

WHERE TO GET SMELTS AND EELS

R. F. Hall & Co., 37 Fulton market, New York, will pay highest prices for smelts, scallop, eels, and lobsters, from shippers in this province as well as handle salt cod and where they also handle salt cod and hand dried cod for the Italian trade that parties having such to dispose of should write the firm, which is an old reliable one having been established since 1888, and get fuller particulars as to manner of sending goods.

Shippers who have smelts and eels for which they desire a ready market should write or ship to Murphy & White Co., 9 Fulton Fish Market, New York, whose ad appears elsewhere in this issue. Personal attention is given to their consignments which greatly aids in securing a high price for all goods. This firm has a large business experience and is not connected with any other New York fish firm.

"2000 yards of dress tweeds and suitings are on display at Patons. These tweeds make very stylish costumes. We have every confidence that these tweeds are going to be very popular this coming winter. A considerable number of reversible suitings are shown. However these reversibles are used more for coats than for suits. We have the latest shades in these cloths from 1.75 to $3.25 per yard.—PATONS, 10—28dtf.

The main electoral issues are Morocco, and the foreign policy of the Government; dear food; a demand for the revision of the tariff; reform of taxation, with the introduction of an inheritance tax and the popular cry for a curtailment of the power of the Catholic centrum.

"The Cornwall has been a frequent visitor in this port.

At a meeting of the quarterly official board of Grace Methodist Church, City, held recently a unanimous invitation was extended to Rev. J. The People's Theatre certainly had a splendid program ready for its patrons last night. The Interrupted Game and That Dare Devil, supplied plenty of fun, while the Kalem subject on the War Path was one of the finest yet shown. In Time for Press was an excellent subject and the whole show went without a hitch. Emory White rendered My Wild Irish Rose, as he knows so well how to do, with an expression that added to the great beauty of the song, and touched all hearts. His first song was a selection from the Pink Lady and was good.

The writer was somewhat amused and indignant on Saturday last while travelling on the train going to Souris. Near the door of one of the carriages was seated a young woman who to all appearance wished to occupy the space of four passengers. When asked "Is this seat taken?" she replied "yes." But for a distance of twenty miles no one seemed to put in an appearance, yet the car was uncomfortably filled and it was no easy matter to secure seats. It would be well for the conductors to notice this sort of lady-like (?) attitude to the travelling public.

The People's Theatre puts on this evening a picture which each and every loyal Canadian in the city should see. It is the landing of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, only a few days ago, and shows their welcome by the present and ex-premier, the Guard of Honor, Colonel Sam Hughes, the Minister of Militia, Parliament Hill, the route of procession, etc. This reel was only released a few days since, just as soon as possible after the scenes were taken. No extra admission fee is charged but as the reel means additional attractions and expense, it is only fair to expect that bumper houses will attend the showing of it.

There are six P. E. Island schooners at the wharf with produce. They are all evidently in a combine. Although the Island papers quote the price of potatoes as 35 cents per bushel, these schooners at 55 cents for potatoes and 35 or 40 cents for turnips which is out of all reason. These schooners ought to be taxed like any other merchant who comes to town for a month to do business.—New Glasgow Enterprise.
