JUDGING CONCLUDES AT FOX SHOW TODAY

QUALITY OF FOXES UP TO STANDARD

Show Will Wind Up Today With Awarding of Championships.

The fine, clear weather yesterday permitted the judging of a large number of classes at the Silver Fox Show, and when finally Judge George Callbeck said the light would not allow him to finish, it was the last class of the program that remained unjudged. It will be completed this morning at 8:30, a half-hour earlier than the usual starting time.

Then will come the awarding of Championships for adults, yearlings and pups, sub-divided into groups, then the Grand Championships, male and female, and last but not least, the awarding of Herd Championships.

It is difficult to predict just how much time will be occupied with the above, depending upon the speed shown by the competitors in bringing along their foxes and the number of herds that will be shown. In conversation with Secretary Shaw and Judge Callbeck, they thought it might be possible to complete the entire program between two and three o'clock. Every effort will be made to do this in order to facilitate the departure of a number of foxmen who are leaving for Amherst this morning to compete in the show which opens there Monday.

Grand Division Of Sons Of Temperance In Annual Session

The Grand Division, Sons of Temperance of Prince Edward Island met in annual session in the city yesterday. The following report of the proceedings was released for publication.

Grand Worthy Patriarch, Rev. A. F. Baker, United Church of Canada minister at O'Leary, made his fourth annual report before a largely attended session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, in L. O. A. hall yesterday. Among the members of the court and visitors was Mr. H. P. Newcombe of Halifax, Most Worthy Patriarch of the National Division of North America.

During the four years covered by Mr. Baker's incumbency of the office of G. W. P. the Order has made good progress. The year just closed has not, however, kept pace with the three immediately preceding, and the annual report of the Grand Scribe shows a decrease in membership. This decrease is almost wholly due to the lack of organization work during the past year, activity that is practically impossible without a field worker. Steps were taken at this session to remedy this weakness in the work of the Order.

Considerable discussion was had concerning what was termed the "deplorable situation in the matter of lack of law enforcement under the R. C. M. P." and the fact of law violations on the part of men paid to enforce the law. Representations were prepared to be sent to the proper authorities demanding that since this is a prohibition province, it is only fair and reasonable that none but men who are will become total abstainers, at least for the term of their official duties in this province, be sent in, or employed here, as enforcement officers.

The question of Adult Temperance education insofar as it is concerned with the principle of total abstinence—the first objective of the "Sons"—was given serious attention, and action was taken looking towards the possibility of cooperation with other temperance organizations in the solution of problems in this field of activity.

Cognizance was taken of the recent change in the Prohibition law whereby the Commission was abolished, thus throwing the matter of provincial Prohibition back into politics again. The pledge of the Attorney General, that every effort was going to be made to give the best possible enforcement, was accepted at its face value, and the standing pledge of every possible assistance in enforcement was renewed. It was pointed out, however, that there could be no cooperation with men, no matter in what sphere of enforcement they might be found, who lack sincerity. The counsel and advice of the Most Worthy Patriarch, H. P. Newcombe, was greatly prized by the court, and his address to the officers and members was most inspiring and challenging.

The evening session of the Grand Division consisted of a public meeting, in Zion Church Hall, addressed by the Most Worthy

Poppy Day Appeal Made By Governor General

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—An appeal to the people of Canada to recognize "a very solemn and special duty" in giving support to Poppy Day was voiced by Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor General of Canada, tonight. To support the disabled veterans of the Great War was not charity, he said, but a simple repayment of debt.

His Excellency's remarks were made in connection with the annual national poppy campaign.

"On Monday next we commemorate the 17th anniversary of the first day of peace. It is a day of recent commemoration, but it should also be for each of us a day of grave reflection," said Lord Tweedsmuir. "The often-quoted saying, 'If you would insure peace, prepare for war,' is at the best a half-truth. But I recommend to you what seems to me a whole truth: 'If you would insure peace,

SALT IN ROAD-BUILDING TOPIC OF ADDRESS

Mr. A. R. Chambers of New Glasgow Speaks At Board of Trade Meeting.

"Salt stabilized roads" was the subject of an address by Mr. A. R. Chambers, president of the New Glasgow Board of Trade, and president of the Malagash Salt Co., before the local Board of Trade last evening. The speaker outlined the experiments that have been carried out in recent years in the use of salt as a stabilizer in both hard surface and secondary roads. The work is still in an experimental stage, he said, but already enough has been learned to indicate that salt is a valuable adjunct in the building of all types of roads.

