IDENTITY OF DERELICT IS REVEALED

Hope For Crew of the Ena F. Parsons Abandoned As Hull Is Towed to Port.

(Canadian Press) WEST PORT, N. S., Oct. 15—Hope was abandoned tonight for seven Nova Scotia lives as the storm-torn hull of a three-masted schooner swung idly in the tide at this Brier Island port. Adrift off the coast for days, it was towed here Saturday and identified as the Ena F. Parsons, caught in a gale that lashed the Atlantic a week ago.

Crew Lost

Six men and women were aboard the three-master when she stood down St. Mary Bay from Weymouth, N. S., for Boston on Oct. 7. The storm sprang up a few hours later, and mariners believe the vessel was dismasted and overturned that night.

Next day, the drifting derelict was sighted off the coast. Nearby floated scattered pieces of lumber, presumably part of the Parsons' cargo. There were no bodies in sight. Only hint of the crew's fate lay tonight in a battered lifeboat that drifted ashore Saturday on Long Island, not many miles from the spot where the schooner was found.

Picked Up

Several small fishing boats picked up the big schooner after she had been sighted two miles off Brier Island's western tip by lightkeeper Bradford Morrell. They had difficulty getting the capsized craft to port, and later the motor vessel Grace Lee and the Government

Liquidation Board Created

(Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Oct. 15—President Roosevelt announced tonight the creation of a deposit liquidation board to bring immediate relief to depositors in closed national and state banks of the United States by lending approximately $1,000,000,000 on the assets of those institutions.

U.S. ENDORSES BRITISH PLAN

(Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Oct. 15—(A.P.)—The United States tonight was disclosed standing firmly with its one-time allies, Great Britain and France, in opposition to German rearmament and in support of the arms reduction plan which led the Reich to both the Geneva Conference and the League of Nations.

This was made clear in a statement that followed official expressions of concern and great disappointment at the Hitler Government's sudden action and an assertion by Secretary of State Cordell Hull that the German withdrawal would halt the entire movement toward disarmament.

In direct language the Roosevelt Administration asserted its position that a Disarmament Convention could not properly be made an instrument for rearmament and that qualitative equality in armaments should primarily be sought through the reduction in the armaments of the heavily armed powers and not through act on the part of others to attempt to build up.

Bitter Passage Hits At United Kingdom

(Canadian Press Cable) BERLIN, Oct. 15—Observers examining the text of Chancellor Hitler's address last night to the nation and the world noted an unusually bitter passage directed at the United Kingdom for permitting an unofficial international commission to conduct a probe into the Reichstag fire.

Expressing indignation at what he saw as an insult to Germany's Supreme Court the Chancellor asked: "What would this world say about Germany if we permitted a mock trial to be held in favor of

Arms Conference Adjourns A Week

Despite Germany's Withdrawal From Parley, Delegates Refuse To Consider Disarmament A Dead Issue

GENEVA, Oct. 15—(A. P.)—International life, that governments will want to consult with one another. Without effective German participation, the statesmen seemingly fully to realize that it will scarcely be practical to make a convention.

So, eventually, the Disarmament Conference may have to decide on a long adjournment.

Nevertheless, various governments will be asked to give their opinion whether it is feasible to conclude a treaty and sign it, but make everything conditional on Germany's adherence.

France, particularly, regards Germany's withdrawal from the international mechanics, of peace a most serious matter. Foreign Minister

FRANCE IS SILENT ON SITUATION

War Fears Are Reborn—Awaits British and United States View.

(Associated Press) PARIS, Oct. 15—A Foreign Office official said today that war fears have been re-born by yesterday's speech of Chancellor Hitler of Germany but that "we are calm."

He said Hitler's acts have resurrected the Treaty of Versailles. Premier Daladier kept silent. He sat much of the day in the Ministry of War, consulting political and military chiefs and trying to map France's course.

Strongly Supported

In official circles it was said the Daladier cabinet had gained tremendous strength in the present situation and all parliamentary talk among deputies is of a national unity to face "an unmasked Germany."

The government, it was said officially, will remain silent until a course is determined. This course, an official said, probably will be indicated Tuesday by the Premier

Transportation Commission To Be Revived

(Canadian Press) SAINT JOHN, N. B., Oct. 15—Former members of the Maritime Transportation Commission and the executive of the Maritime Board of Trade will be called to a meeting at an early date, probably in Moncton, to discuss final details with regard to revival of the Commission, according to an announcement tonight by F. M. Solanders, Commissioner of the Saint John Board of Trade.

