ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

A delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Noy on Wednesday Jan. 2nd; when the congregation of the United church of North Wiltshire met to surprise their organist Mrs. Noy, by presenting her with a beautiful fibre chair and a sum of money. During the evening Mr. E. N. Easter was elected chairman and after a few fitting and amusing remarks called upon Mrs. A. Bowman to read an address to Mrs. Noy while the presentation was made by Mrs. Bruce Deacon.

Mrs. Noy replied briefly thanking the congregation for their kindness and thoughtfulness after which all joined in singing "Blessed be the Tie that Binds."

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and games followed by a dainty lunch served by the ladies.

The address was as follows:—

Dear Mrs. Noy: We your co-workers of the Wiltshire choir and residents of the same place feel as though we cannot allow the Xmas season to go by without showing to you in some way our sincere appreciation of your untiring efforts on our behalf as organist of the church. We did not fully realize your worth until sickness entered your home and for some months you had to give up the activities of life.

We rejoice to know your unusual good health has been restored to you. It is the earnest wish of all who are assembled here tonight that this year of 1929 will be a bright and happy one for you, and if sorrows come, look upon them as stepping stones to higher things of life. Kindly accept this present; not for its value in dollars and cents; but as a small token of our love and respect for you.

Signed on behalf of the congregation Mrs. A. Bowman, Mrs. B. Deacon.

"It is said that paper can be used effectively in keeping a person warm."

"Yes, I remember a thirty day note once kept me in a swart for a month."

Sacrifices To Be Minister

Giving up an income of $4,000 and prospects of a pension of $2,000 a year, J. B. Minns has resigned from the British Government employ to become a minister at Markham's Square Church, Chelsea, England, at a salary of $1,250. He made the change after hearing Miss Maude Royden, an enthusiastic church worker. "I love my new work," he says, "and would not change it for a position of $250,000 a year."