Mr. R. L. McClure, president of the Charlottetown Board of Trade, following the address several of the members present asked Mr. Chambers questions and spoke briefly. They included Hon. J. P. McIntyre, Minister of Public Works, E. T. Higgs, W. E. Bentley, R. E. Mutch, T. A. D. Purvis of Halifax, W. L. Hill of Toronto, E. L. Miles of the Standard Paving Co., Donald MacKinnon, Col. G. E. Full, Harold Meservy and others.

Mr. Chambers in his address stated that one of the things that had given him the idea of using salt as a road building material had been the west end of Charlottetown when on a visit here in 1927. From then on he had devoted much time to the idea of using salt in road building. Salt used in building a hard surface road is mixed with the foundation material. The object is to prevent water under the road from freezing and causing a disruption of the road due to frost. In the building of secondary roads salt is used to act as a binder either with gravel or clay. If the latter is used tests must be made to determine the type of salt and the amount that it reacts to water, that is whether it remains pliable after repeated wettings. Salt in addition to acting directly as a binder remains moist and thus helps to overcome the dust nuisance, according to Mr. Chambers.

A vote of thanks was tendered the speaker.

Canon Malone Is Speaker At Jubilee Service

(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire)

HALIFAX, Nov. 7.—Speaking before the largest congregation of the week, Rev. Canon Malone, of the Cathedral of St. Peter in Charlottetown, was the speaker at tonight's silver jubilee sermon at All Saints Cathedral.

Taking the communion of saints as his topic, Canon Malone made brief reference to the statement made by Bishop Westcott, who declared that the quotation "I believe in the communion of saints," is the glory of the western creed. In one statement, he said, it joined all the faithful who had served God and passed on and linked them with those active in the life of the Church today.

Canon Malone also made brief reference to some of the well known saints of Christianity, ancient and modern, and concluded his sermon with a declaration that, as the history of a country is not read in the roll of its rulers, so the church and its life is not measured by its divisions but rather by the life and conduct of ordinary members of the church who constantly and devotedly live out their faith.

Aerial Search To Be Made For Missing Boats

GENEVA, Nov. 7.—Aerial search for two missing Lake Winnipeg fishing boats will get under way tomorrow, it was learned here tonight, as long search parties moved out over the frozen inland sea seeking the vessels and their human cargo.

The owners of the Lu-Berc arranged today for an airplane from the Pas, Man., to cover the area between Eagle Island and Grand Rapids, about 210 miles northwest of here. It was thought the Lu-Berc, unreported for 15 days, was frozen in at either of these two points.

Little fear was held for the safety of the Lu-Berc, carrying a crew of eight and a number of passengers. It was known she had ample provisions, though her supply of fuel was not abundant. Like most Lake Winnipeg fishing vessels, the Lu-Berc is built strong enough to withstand the pressure of ice.

Meanwhile, a search party traveling by dog team fought their way through zero temperatures to Kinnow Island, 150 miles north of here, where the Luana, with a crew of five, was believed trapped in ice. The Luana did not carry a well stocked larder and anxiety was growing here that those aboard might run out of food before being rescued.

RIGHT TO DIE CAMPAIGN IS ANNOUNCED

English Doctor, Mercy Slayer of Five, Would Do It Again.

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) LONDON, Nov. 7.—A campaign to establish "the right of persons suffering from incurable disease to die" was announced today after an English doctor was reported to have admitted five "mercy slayings."

A "kindly faced elderly family doctor," said the Daily Mail, told it in a "confession."

"I've taken life on five different occasions. My conscience never pricked me. I still carry with me memories of those cases and the happy faces before they died."

Lord Moylman, one of Britain's most distinguished surgeons, disclosed a campaign to give incurables "the right to die."

"This is a serious proposition," said Lord Moylman, who has been an advocate of the formation of a "voluntary euthanasia legalization society."

Lord Moylman announced the group to which he and other influential members of the medical profession and clergymen belong, has called a meeting Dec. 10 at headquarters of the British Medical Association in London to propose "laying the whole proposition before the country."

"The right to die is gaining support throughout the nation," continued Lord Moylman, "and we believe we will not find opposition except from Roman Catholics, who are objecting for obvious reasons."

Lord Moylman said he planned to present a bill providing for death in certain circumstances to the next Parliament.

