A serious fire took place at Maddock's Lot 8, about two-thirty Saturday morning in which the store of Charles McDougall, with its contents, was totally destroyed. It was not known how the fire started and when discovered had gained such headway that it was impossible to save anything. Mr. McDougall's loss is a heavy one with very little insurance.

The annual meeting of the Lots 27-28 Institute was held in Albion schoolhouse on Dec. 19. President, G. W. W. Cameron spoke for a short time on the work of the past year, after which the secretary read the minutes of the last annual meeting, also financial statement. On motion they were approved. Jos. Noonan, Jas. Ernest Harvey, Wright, Ches. Denis, William Deegan, Samuel C. Puthers, T. H. Smith, G. W. W. Cameron and J. E. Howatt were elected directors for the present year and it was arranged to hold meetings this winter at Augustine Cove, Middleton, St. John's, Carleton, Albany and Bryon. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Pres. Cameron for his services of the past three years and suitably acknowledged by him. The meeting adjourned and the directors held a session for the election of officers: Pres., G. W. W. Cameron (re-elected); Vice Pres., Jos. Noonan; Sec'y, Treas., J. E. Howatt (re-elected). It was decided to hold a meeting in Augustine Cove Schoolhouse Jan. 9th at two and seven p.m. Subject for discussion our Failures and Successes from the Farmer's Standpoint.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 30th, the home of James F. and Mrs. McNutt, Darney, was the scene of a very pleasant (and specially family) gathering, the occasion being the celebration of a golden wedding. Fifty years ago, three months after the death of Dr. John Keir, it seems that almost a wedding fever struck the vacant congregation. At any rate, Rev. J. M. McLeod Sr., (now of Vancouver) came from "over the bay" and united in the bonds of matrimony two couples on the same evening, the couples being James F. McNutt and Ellen McLean. Many changes have taken place since then but Mr. and Mrs. McNutt still remain, quite well and hearty for their years. After a very enjoyable evening, and bountiful supper as the guests were rising from the table Malcolm McGowan handed the presentation gifts to Mr. Hattoe, who, with a brief impromptu speech of hearty congratulation, conveyed them to Mr. and Mrs. McNutt. The gifts were intrinsically valuable, of fine gold, the pastor remarking that

From an American paper of a recent date the following was clipped: The marriage of Miss Flora H. McDonald of Summerside, to George Lutz of Old Town, Maine, was solemnized Tuesday at the home of H. D. Wicket, Fourth street. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present at the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Fred A. Snow, pastor of the Baptist Church. The young couple were the recipient of many fine gifts and they have the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy married life. The Miss McDonald mentioned above is a daughter of R. H. McDonald, St. Eleanor's and her many friends will be glad to hear of this happy event.

The Parsonage of the Methodist Church, 41 Saratoga St., East Boston, Mass., was the scene of a beautiful wedding, on December 24th, when Miss Alice Edith Heckbert, daughter of Martin A. and Mrs. Heckbert of Summerside, was united in marriage to Alexander D. Corbett, of 69 Border St., East Boston. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. B. Bates, D. D. The bride and groom were attended by Henry and Mrs. Cobb, of No. 4 Liverpool Avenue, East Boston, and Misses Elizabeth and Amelia Corbett, sisters of the groom. Following the marriage a brilliant wedding reception was held at the residence of H. A. and Mrs. Cobb. The bride received many beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett will make their future home at 69 Border St., East Boston.
