Cleanliness is Next to Godliness

If you want your home thoroughly clean and healthy, have it done scientifically. Ordinary disinfectants give only a false sense of security. Microbes and bacteria lurk beyond the reach of the most particular housewife. I use only the latest approved method which is a perfect germicide and endorsed by a Board of Health and Health Officers.

S. S. LESSON

LESSON VI AUGUST 9.
1 Sam., 17:1, 16:5.
DAVID AND GOLIATH.
GOLDEN TEXT.
"In the Lord put I my trust." Ps. 11:1.

EXPOSITION:
I. Goliath's Boasting, 38-44. The challenge of Goliath had filled the hearts of the whole army with dismay (vs. 11, 24, 32), but young David had no fear. The eyes of all the rest of the Israel were upon them selves. The eyes of David were upon God (v. 37). This was the one secret of David's courage, assurance and victory. It is the secret of all true courage and victory. Saul also had been at one time a man of dauntless courage, but the Spirit of God had now departed from him and he was as big a coward as any in Israel (cf. ch. 16:14). David, relying upon Jehovah, proposed to go and fight the mighty giant single-handed. To cool common sense his proposition seemed the height of absurdity. There was much about Goliath to fill David with fears (vs. 4-8). David had taken all these things into account, but he was not afraid; for Jehovah was his salvation and his strength (cf. Ps. 27:1-3). If we truly trust in the LORD we will never be afraid no matter though the odds against us seem to be overwhelming (Isa. 12:2; Ro. 8:31). Even Saul sought to dissuade him (v. 33). When God calls any one of us to fight some Goliath some kindly intentioned Saul is sure to say, "Thou art not able" (cf. Phil. 4:13). It was a good argument that David brought forward to answer the argument of unbelief (vs. 34-37). We may wisely trust the God who has delivered us in the past to also deliver us in the present and the future (cf. Ro. 8:32). David was confident, furthermore, that Goliath was doomed to defeat because he had defied the living God (vs. 26, 36). Saul sought to help David by clothing him with his own apparel and armor. But the intended help proved a real hindrance. It is impossible to fight the battles and win the victories of faith with Saul's armor (2 Cor. 10:4). When David tried Saul's armor he was forced to say, "I cannot go with these."
II. David's Victory, 45-49. All Israel had been frightened by Goliath's boasts. Many a professed Christian in these days is terribly frightened by the blatant boasts of infidelity, but the true man of faith is not at all disturbed by all this bluster. David was not frightened simply because his whole trust was "in the name of the LORD of hosts." David's answer is well worth studying. Our answer to the boasts of unbelief to-day ought to be the same. To the eye of sense "a sword" and "a spear" and "a javelin" seemed like a better equipment than "the name of the Lord of hosts," but when any man can truly say that he goes into battle in the name of the Lord of hosts' his victory is sure. Jehovah is "the God of the armies of Israel." David made a great deal of the fact that Goliath had defied the Lord (v. 45; cf. vs. 26, 36). Calmly but fearlessly David declared to Goliath the sure outcome of the battle. He took no credit to himself. He said "The Lord will deliver this into my hand." David knew that by faith alone. There was nothing for sense to build upon (cf. Heb. 11:1). David would smite Goliath not because of any strength of his own, but only because God had delivered him into his hand. David would do to Goliath and "the host of the Philistines" just what Goliath had boasted that he would do to David (v. 46; cf. v. 44). God's purpose in giving this great victory to David was not merely to magnify David, but "that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel." David was not aiming at his own honor but at Jehovah's, but he got great honor for himself (ch. 18:6, 7). Israel needed to learn a lesson as well as the world (v. 47, R.V.). The church need to learn that lesson to-day. The battle is the Lord's, it is in His hands. He will give it into the hands of those who trust in and obey Him. There is always an open place somewhere in the infidel's armor, and the man who trusts God to guide his air is sure to find it. How easily the enemies we most fear come down when we face them in God's strength.

Digby, N. S.
Minard's Liniment Co., Limited,
Gentlemen,—Last August my horse was badly cut in eleven places by a barbed wire fence. Three of the cuts, (small ones) healed soon, but the others became foul and rotten, and though I tried many kinds of medicine they had no beneficial result. At last a doctor advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT and in four weeks' time every sore was healed and the hair has grown over each one in fine condition. The Liniment is certainly wonderful in its working.
