Is there to be any of the true Christian spirit in evidence in Summerside in the way of providing a merry Christmas for those whose circumstances forbid any outlay in celebrating the joyous season? Is there any general fund to purchase and distribute Christmas gifts to the poor children of the town? Could not a fund be started now, if there is not already one, to give the children a good tuck out on Christmas day and after they are fed give them each a present of a toy or a picture book or some other little present, also some fruit and confectionery. We are not particularly wealthy ourselves but we will cheerfully subscribe our mite if a committee will take the matter in hand and send around their collector. Let everyone give their mite towards making a Merry Christmas for all. Let all denominations join hands and do not make it denominational, but Christian giving.—Journal.
