—JUNE WEDDING AT BAYFIELD, N. B.—On Thursday evening, June 6th, the Methodist Church, Bayfield, N. B., was the scene of an unusually interesting event, when Miss Madge D. Dobson of Bayfield, N. B., and Mr. John L. Jelly, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Bayfield were united in marriage. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and a large number of people from the surrounding communities witnessed the ceremony. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. E. S. Weeks, the pastor of the church. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Clayton McCashner. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Frank E. Dobson and the young couple were unattended. The bride wore a blue travelling suit with hat to match and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and maidenhair ferns. While the registrar was being signed the local choir sang the "Voice that breathed o'er Eden." Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple left on a honeymoon trip to P. E. I. The bride is a most popular young lady, and a member of the Bayfield Church Choir. The groom is the popular and efficient manager of the local bank. He is the son of Mr. Henry S. Jelly of O'Leary, P. E. I. He has been a resident of Bayfield for three years, and has interested himself in the general welfare of the village, and we are pleased to know that he, with his estimable wife, will remain in our midst for some time to come. On the evening of May 24th, the bride was tendered a "variety shower" at the Parsonage, where the esteem in which she is held was manifested by the array of beautiful gifts from her friends and well-wishers.

Southern City Building Copy of Famed Parthenon

(United Press)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 5.—Nashville's Parthenon, now nearing completion in Centennial Park, will reflect the ancient glories of the Parthenon of Athens and be a monument of the city's appreciation of Grecian art. This duplication in Nashville of the famous building of the fifth century, B. C., has been carried out with painstaking care. Skilled hands have reproduced the original frieze, architrave, metopes, triglyphs and other minute details in their exact form, which when completed will be rounded into the only exact reproduction of the Parthenon in the world, it is claimed.

The Athens Parthenon, according to the sculptors Belle Kinney of Nashville and Leopold F. Scholz, her husband, engaged in the building of the Nashville edifice, was erected in ancient times with an optical appeal. It was constructed on the architectural curve, instead of the straight line, the giant columns forming the most difficult feat of architecture, all the intricate points being reproduced exactly in the Nashville building. The Nashville Parthenon, built temporarily, stood in Centennial Park as the main arts building during the Centennial celebration held in 1897, commemorating the admission of Tennessee into the Union and was dedicated formally on June 1, 1896, the date of Tennessee's one hundredth anniversary. The City of Nashville since then has decided to make the building a lasting memorial to culture and art, and the work of "making over" permanently is expected to be completed early in 1925.

LIES

There is no question that there are all sorts of lies, and that truthfulness as a principle and as a policy is unknown to multitudes of people. Often the reason for this is lack of proper training in childhood. A great many men and women have grown up to believe in the lie as a policy. They believe that it pays to deceive. Yet the reputation of always, everywhere, under all circumstances telling the truth—the exact truth—is worth a thousand times more to one than any temporary gain from deceit.

ANANIAS

The name Ananias is in disrepute because of the liar of that name mentioned in the fifth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. Two others of the name are mentioned in the Scriptures. One of these was a high priest in A. D. 48 who was afterward assassinated; the other a Jewish disciple at Damascus. Tradition makes him to have been bishop of Damascus and to have died by martyrdom.

AN INTERESTING PRESENTATION

The following is from the "Sackville Tribune":
BAYFIELD, June 2.—On Monday evening, May 26th, there was an interesting gathering at Dr. Barnhill's residence, Bayfield, N. B., when about thirty of the male members of Bayfield and the adjacent village of Cape Tormentine, assembled to pay cordial respects to Mr. John L. Jelly, the popular manager of the Bank of N. S., Bayfield. Mr. Jelly was ushered into the midst of the assembled visitors, and he had time to regain his breath. Dr. Barnhill called upon Mr. Weeks to give a few remarks relative to the occasion. Rev. Mr. Weeks referred to Mr. Jelly as a young man who came here three years ago and ever since he has taken an active part in helping along the best interests of the community. He is a popular, efficient, obliging and a "jolly good fellow", whom everybody likes. The Dr. then stepped forward and read an address well-words for the occasion and this was accompanied by a beautiful leather covered chair. Mr. Jelly, modest and bashful as some prospective grooms are was too much taken by surprise to formulate a "speech", but he thanked his kind friends warmly for their gift. The folks gathered were greatly amused by the putting on of a "Mock Marriage", by some young people attired in fantastic fashion to suit the occasion. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Barnhill.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Child's Hair With

If you want to keep children's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can not possibly injure the hair. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess sebum, and dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will last for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

Middle Age? Reading Glasses

All, everybody, at middle age require reading glasses. A simple test is the way the print blurs, jumps round and floating specks appear before your eyes after reading some time. The eye lens hardens as time goes on and glasses are the only means of keeping the correct focus in safe comfort. Have your eyes examined.
