

Prowse Bros. Ltd. CHARLOTTETOWN'S BIG DEPARTMENTAL STORE

Your Fall Coats are Magnificent

Remarked a lady at our Fur and Mantle opening yesterday "I certainly did not expect to see such beautiful garments in Charlottetown and the prices are so reasonable."

The speaker was a fair critic. Our showing of Fall Mantles is certainly a magnificent one. All the leading styles are represented. Here you may choose from the cream of the celebrated Norway and Britannia makes—our ability to place largest orders giving us the preference and first choice of the splendid garments.

Every garment is exclusive with us, cannot be seen elsewhere. And as we show but one or two of a style—excepting in the lowest prices—our customers are spared the mortification of meeting duplicates of their choice at every street corner.

Comparison we invite—will best serve to show the exceptional merits of our garments.

We advise early choosing, otherwise you may miss the garment you would most desire.

Owing to Monday being a holiday, thus occasioning too much work for the remaining five days of the week, The Guardian is compelled to hold over the sermon by Dr. Dobson, which should appear in this issue.

Advertisers are asked to have 'change in not later than ten a. m. each Saturday for the Morning Daily and Rural Daily, as Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The business and news departments are open as on other days.

Work on the new railway wharf is going forward, and there are many interested in watching the building of the first concrete face pier in this city. The different new buildings in the railway premises are gradually rising and taking shape. They are certainly large and imposing looking and the very best, apparently that it is possible to have.

The City of Ghent, that steamer which trips between this port and Halifax and is possessed of a whistle which marks her identity without any mistake, sailed again yesterday. Her entry and departure this week were marked by particularly robust performances on her ear-piercing whistle. It wouldn't be a bad thing if the whistle could contract hoarseness from the fog, which abound on her route.

The boys meetings of the Y M C A. will begin again tomorrow at 10 o'clock. The boys' work committee are hard at work endeavouring to start the meetings out with a large attendance. Mr. Archibald will lead the meeting and a number of the boys will tell how the meetings have helped them in the past. These meetings are for all boys and young men. Any of the students from out of town are accorded a special invitation.

A special from Jacksonville, Fla., says Edward Winner, a clerk of Duval Hotel and Misses Lillian and Bertha Bollow employed at the hotel, were drowned while enjoying a moonlight sail on St. John's River. The launch capsized. The two girls caught Winner and pulled him with them under the water. The young women referred to are the Misses Bollow of Enmore River, whose tragic deaths were reported in The Guardian some days ago.

Mr. D. P. MacMahon accompanied by her daughter Miss Sadie, a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, are visiting Mrs. MacMahon's brother James R. Farquharson, Mermaid, and her sister Mrs. Stewart Mutch, Earnscliffe. These ladies were recently given a reception by Mrs. John L. Wood of Thorndyke, prior to their departure for their home in Charleston, Mass., on Tuesday next. The evening was pleasantly passed in games and music, refreshments also being daintily served by Mrs. Wood.

C F Dorman wife and child of Missoula, Montana, arrived in this City Wednesday evening on a visit to his brother Geo F. Dorman. He was accompanied by his mother Mrs F W Dorman, St John. Mr Dorman is manager of the Missoula Mercantile Co, Missoula, where he has resided for twenty-one years. He has not been east for fifteen years but paid a visit to this Province twenty-three years ago, and is surprised at the changes that have taken place since that time especially in Charlottetown. Mr Dorman, wife and child accompanied by his mother left for Montana yesterday morning by steamer Northumberland going around by Halifax Annapolis Valley and St John.

Before leaving Bradalbane for Mr. Herbert to take charge of the Orphan's Home here, John H. and Mrs. McLeod were waited on at their home and presented with a complimentary address by the members of Calvin L.O.L. They with their wives and lady friends called at Mr. McLeod's home and took charge. The ladies took charge of the dining-room and spread a bounteous feast. After supper Jas. McKay was called to the chair and in a well-worded speech stated the object of the meeting. Will Campbell, J. D. Boyer, J. R. Elliott, Wm. McKinlay, Ducau Gillis, Calvin McKay and Hugh McLaure all spoke testifying to the regret of all at losing Mr. and Mrs. McLeod. The address from the Lodge was signed by D. Buchanan, Jas. McKay and Nell Campbell.

Clark Wallace Lodge L. T. B. Bradalbane held their picnic Tuesday to Pleasant View, Hampton, where they had a good days outing. They enjoyed the usual games and amusements customary to such occasions. Mr. and Mrs. Smith of the Pleasant View kindly allowed the visitors the use of the dining room in the hotel, for which they were duly grateful.

The rain which has prevailed more or less all week, accompanied by a high temperature which has made the day very damp and sultry, is now showing signs of improvement. The excessive rain fall lately has caused some anxiety regarding the effect it may have on the ripening grain, but it is satisfactory to be assured that if fine weather now succeeds there will be no harm done, except in a very few cases.

A recent issue of the Montreal Gazette contains a lengthy interview with ex-premier Turner of British Columbia. In the course of a recital which embraced mention of a variety of topics Mr. Turner mentioned the fact that he was in the year 1890 a member of the committee in Charlottetown which received the present King, when he, at that time Prince of Wales, visited this Province. This mention may recall the matter to the memories of the older readers of The Guardian.

There is a very generally expressed desire among the men interested in boats and particularly the owners of lobster boats that a good race be arranged to take place for the two-masters before the season ends. What they want is a race where the qualities of the boats and of the crews sailing them shall have a fair trial, and it should be possible to manage this. There would be nothing more interesting than a well-arranged contest between the lobster-boats in and around Charlottetown harbor.
