Barn and Silo Roofed with Brantford Asphalt Roofing.

Resists Fire, Sheds Water, Wears Long

Flying sparks and embers from a burning building often cause roofs near by to catch fire, especially in a dry, hot season. Under like conditions, roofs covered with are in no danger from flying embers, because any that fall on Brantford Asphalt Roofing die out harmlessly. Build a bonfire on a roof of Brantford Asphalt Roofing and the fire will not spread and the boards underneath the roofing will be protected in a surprising manner.

If a fire starts in the interior of a building Brantford Asphalt Roofing acts as a retardant and keeps the fire from spreading. Fire chiefs and insurance companies endorse its use in the most congested cities.

Brantford Asphalt Roofing does not absorb water, but sheds the heaviest rain with ease. Acid proof and alkali proof. Reliable, durable, economical. Three weights—40 lb., 70 lb., 80 lb. per square.

Brantford Rubber Roofing

is the same quality as Brantford Asphalt, but has a smooth, rubbery surface instead of the sand. It is particularly suitable for verandahs, decks and floor coverings. Three weights—40 lb., 50 lb., and 60 lb. per square.

Standard Mohawk Roofing

is made of the same materials as Brantford Asphalt Roofing, but is lighter in weight. A thoroughly reliable roofing at a low price. Tested for years and has given entire satisfaction. Sanded on one side. Or—light—40 lbs. per square.

Mohawk Rubber Roofing

The same quality as Standard Mohawk but with a smooth surface. Used for all classes of temporary work—sheds, bunk-houses, camp sites, even dugouts in the trenches. 45 lb., 45 lb., and 55 lb. weights.

Leatheroid Roofing

Slightly lower quality than Mohawk Rubber. Used for same purposes. 35 lb., 45 lb., and 55 lb. weights.

Samples of any of these roofings and prices will be furnished on request.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very happy event took place at the home of Mr. H. T. Burgoyne, Granville, on the evening of June 5th, when his daughter Susan Blanche was united in marriage with Wallace Lemuel Cules, of Milton. The Rev. L. J. McLeod performed the ceremony in the presence of the members of the family. After a bountiful repast Mr. and Mrs. Cules drove to their home in Milton, accompanied by the bride's father and mother.

ALEX BUCHANAN DEAD.—A well-known figure has passed away in the person of Alexander Buchanan of Charlottetown. "Alex," as he was familiarly known to all, lived in this city all his life. His parents died when he was a small boy, and Alex who was handicapped considerably by a physical disability was left without any other relatives to be cared for by any who were so charitably inclined. He had a pleasing disposition and a cheery manner. Possessed of a good voice, in the early days of the moving pictures he used often to sing in public. He became in a short time ago and was taken to the firm, where his condition grew worse. He passed away on Monday and was buried on Tuesday.

INTERESTED IN ALL GOOD WORKS.—On the evening of Monday, June 17th, a very successful ice-cream social and sale of needle-work, etc., was held at Miss Kathleen McDonald's, Cornwall, by the ladies of the Cornwall Women's Institute. Though the weather was rather unfavorable, a large crowd was present, including several from Charlottetown. The sum of $37.00 was realized, all of which will be used for Red Cross purposes. In addition to their Red Cross work the members of the Institute are now making a collection in aid of the P. E. I. Hospital. They are also interesting themselves in the question of food conservation. At the next regular meeting which will be held at the Parsons, Cornwall, on July 8th, Miss Sterns will give a demonstration on "Wheat Flour Substitutes."

WEDDING BELLS.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wright, Central Bedoune, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, June 18th, when their eldest daughter, Tryphena Black was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Elliot Wright, of Kinkora. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Ayers, in the presence of relatives and friends. Miss Helen Clark of Summerside was bridesmaid, while Mr. Claire Wright, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Louise Wright, of Charlottetown. Mr. and Mrs. Wright were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts which testified to the popularity of both. After refreshments and a very pleasant evening Mr. and Mrs. Wright drove to their future home in Kinkora followed by the very best wishes of a host of friends and acquaintances.

In connection with the appointment of Dr. Alexander Ross as Deputy Medical Director for the Province under the Invalid Soldiers Commission, it may be mentioned that the new Deputy Director's duties will include the supervision of all returned soldiers who have been pensioned out of the army, and who may suffer a recurrence of any illness or the breaking down of a healed wound received while on duty. This does not mean, of course, that men developing other illnesses subsequent to their discharge and having no connection with their military service, will be entitled to free medical service. Arrangements have been made with both hospitals in Charlottetown by which men will receive free advice, medicine and treatment in the wards. A soldier who wants a room for himself, however, will have to pay extra for the same. Should a man be too ill to be removed to the hospital from the local institution in which he resides, the nearest medical doctor may be placed in charge, and be paid by the I. S. C. A scale of fees for such special cases, has been submitted by the I. S. C. to the Dominion Medical Association for approval. This scale is based on the rate provided under the Ontario Workmen's Compensation Act. In such special cases the local attendant is authorized by the Deputy Director, who must certify the fees which will then be paid by the I. S. C. It should be mentioned that the office of Deputy Director will also serve to provide a means of correcting any legitimate grievances which pensioned soldiers may be suffering from. Dr. Ross has already assumed duty.

ADDRESS
E. W. Gillett Co. Ltd.
TORONTO, CANADA

On Saturday, June 22nd, there passed peacefully away at her home in North Tryon, Miss Jane Wood, in the 74th ear of her age. She leaves to mourn one sister, Miss Carrie Wood, of North Tryon. The funeral took place at the home of Mrs. Edward Leard, Monday afternoon, where a large number of friends assembled to pay their last respect to the deceased, who had been sadly afflicted from childhood. The services were conducted by the Rev. George Morris, pastor of the Methodist Church. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. William Thomas, Joseph Fell, Major Caruthers and Artemas Cameron. Interment took place in Tryon Methodist Cemetery.

There died at her home, Emerald, P. E. I., on the 21st of June, 1918, after a long and trying illness, borne most patiently, Annie, the beloved wife of Patrick Kiely, who, together with five sons and two daughters, survive, namely: William, at Tidnish, Nova Scotia; John in Stavelley, Alta.; Henry at Windsor, Vermont in New Hampshire; George at the front in France; Mary A. in Salem, Mass.; and Rose Ella and Joseph at home. To the fact that Mrs. Kiely, who was in her sixty-sixth year, was very generally and very highly esteemed, and affectionately regarded by a host of friends and neighbors, the many kind and effective acts of neighborliness, at a time when kindness counts, abundantly testify as does the funeral cortege, the largest that ever entered Kinkora, where waiting hundreds joined in the obsequies at St. Malachi's on last Sunday afternoon. The pall bearers were Messrs. Michael and William Clark, Frank Greenan, John E. Murphy, Joseph Baker and John Murtagh.

The mourning family ask us to express their grateful appreciation to one and all.

May she rest in peace.
