TWO BICYCLES GIVEN AWAY IN CHARLOTTETOWN

Awards Mark Close of Very Successful Campaign for Quaker Oats Company, Ltd.

With the announcement [illegible] Nora Harper, East Royalty, as the winner and Cudmore Bros., as the grocer selling the package of Quaker Oats to the winner, the Quaker Oats Company of Canada bring to a close a very successful Campaign for the product in Prince Edward Island.

Miss Harper is to be congratulated on her success in winning the bicycle offered as prize. Cudmore Bros., also received a bicycle as a prize for selling the winning package.

Early in November the Quaker Oats Company instituted the Campaign as a means of boosting their sales. Thousands of contestants entered in all parts of Canada and the United States. The campaign in Prince Edward Island was under the direction of their wholesaler Mr. Arnold Rattenbury.

Another contest has been announced sponsored by the same Company. This time Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour is to be featured.

As prizes in a new and different kind of contest, Aunt Jemima—maker of delicious pancakes with that "old plantation flavor"—is going to give away $9000.00 in cash, split up into 2,562 separate prizes. A few minutes' work may win $1000.00, the first prize. Even one of the 1,500 lowest prizes offered—$2.00 each—will more than repay entrants for the few minutes needed to enter the contest.

The contest itself is simple. Entrants use ordinary school crayons to color a finished picture of Claudette Colbert, the star of "Imitation of Life," a picture based on the story of Aunt Jemima. Grocers or movie theatres showing "Imitation of Life" will gladly furnish a full color picture of Miss Colbert as a guide to contest entrants.

There is no age limit on those who can enter the Aunt Jemima Contest. Even 4-year-olds can win a prize! The age of the entrants is taken into consideration when the picture is placed before competent judges. Those who color the picture best, or who present the most interesting results in the opinion of the judges, win the cash prizes. The only necessary qualification for entrance is that 2 box tops from Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour packages (or facsimiles) accompany each entry.

The contest closes midnight, March 15, 1935, so before that date there's enough time for everyone to enter.

ONTARIO PREMIER TO VISIT "QUINTS"

CALLANDER, Ont., Jan. 23—The Dionne quintuplets, in the opinion of their physician, Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe, are perfect examples of limb freedom and muscular development.

"They can put their toes in their mouths as easily as anything," Dr. Dafoe boasts. "You can't imagine their strength and liveliness. You only need to handle them to learn of limb freedom and muscular development."

The babies are now spending much of their time putting their toes in their mouths. The toes act as a relief to sore gums caused by the imminent arrival of teeth. The infants are in perfect health. Seven months and 24 days old today, they will be visited by Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn some time this week. It will be the Prime Minister's first sight of the famous girls.

PRESENTED BY QUEEN

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados, Jan. 23—A medallion portrait of King William IV, has been presented to the Barbados Museum and Historical Society by Queen Mary, it was announced here today.

The portrait, measuring 4 1-4 by 5 1-2 inches, is mounted on ebony with a gilt oval mounting surrounding the ebony frame. The gift was made in remembrance of King William's visit to Barbados in 1788 when he was captain of H.M.S. Pegasus.

POOR LITTLE GIRL GETS MARVELLOUS CHANCE

NEW YORK, Jan. 23—A 10 year old girl from New York's east side—Ida Miller, trained in a settlement house—was introduced last night to Broadway by Daniel Frohman, who sponsored Maude Adams and Julia Marlowe.

Ida made her debut as an actress at an actors' benefit in the title role of the one-act comedy, "Edith's Burglar."

"She has the carriage of an empress," said Frohman.

"I am thrilled," said Ida.