Decision to hold the meeting was made at Ottawa between the Saint John, St. Stephen and Halifax delegates to the annual meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

The Maritime Transportation Commission revival was given impetus recently by the announcement of the Nova Scotia Government had joined New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island in pledging financial support for the commission.

European Crisis At A Glance

(Canadian Press) MONTREAL, Oct. 15—Confronted with Germany's withdrawal from councils of world peace, statesmen of the four great powers conferred Sunday at Geneva and decided to adjourn the arms conference temporarily, approximately for one week.

They refused to admit disarmament was dead as the result of Germany's stepping out of the arms conference and the League of Nations.

In Germany, floods of congratulatory telegrams descended upon Chancellor Adolf Hitler as the nation pondered world reaction to the Dictator's speech and the Government's sudden action.

Vienna—The pro-government press was sympathetic with the German action; the Socialists were angry. Dollfus spent the weekend in the country as usual. Official quarters were eager to learn whether Italy had previous knowledge of the Hitler withdrawal.

(By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Writer) GENEVA, Oct. 15—The curtain falls tomorrow on the first act of the great tragedy of disarmament. The General Committee of the conference meets according to schedule. But delegates, stunned by the blow from Berlin announcing Germany's withdrawal from the meeting, realize the futility of attempting to get anywhere without the Germans, and an adjournment will be proposed for a week to permit governments to review the

Reichstag Dissolved In Nazi Campaign Of Armed Nationalism

Elections Called For Nov. 12th To Indorse Policy Outlined In Belligerent Speech By Chancellor Hitler.

(Canadian Press and Associated Press) BERLIN, Oct. 15—Under the dictatorial control of Adolf Hitler, her Reichstag and State Parliaments dissolved, Germany stood tonight divorced in intention from the family of nations at Geneva and outside the Disarmament Conference.

By one of the boldest strokes of official action since his assumption of power, Chancellor Adolf Hitler Saturday served notice on the League of Nations that Germany will withdraw two years hence, and on the Disarmament Conference that the Reich no longer finds it possible to continue its attendance.

On November 12 elections to the Reichstag and a plebiscite will be held in order to enable the people to express their approval of the course of the Nazi regime. Indications are that only Nazi names will appear on the ballots against which the voters may write "yea" or "nay."

Take Action

They may similarly register their opinion of the government's policies and to the end of universal approval the completely comprehensive Nazi propaganda machine has already swung into action.

The words of Hitler in a speech to the world still rang in German ears tonight.

The Chancellor excoriated the Treaty of Versailles, protested Germany's will to peace and emphatically declared she had been moved in resigning from the League of Nations and withdrawing from the Disarmament Conference by her desire for "equality and honor."

BERLIN, Oct. 15—(A.P.)—Chancellor Hitler's appeal to the people to rally behind the Government was placarded on bulletin boards throughout the Reich today, showing the Cabinet would not let even Sunday interfere with its gigantic campaign to unite the nation by November 12 when a plebiscite will be held for endorsement of the government's policy.

Though thousands gathered on street corners yesterday to hear Hitler's speech through amplifiers and there was passing of beer mugs in Berlin offices, the nation as a whole was too much taken by surprise or too well disciplined to give vent to its enthusiasm at its "liberation" as the press universally called it.

By the time the German citizen awakens to the portentousness of the government's action in dissolving the Reichstag and all State Parliaments, he will also realize Prussia, Bavaria and other States will soon cease to exist, at least as governmental units.

EINSTEIN ARRIVES IN HALIFAX, N.S.

Famous Scientist Enroute to New York Proves Uncommunicative to Reporters.

(By John LeBlanc) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) HALIFAX, Oct. 15—(C.P.)—A soft-boiled egg holds more interest for Prof. Albert Einstein than the time-honored custom whereby arriving celebrities air their views for the shipping reporters.

He came to Halifax today and left again, and all the newsmen got was a shake of the scientist's head and a glance that told them, more plainly than words, to go away and let him finish his interrupted breakfast.

SAYS NOTHING

He said nothing—literally. That shake of the head, sending the famous unruly hair tossing wildly, was his nearest approach to speech. And then the mathematician bent to his egg with a look of resignation.

It was in the dining saloon of the liner Westernland, bound for
