SAYS CANADIANS MOST FORMIDABLE FORCE IN FRANCE

TORONTO, August 15.—"Having served eighteen months with the Canadians and seen some of the desperately heavy fighting last year at Vimy Ridge, Hill 70, and Passchendaele, I would like to say that in my opinion there is no more formidable fighting force in all Europe at the present day than the Canadian army corps," said His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught in an interview with the Star on route to Toronto.

"Canada has every reason in the world to be proud of her soldiers and as one who fought with them I know whereof I speak," he said.

Prince Arthur is the possessor of a charming personality and a finely democratic manner which manifested itself frequently during the interview.

Canada in the air also moved him to express admiration, and he said he was pleased to hear that Canada is to have an air force of her own.

"Canadians make fine airmen," he said, "all the national qualities of grit and individual enterprise find scope there, for it is really only in the air there can be any individual enterprise nowadays. Anyone who has been at the front cannot say too much for the flying men and their courage and steadfastness."

Commenting on his trip to the United States, which preceded the three weeks' visit to Japan, Prince Arthur spoke with enthusiasm of the war spirit it manifested there.

"I was impressed with the fact that from the President downwards every one I met was in the war with both feet. I got a glimpse of the shipbuilding which is going on in the Delaware river and I was impressed with the effort which was being made."

Prince Arthur himself is no frigid soldier. He was at the front with his regiment within three weeks of the declaration of war and remained there until the last Hun advance was brought to a close last April.

Happenings of the Week

Continued from Page Four Major-General J. Lyons Biggar and Mrs. Biggar, who have been spending the summer in Charlottetown, have returned to Ottawa.

Welcome visitors here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lea who were quite widely entertained by their old friends.

Miss Logan and little daughter of Halifax are summering here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paton.

Suit skirts are very narrow at the hem. Designers are again making an effort to have skirts of ankle length. Late summer suits have longer coats. While the cut is not that of any period of dress, it suggests the directoire styles and the redingote.

Mrs. (Dr.) McLeod of Fredericton, N. B., is here on a visit and spent the last week with friends in Keppoch.

Quite a few strangers have visited the Golf Links during the past few weeks and were delighted with the lovely location and hospitality extended. Mrs. Bagnall is hostess at afternoon tea today.

Mrs. Vernon Castle and Miss Lillian Russell have left for France to help in Y. M. C. A. entertainment work.

Mrs. Bearsto, Kent Street has as her guest her sister Mrs. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Atken and children who have been at the Sea View Hotel in Souris have returned home.

Major Fairweather after a most enjoyable holiday returned this week to his home in Sussex.

An interesting passenger on Monday's C. P. R. from Montreal was Chaplain of the British Fleet in Canada the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada en route to Halifax. In the course of a short conversation, Dr. Johnson said that there was a possibility of the Duke of Devonshire coming to the Maritime Provinces early in the fall as His Highness, since his arrival at Halifax, had not visited this section of the Dominion.

The hope is generally expressed that the starting news that Lieut. J. Rowland Paton is seriously ill from wounds received in the last big drive, may be followed with something more reassuring. Sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Paton and family in their great anxiety.

The Rev. Dr. Wilfrid Hall senior Chaplain of the British fleet in Canadian waters is spending a few weeks in this Province giving many interesting and inspiring addresses in the furtherance of his great work. He is to occupy the pulpit of St. James Church on Sunday evening.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER MADE IN CANADA E. W. GILLETT CO. LTD. TORONTO, CANADA WINNIPEG MONTREAL

The engagement of Marguerite Clark to Lieut. H. P. Williams has just been officially announced by Miss Clark's sister. Sounds like regular movie stuff, for he is a wealthy young Southerner whom Miss Clark met last April when she was in New Orleans on the Third Liberty Loan drive.

Although the weather continues cool the several summer hotels are crowded and everyone seems to enjoy themselves, boating, bathing, tennis and outdoor sports being widely engaged in.

The current craze for capes presages a probable vogue for capes for winter which will include sumptuous fur garments, long or short. Early fall furs for wear with one piece dresses will feature short coats. Separate coats designed on loose flowing lines are shown in French displays intended for importation and to set styles for manufacturers in New York. Belts are used to trim rather than to confine any fulness; and slender lines are emphasized. Wider shoulder seams are noticed in some high class garments, with the sleeves placed in a lower armhole.