MARKET GOSSIP

(By Johnston and Ward's Special Wire)

MORNING MARKET LETTER

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan 23—After some early firmness the market developed reactionary tendencies yesterday, volume was small and there was no real pressure of stock for sale but bids were under rather than at the market The feature of the day was the strength and activity in normally inactive second grade pfd stocks For several days this class of stock has been rather steadily bought without attaining the prominence it did yesetrday. Around 104 in the D. J. industrial average it is natural that the market meet fairly substantial resistance to the advance There seems to be little reason at this time for the market to advance through the old highs so that we would rather await further developments before making new commitments

As indicated in a message to you a month ago, the commission who have been investigating power conditions in the Province of Quebec brought in a recommendation that a Commission be appointed who would have control over the production, transportation and distribution of electric power with control over rates new security issues, etc. They advocate against nationalization or provincial ownership Should this report cause any weakness in power stocks today I think that they should be bought on the reaction After all, there are many public utilities which have prospered and paid handsomely under the supervision of Provincial and state boards. In fact, it may be beneficial for the Companies to be under this control and to be removed from the constant nagging and sniping of publicity seeking politicians. Companies likely to be affected are of course Montreal Power, Shawinigan, Southern Canada Power, Beauharnois, Canada Northern Power, Gatineau.

BARR LETTER

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 23—Wheat and corn closed about ½ cent lower having sold about ¼ cent below the lows of yesterday. Will probably move in a narrow range till end of month December Coton as advised yesterday can be bought 12.45 to 12.40.

Stocks were so inactive that it seems a waste of time to write about it. Therefore, all I can say is that our last two letters hold good. I still think that the averages should lose about half of what they gained since last Tuesday and if the gold decision is along the lines suggested by me in recent letters, then the Industrial averages should go near 118

Fairbanks Morse, recommended when it was near 17 sold above 20 still a buy if it reacts near 18.

Electric and Musical Instruments of which we told you to stay long the last time we mentioned it sold above 8, you should hold still be long around 2 and 3 and can afford to stay long.

Radio "B" pfd sold below 40 and if it reacts below 38 you might buy some, also the common around 4 which is sure to go higher if it ever gets started.

General Electric acts well and if you are not afraid of a point setback buy some just below 23, it should go to 35

American Foreign Power 1st pfd is resting but will soon start up again

Car Foundry pfd gained over a point more and should still be held Otherwise our letters of Monday and Saturday still hold good.

Baring.

MINING

(Canadian Press)
TORONTO, Jan. 23—Buyers were in the market for McWatters today and the price hopped up 9 cents to 72 on volume of 55,00 shares The penny group formed the back-bone of the day's business on the mining section of the Toronto, higher-priced golds and base metals moving but slowly and silvers showing no action of importance. Turnover in the medium priced gold group was fair with the price tone mildly soft. The index indicated a slight improvement over the board for the day but the tally showed 32 stocks closing lower and 26 higher.

Trade in McWatters was stimulated by the company's preparations for mill expansion with short covering playing a minor role. Another active issue on the up side was Kirkland townsite which gained a point to 31.

Calves were unchanged at $6 to $7 50 for veals of fair to medium good quality and $4 to $5 for pailfed calves Grassers brought $3

There were only a few hogs and although bids were higher than yesterday's close, sellers were holding for more money

NO TEACHING JOB FOR CO-EDS WHO SMOKES

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 23—Cigarette smoking co-eds of the university of today will be barred as teachers of tomorrow in Middlesex rural schools, Fred McGill, president of the Middlesex School Trustees and Ratepayers Association said in a convention address yesterday.

Mr. McGill said it was none of his business if girls wanted to smoke. "But it is some of my business, and your business if these girls are teachers teaching our children," he added.

"CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME" SHRIEK STRIKING GIRLS

NEW YORK, Jan. 23—They paid $7.50 each for tickets, chained themselves to a railing, and still didn't get a chance to tell their story.

They interrupted a speech by Mayor Fiorello H. Laguardia, however in no less a place than the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Ann Friedman and Ann Miller, striking employes of a department store, sought to tell their employer, who was chairman at the philanthropic function, that "charity should begin at home."

Persons in nearby boxes clapped their hands over the girls' mouths when they started to speak. Detectives finished the muffling job while workmen sawed the chain.

INDIAN CENSUS

SINGAPORE Jan. 23—(CP)—Latest health department figures disclose that more than 100,000 Indians live in the Straits Settlements.
