him and had prayer. That was like a little window which showed the way into the heart of Mr. Gladstone. And years ago we read how after a busy day in the House of Commons he would go home and get down on the floor and play with his granddaughter. He could enter into a child's world and kept through the years a child-heart. This did not interfere with his work in behalf of the nation nor disqualify him from writing on the defence of Christianity.

All will agree that Jonathan Edwards was a great man. His seventy "resolutions", by which he planned his life show that; but little things show how human he too was. His reference in some letters to blooming flowers in the spring, indicated that his head was not always in the clouds, and his great work on the "Freedom of the Will" did not dry up the fountain of tears.

This extract from a letter of Charles Darwin to his wife proves the same thing: "At last I fell asleep and awoke with a chorus of birds singing around me and squirrels running up the trees, and some wood-peckers laughing; and it was as pleasant and rural a scene as ever I saw, and I did not care one penny how any of the birds and beasts had been formed." He did not see his laboratory when he lay on the grass.

This is all very well, and characters are revealed in that way, because the people who write and speak thus are not posing—they are natural.

However, we must often be rigidly on our guard. The story of Samson, as told in Milton's "Samson Agonistes" reveals that truth. His father comes to see him in his humiliation—his eyes out, and he a slave for the Philistines. What a fall was that! The fallen hero, who is yet to redeem himself, recalls his past and how he had been a Nazarite, practising strict temperance in certain respects, but he had laid his head on the lap of Delilah. Here he was off guard, and he expresses a truth which is applicable to more conditions than his:

"What boots it at one gate to make defence,
And at another to let in the foe?"

He had been off-guard and the [illegible]

MRS. MARY DUNPHY

On Tuesday, August 27, 1946, at Charlottetown Hospital, Mrs. Mary Dunphy, Millview, passed to her eternal reward. Although in poor health for some time, it was only during her last few days that her condition became critical. Her last days on earth were, no doubt, as she had prayed, with spiritual attention frequently from Rev. Dr. Bernard Gillis, Chaplain of the hospital and the temporal consolation of having all her family with her.

All her life was spent in the vicinity of her old home, in Cherry Valley with the exception of a short time spent in U. S. A. In that quiet little district on Prince Edward Island she was born in 1873 of the lawful marriage of John Wright and Margaret Praught. With the Christian influence of her good parents, her life was characterized by charity, tolerance, patience and fidelity to her Church. She was ever kind to those with whom she came in contact. Race or creed were not considered barriers to the expanse of her friendship. In her long years of suffering —patience was a daily part of her mode of life. In 1903 she married Albert Dunphy of Millview who predeceased her fourteen years ago. To this union were born four sons: Wilfred —chaplain with the RCAF at Trenton; Everett in Millview; Ernest in Roxbury, Mass.; Harold at home in Millview. Three brothers are left to mourn her loss: George in Vernon River; John in Chelsea, Mass and William in Montreal.

During her illness at home she was faithfully visited by her kind pastor, Rt. Rev. Maurice McDonald. Vernon River, who frequently brought her the consolations of Holy Mother the Church.

Her funeral took place on Thursday morning, August the 29th, from the home of her son, Harold to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. The Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by her son Rev. Wilfred Dunphy with Revs. Joseph Walsh as deacon and Ronald McKenna as sub-deacon, Rev. Dr. Ellsworth was master of ceremonies. Present in the sanctuary were: Rev. Drs. Louis Callaghan, Emmett O'Hanley, Rev. Fathers Phalen McKenna, Parnell Wood, John Sullivan, Ray McKenzie, Wilfred McCardle, Rt. Rev. Maurice McDonald assisted with the choir, under the direction of Mr. John Green. Miss Mary Collins presided at the organ. The service at the grave was taken by Rev. Joseph Walsh.

Pallbearers were: Dingwell Jenkins, Jeramiah Morrissey, Leo Hynes, Edison Shiedow, Leo Pratt and James McEachern.

BIBLE WEEK

"Put First Things First"

"Thy Word Was Made Flesh and Dwelt Among Us"

At this time when all human values seem to have been swept away by "Man's inhumanity to man" God's word is the only thing real and abiding.

Starting Monday, October 14th, representatives of the Bible Society throughout the Province will call on the general public for contributions to help perpetuate THE WORD.

Thousands of copies of the Bible are given away annually. It is also translated into hundreds of languages and dialects, and given to those who know HIM not. The Bible is also distributed among prisoners in penal institutions.

With your help this work can continue. Welcome the workers when they call.

GIVE TO THE BEST OF YOUR ABILITY

A Life Membership Certificate in the P. E. I. Auxiliary of the Society is $25.00. This would be an ideal way of giving thanks to Almighty God for the many mercies that we enjoy.

In Memoriam

BESSIE KATHRYN ACORN

On Sept. 10, 1946, at the City Hospital, Charlottetown, there passed away to the Great Beyond, Bessie Kathryn, dearly beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan A. Acorn, Cardigan, at the age of 5 years and 11 months.

Three days previous to her demise, Bessie was stricken with infantile paralysis and all efforts to save her precious little life proved futile.

Bessie who was a bright and lovable child, has left to mourn their loss a heart-broken mother and father and one sister, Mildred. Her baby brother predeceased her 8 months ago.

On September 11 the funeral was held (outdoors) at the home of her parents, the services were conducted by Rev. R. D. MacLean. Hymns sung were: Jesus Loves Me, and When He Cometh.

We cannot say and we will not say
She is dead. She is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an Unknown Land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there
So we'll think of her as dear in the love of There
As she always was in the love of Here.

Floral tributes were:
Crescents: Grandma, Grandpa, Eleanor, Roy and Ernest, Viola, Howard, Florence and Nelson.
Sprays—Rita, Elliott and Elizabeth. Mary and Dan MacKinnon.
Wreath— Mother, Daddy and Mildred.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Dan A. Acorn and Mildred wish to thank those who helped in any way during their recent sad bereavement, also those who sent floral tributes and the many friends who sent messages of sympathy.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of a darling husband and father, Sgt. Wendell D. MacKenzie, R. C. A. F., of Boughton Island, drowned October 13, 1944

There are a few who'd like to think
We have forgotten, dear,
But God and you, know that's not true,
Throughout each lonely year.
No one can ever take your place
Forgive a falling tear.

We think about you more each day,
And ask God's help to bear
The pain in silence. No one knows
But Him, with whom we share
Our burdens, on life's rocky road,
We know He'll always care.

Lovingly Remembered by Wife, Muriel and Kiddies.

In Memoriam

In memory of a beloved son and brother, Sgt. Wendell D. MacKenzie, R. C. A. F., of Boughton Island, drowned October 13 1944.

Our consolation is in beautiful memories of a loving son and brother.
