INFANTRY REINFORCEMENTS

Recruits are coming in rapidly for the Infantry Reinforcements now being formed in Charlottetown, and the doctor had a busy day yesterday and Monday when over twenty-five able-bodied, manly young fellows presented themselves for examination. Only one of the bunch was rejected on account of small chest measurement, but with the spirit that will sooner or later make him a hero, he remarked that he would take a hard course of physical training and left with the assurance that he would be in the ranks within three weeks. The following is a list of those who signed the service roll Monday and Tuesday:

Private James Hayter, High Bank.
Private Amos Doucette, Charlottetown.
Private Angus Mathieson, Bradalbane.

HEALTHY CHILDREN

A child's health depends upon the state of his stomach and bowels. If they are kept regular and sweet the little one is sure to be healthy. Baby's Own Tablets are the mother's best friend in keeping her little ones well. They act as a gentle laxative; are absolutely safe and are pleasant to take. Concerning them Mrs. David Label Ste. Perpetue, Que., writes:—"My baby was so troubled with constipation that he could not sleep day or night. I gave him Baby's Own Tablets and now he is a big healthy boy." The tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PRESENTATION

At a meeting of the trackmen of Lodge No. 218 held in Charlottetown October 20th, Thos. Ledwell and Michael Campbell No. 2 Heavy Siege Battery, was each presented with $10.00 in gold by their fellow members and the following address:

Dear Brothers:—As you are soon to leave here at the Empire's call to arms, we your fellow members of this Lodge take this opportunity of showing our pride in you and our appreciation of your noble decision to do your share for the defence of your country in this great struggle. As members of this order you have been faithful to its principles and true to your obligation and we are sure in the strenuous life ahead of you that you will do your full duty to your King and Country. We trust that when this war is over you will return to your native country safe and sound and be very sure that in no place will a warmer welcome await you than here in the bosom of this Lodge.

Signed on behalf of Lodge,
MATTHEW S. LEA, President.
GEO. E. LANE. Sec'y Treas.

The address was replied to by both young men in fitting terms and after some stirring speeches by other members the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

The sum of $25.00 was also voted for the Red Cross Fund.

FOOTBALL

Great was the enthusiasm evinced on Monday at Brighton Gaol, when there appeared on the bulletin board a challenge from the left section of the No. 2 "Overseas" Siege Artillery to the right section of the same body, to a friendly game of football. The right section, as ever, was game, and at 4 p.m. Tuesday the game was staged on the Victoria Park gridiron. The line-up was as follows:

RIGHT		LEFT
	Full Back.
Gr. H. Mollins		Gr. Morgan
	Half Backs.
Lieut. Hooper		Gr. G. M. White
Sergt. Stewart		Sergt. Lawrence
Bdr. Kennedy		Gr. McCaron
Gr. Lantz		Gr. Ferguson
	Quarters.
Gr. Stanley		Gr. McIsaac
Gr. J. White		Gr. McGuigan
Gr. J. Callaghan		Gr. McCoy
	Forwards.
Bdr. Nash		Corp. Nicholson
Gr. Bourke		Gr. Ramsay
Gr. Bears		Gr. McNeill
Gr. Young, Sgt. McKay		Sergt. Cole
Gr. Stone		Gr. Cameron
Gr. Welsh		Gr. Walker
		Gr. Kinsman

At half-time the score stood 6—0 and at full time 9—0 in favor of the left section, Lawrence having scored twice in the first half and McCoy, he plucky little quarter, once in the second half.

Dame Rumor has it that the Right Section has it in mind to provide an oyster supper for the Left, but so far the report is unconfirmed. One thing, more to be desired even than this, is to see a picked team from the Battery pitted against some of the city teams, just to prove their mettle. All honor to the men of both sections who fought hard on the football field of honor! Here's to wishing that when the day of tenting on a more awful field comes they may not be found wanting!

LIEUTENANT GEORGE STANWAY is a Charlottetown boy and he will address the patriotic meeting on the Square to-day. There must still be enough young men in the city who were his school chums to form a section (30 men) to go forward under his command on overseas service. Come forward boys to-day. The King's appeal is to you as well as others.

ISLAND SOLDIERS ARE CHEERFUL LOT

The following letter was received by Miss Carrie Robinson from her nephew Pte. Arthur Robinson.

On Active Service "Somewhere"
Sept. 26th, 1915

Dear Aunt,—

This is Sunday morning and as we are not in the trenches yet I have a little time to spend writing. As it is some time since I wrote you I think it is about time I did again.

It is about eleven o'clock here so I suppose you are still sleeping peacefully, and I say, I would not mind it a bit if I was home and doing the same, although I am quite comfortable here in our cosy little dugout, out of reach of all the Germans in Europe.

I must tell you about the nice dugout and the four fellows who are in it with me. It is a kind of a tunnel running into the side of a loamy hill, with rubber sheets and blankets hung up over the mouth of it. We have niches in the back, where we keep our equipments and we put candles in them at night so it won't be too lonesome. On the floor we have straw, stolen from a stack near by, and all over our kits which make excellent beds, when you know how to arrange them. Well that is so much for our home, now for the fellows who occupy it:—1st. They are all six footers, 2nd, They all wear a seven cap, or larger. 3rd, They cannot get their feet into smaller boots than nines and 4th, They all weigh over one hundred and seventy pounds each. Some bunch! Eh? Anyway that is the truth and we are all proud of it.

I suppose you often wonder how we are getting along over here, well I too often wish you could just see us. I think you would like it, you like the outdoors I know, and this is all out doors here with us. It has been raining here for two days and still we are as comfortable and happy as if we were home. We have all our equipments to look out for and still we manage it alright. Which is something we could not do this time last year, at any rate I couldn't, I know that much.

We get nothing fancy to eat here by any means but what we get is quite sufficient to keep a person in good shape as you must understand when I told you that I weigh over a hundred and seventy pounds.

Well here I am again and this time I have my stomach full too. Dinner is just over. We had potatoes and meat, bread and butter, and tea of course, we could have had cheese and jam too if we wanted to but we always try and keep it over for tea. The bread and butter is great and the cooks of our company seem to have a natural gift of making good tea so we fare first class in that line. As far as the clothing goes we have the very best. Each man was issued with new uniforms and equipment just before we left England so we have every thing new, which is a lot more than some of the English regiments have [illegible]

I find it pretty hard to write a letter here for they are so particular about what a person tells that if you write anything that you are not supposed to tell they destroy the whole shooting match.

It is a dandy day here now the sun is shining and all the clouds have faded as if by magic. Every thing is quiet and peaceful and we can hear the church bells ringing back in one of the villages. It is only occasionally that a gun is fired as far as we can hear today. It kind of reminds a fellow of home this nice Sabbath quietness after a storm. For there was certainly a storm in two senses of the word last night and the night before. You will have heard of it in the papers long before you get this.

Say! that was some letter Lulu wrote me, and Ruth's and Helen's were corkers! The other day I got one from Celia. By Gee! it was great.

I want you to tell the bunch that I can write only two letters a week and not to worry if they don't get answered soon.

Well my letter is getting long so I better bid you Good bye.

With love to everybody, I remain your nephew,

ARTHUR C. ROBINSON,
26th Battalion,
5th Brigade,
2nd C. E. Force,
Somewhere in France

P. S.—Hurry Dad up. I want that letter.
