Storey And Sparks Fight To 10-round Draw In Clever Boxing Exhibition

IN THIS CORNER

Last night's main event lived up to advance notices afloat when it was billed as the most scientific scrap ever to be staged in this island Province.

The draw verdict pleased the majority of the fans who saw Bill Sparks stage a clever heady fight all the way through and also saw him come back in the later rounds after being more or less buffeted by the cool boxing master in the person of Storey in the first three rounds.

A headliner at the game already Storey nevertheless lacked a knock-out punch last night. Had he possessed the punching powers of his opponent he could easily have terminated the bout in the opening rounds but his blows outside of piling up points steadily, nevertheless failed to dent the poker-faced Sparks.

Failure of Bennie Binns to appear on the card had some nasty rumors going the rounds last night; but in defence of the popular young middleweight this column states that Bennie Binns yesterday was advised by a local doctor to take part in any strenuous exercise whatsoever for a period of two weeks, and carries a statement to that effect with him.

Bennie right up to yesterday was hopeful of taking part in the scrap, but yesterday was forced to consult the medico when his side became worse. The result of the consultation is now well known. Binns suffered the injury about a week ago in a workout severely bruising a rib on his right side and thus preventing him from being able to punch with his usual deadly effect.

Once his injury has healed Binns stated last night that he would be ready to take on all comers and is set on gaining back his Island middleweight title.

The opening of the softball season was halted last night when rain caused postponement of the scheduled Imperials-Battery encounter. The game will be played on one of the open days of the schedule and it is now up to the Rovers and Bees to attempt to open hostilities Thursday night, the next encounter scheduled.

While a man without a country is to be pitied, so is a man like Max Schmeling. He has a country which expects him to scale Olympian heights—or else—when he battles with Joe Louis next month for the world heavyweight boxing title. And, although the financial setup is exceedingly attractive,

Sydney Seeks Warrington-Wenstob Bout

By ALAN RANDAL, Canadian Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, May 17 (AP)—Max Schmeling, who has been going to movies and taking things easy, left today for Spectator, N. Y., to establish training quarters for his title fight with Joe Louis next month.

Barney Ross spent a lazy day today before resuming training for his defence against Henry Armstrong. Coming out for the fourth Spinks gradually began to find the ring of his slippery opponent and took the round; again in the fifth he had a decided weight over his opponent and the crowd, partial toward the Maritime fighter, began to sense an upset.

Since Gabby Street changed his uniform number from 13 to 31, the Browns have succeeded in losing only seven games. Release of Waite Hoyt by the Dodgers and the loss of his baseball salary should, both the veteran pitcher.

Jack Doyle, Broadway bookmaker, reports tickets are going to be scarce shortly for the War Admiral-Seabiscuit match race May 30.

The semi-final proved to be a lame affair with Howard Lee of Amherst taking a ten round decision from Reg Harper of the same place.

Wilson Ranked No. 1 Ontario Tennis Player
TORONTO, May 17 (CP)—For the second straight year, Ross Wilson, co-holder of the No. 2 Canadian tennis ranking with Doug Cameron of Vancouver, was named Ontario's no. 1 player today.
