IN CITY AND COUNTRY.

Local and Provincial Items of Interest.

Gleaned By 'Guardian' Reporters and Correspondents.

News Budget of Happenings Round About the District.

THE mail train arrived last night at 10.10 o'clock.

MR. G. H. HASZARD, arrived home from Halifax last night.

JOHNSON & JOHNSON'S ad "A song of September" has been reproduced by "Brains."

FAUST THEATRICALS, MONCTON, 26th inst.—For a party of ten or upwards the P. E. I. Railway and connections will accept single fare for the round trip.

MR. D. S. McRAE, of this city, has been appointed principal of Vernon River school. He succeeds Mr. David McKenzie, who is attending Dalhousie College.

MR. CHAS. HOWARD, Kingston, lost a valuable horse Thursday. The animal was harnessed in a plow, and backing up cut one of its legs so severely that in a short time it bled to death.

REV. G. M. CAMPBELL arrived home last night from Toronto where he was attending the General Conference. He will occupy the pulpit of the First Methodist church at both services tomorrow.

MRS. A. L. BRIDGES from Boston, Miss Golda Madeline Bridges, Master Lemuel Bartlett Bridges and Miss Clara Bartlett, sister of Mrs. Bridges, of St. John, are guests of Mrs. William Brown, of Pownal, Florida Hotel.

MR. OWEN EGAN of Lot 65 narrowly escaped losing his barn a few days ago. Some children were playing with matches in the yard and a grain stack only three feet away from the barn became ignited and was destroyed. The wind being in a favorable quarter and a number of neighbors rendering valuable assistance saved the barn from a similar fate.

SOME unique photographs have just been finished by Mr. G. H. Cook, being those of L. B. MacMillan, D. A. McKinnon and C. J. MacMillan, three of the province's champion runners. They are attired in racing costume, their breasts being invested with trophies of hard earned victories. Those three young men have won in all 67 prizes on the cinder path.

A MOST encouraging meeting in the plebiscite campaign was held in the hall at Stanhope on Thursday evening last. Mr. Alexander filled the chair most acceptably. The hall was well filled, a goodly number of ladies being present with the electors and young persons. The speaking by Rev. C. W. Corey, D. A. McKinnon M. P. P., and Mr. McCready occupied about an hour and a half and was most attentively listened to throughout. Vocal and instrumental music of a high class was supplied between the speeches by Mr. J. R. Davison and Prof. Hawley of this city, who were encored. On motion of Mr. Ralph Carr, of Cove Head, seconded by Mr. David H. Auld, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded those who took part in the evening's exercises. Rev. Mr. Corey made a very happy response, after which the National Anthem was sung.

A QUIET but pretty wedding took place on Thursday, at the residence of James Palmer, Esq., Ozendyke, De Sable, when his daughter, Amelia, was married to the Rev. James McCurdy, of New Richmond, Quebec. The bride wore her travelling dress, a tailor-made gown of grey cloth, while the bride-maid, Miss Lily McCurdy, sister of the groom, was dressed in pink. The ceremony took place at one o'clock, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. George Millar, of Brookfield. The present were numerous, including one from their Excellencies the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen, who have a summer cottage at New Richmond. After the wedding party had partaken of a most recherche luncheon the happy couple left for their future home amidst showers of rice and slippers. THE GUARDIAN joins in the congratulations.

THE entertainment given last night, under the auspices of Lady Wallace Lodge, No. 27, was well attended considering the unfavorable evening. Mr. D. McNeill presided. The meeting was opened with singing followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. Emory. Rev. C. W. Corey gave an able, interesting and instructive address on the "Jesuits' Method of Education." Rev. Mr. Manifold's address on behalf of the Plebiscite was stirring and effective. Chas. Palmer, Esq., gave an address in reference to the new P. E. I. Island hospital for the benefit of which the entertainment was given. A dust was nicely given by Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Crossman. Miss Ruby Rattray excelled herself in a recitation which was generously applauded. Rev. D. McNeill moved a vote of thanks to all who had in any way contributed to the success of the meeting. The motion was seconded by Mr. Alex. Murray and supported by Mr. A. B. McKenzie. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.