The Daily Mail quoted the "kindly faced elderly family doctor" as saying:

"I've broken the law and, circumstances being similar, I'd do it again. If I need be, I'm prepared to face any tribunal in the land."

The doctor said the five cases were an infant "clearly doomed to imbecility" and four adults suffering from incurable diseases.

Sponsors of the "right to die society" include Prof. Julian Huxley, the Earl of Lisowel and Lord Denman, former Governor-General of Australia.

FASCISTS CURB SPECULATORS

Arrests Are Made At Genoa.

ROME, Nov. 7.—Fascist Italy struck swiftly today at war profiteers, speculators and those who circulate "defeatist" rumors.

Many arrests were made at Genoa. Six men were sentenced to five years imprisonment "on islands" in an effort to end speculation. The stores of other merchants were closed temporarily and the proprietors lost their membership in the Fascist party.

Among those arrested were foreign exchange dealers and persons suspected of speculating in foreign money and selling the lira below the official price. A coal dealer was held for cashing a cheque at Nice, France.

Action against sanctions was pressed. Even athletes joined in. Italians, it was announced, will not compete in events in countries adopting sanctions. Four weightlifters scheduled to appear in Paris decided not to go. This, however, will not affect Italy's participation in the Olympics, since Germany is regarded as a "friendly" country.

Dressmakers at Turin decided even to bar styles of sanctionist countries. "Only Italian artists" will be used for designs, it was agreed at Turin, centre of the dressmaking industry.

Duce examined and liked samples of the new artificial wool made from casein in one of Italy's largest plants. He saw material made for underwear and clothing and learned the present production was already 1,100 pounds a day, or enough to clothe 30,000 persons a month.

MISSING PLANE IS LOCATED

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Nov. 7.—The Northern Air Transport Company announced today that pilot Jack Herman and his five passengers, missing since Saturday on a flight here from Dawson, Y. T. are safe at Cassiar Roadhouse, 35 miles from Dawson.

A searching plane piloted by Bob Randall sighted the party, but was unable to land, the company reported.

Italian Native Troops Repulsed Claims Report

Fascist Forces Take Up Strategic Position Near Makale. Caution Exercised Against Surprise Ethiopian Move.

(By Christian Ozanne, Havas Staff Correspondent) (Copyright 1935 By The Havas News Agency) (By Guardian's Special Wire)

ADDIS ABABA, Nov. 7.—(C. P. Havas)—Ethiopian machine gunners posted in "pillbox" fortifications tonight drove a force of Italian native troops from the hills 10 miles north of Makale, according to a semi-official source here.

Detachments of tribal guerrilla fighters armed with daggers and bayonets made stealthy forays into the countryside at dusk, breaking up a number of Askari camps after killing their sentries, reports said.

At the head of one such raiding party was Waizeru Asegedetch, Ethiopia's only woman general. The Princess, who has a thorough knowledge of the terrain north of Makale, was said to have taken an active part in the fighting.

Guerrilla Tactics

A source close to Emperor Haile Selassie said Haile Selassie had been ordered not to attack the Italian main forces, but to content himself with harassing the Fascist advance guards and then retreating.

Continuing rains on the southeast front have checked the Fascist advance through Ogdan Province, messages from Dagabur said. Airplanes have bombarded all entrenched Ethiopian positions in the extreme south of Ogdan daily for the last week, the reports stated.

Asfatu Wassan Tafari, Crown Prince of Ethiopia, arrived here unexpectedly by airplane from Dessye today. He was received at the Imperial Palace tonight by the Emperor.

AT THE FRONT WITH THE ITALIAN NORTHERN ARMIES, OVERLOOKING MAKALE, Nov. 7.—Italy's central columns bivouacked tonight on a mountain rim in easy sight of Makale, ready to occupy that city tomorrow.

Fascist field guns frowned down from the heights on Makale and nearby Dolo.

UP TO STANDARD

Asked as to the quality of to-day's classes, Judge Callbeck stated that they were all up to standard, in fact he could say they were all good with the exception of one class, and that was a little disappointing. "However," he said, "it is difficult to find fault with the class of foxes I have seen at this show, and probably I am just a bit disappointed when I see something not up to my expectations. In that class there was, however, one quite outstanding animal."

Of Fame, that yesterday his name appears twice as a winner and scats was Hillard G. Muttart of Summerside, whose first showing of foxes that the writer can remember of at Charlottetown, was in 1933. So rapidly
