MacLeod-Shepherdson Wedding Bells

Full standards of palms and baskets of pastel colored gladioli and fern formed the pleasing setting for a ceremony in Zion United Church, Moose Jaw, Sask. on Sat. Sept. 6th, when Jean Muriel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Shepherdson became the bride of John Alexander MacLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. MacLeod, Montague, P. E. I.

The guest pews were marked with gladioli tied with bows of satin ribbon. Rev. Ian McEwan performed the service, and wedding music was played by Mr. Robt. Pounder. Mr. Clarence Stansfield sang the Hebrew Benediction, as the bride reached the altar, and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, attired in a sweeping white taffeta gown, in empire style with nylon net yoke double puffed sleeves, shirred torso and double bustle effect. Her long mittens were of shirred taffeta, matching her gown. Her veil cascaded from a head dress of rose buds. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli, each floret centred by a red rose bud. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

She was attended by Miss Betty McKillop, who wore a floor length gown of soft apple green sheer, fitted bodice with shirred skirt, cap sleeves and elbow length beige French kid gloves. She carried a chest bouquet of bronze gladioli, adorned with gold baby mums. Her bridesmaid was a bandeau of matching baby mums. The groom was supported by Mr.
