WINDOW DISPLAY WEEK IN CHARLOTTETOWN STORES

Show Windows Tastefully Dressed to Guide the Purchaser. Value of Advertising and Keeping Everlastingly Before the People Fully Exemplified by the Splendid Response to The Guardian's Invitation. Keen Competition Among Window Dressers.

As already announced, this is Window Display Week in Charlottetown, and the merchants are taking full advantage of the opportunity afforded them by the Guardian to emphasize the facts placed before the public from time to time in their advertisements. A splendid display is being made in the windows of all the leading stores, and much interest has been awakened by the pace set in window dressing.

The week is being similarly observed throughout Canada and the United States, and some 450 newspapers in the largest cities of both countries are helping the good work along by contributing display cards, giving extra write-ups to advertisers and otherwise boosting the effort to promote trade. The following are among the stores visited by Guardian reporters, and the others will follow in due course until the city is covered:

JAMES PATON & SONS

Honest merchantdise at lowest prices has been the slogan of this old and reliable firm through nearly half a century. During this Thanksgiving week the lure of fine linen must appeal to the heart of every woman and the fine display in prodigal variety in the main showroom presents enticing possibilities. Table and fancy linens in many different designs, table cloths, and napkins in patterns to match the above, and also a fine variety of towellings present strong claims to the attention of ladies.

Ladies Coat Sweaters with collars in shawl, military and varsity styles and for every day or sporting purposes are here in unstinted variety of colour and style

Of ladies new Fall coats, the season's showing reveals a magnificent variety of stylish and comfortable models in cheviots, tweeds, plaids, curl cloths, etc., with all the latest button and braid trimmings, and the smartest finishings.

Exceedingly natty coatings in Chincillas, curl cloths, two tone nap cloths, invisible stripe, Zebeline, Scotch tweeds, plush cloakings, etc., offer irresistible inducements to matron or maid.

Flannel blankets in grey and white at $1.25 to $1.75 in all sizes, and wool blankets from $3.50 up to $10 should prove a seasonable offering. Wool and union blankets 72 inches wide are also seen in this department.

A line of goods that should appeal to parents is the selection of boy's three piece Norfolk suits at the special price of $3.98. Some af these suits are worth up to about $7. The sizes range from 7 to 16 years. Boys' overcoats range from $4.75 up. Another timely bargain is a big lot of 48 men's overcoats in all sizes from 36 to 44. Some are worth up to $12 and any one of the lot will sell at$7.50. Bought at a saving of 25 per cent. these goods will be sold at a discount of 25 per cent off.

The fur department reveals a wealth of muffs, stoles and fur sets in black and red furs, lynx, beaver, mink, marmot, mink, fitch, etc. The more staple styles as well as some unique novelty fashions are all represented.

In the gents' furnishing department any man however fastidious regarding his dress requirements, will find the things that will please his tastes and satisfy his every desire as to variety, quality and price. Shirts, heavy and light for everyday and dress wear, collars for comfort and collars for style, ties that scinellate with fridescent sheen and quiet tones in knit style for the man who lays no claim to being a "knut" A counter piled high with sweater coats at prices ranging from $1.25 to $10 offers to supply a need which fast approaching winter will soon prove a wise one to fill. Choice of colour includes maroon, navy, browns, greys and mixed. This is claimed to be the biggest showing of coat sweaters in the city. A special line of hand knit sweaters of the highest quality of Australian wool, and hand finished throughout is offered at from $7 to $10. Particularly attractive to soldiers will be the heather hosiery, the heavy wool shirts in greys, and khaki, and navy blue, as well as negligee shirts, pyjamas, and under clothing. Fancy vests in silk and wool in two tones are another line in gentlemen's wear that will attract stylish dressers.

MILLER BROTHERS

This old established firm have earned a name for themselves in the musical world of P. E. I. In their capacious windows this week they are featuring an Edison diamond cylinder machine in polished mahogany and a Pathe Disc machine in light oak. These magnificent instruments have a full ringing tone reproducing perfectly the real voice of the singer and the brilliant tones of the orchestra. The Pathe machine has a special point, no changing of needles being necessary. The blue Amberole records supplied for this machine are unbreakable

The other window is occupied by a magnificent piano cased organ in walnut with a keyboard of seven octaves, the same as a full sized piano. The fall board folds back on a continuous hinge. This fine instrument is made by the Dominion Piano Company. A fine Karn model of high grade quality and beautiful finish, a handsome Heintzman piano player, with aluminum action instead of wood or rubber, in beautifully polished mahogany, an Innis model in mahogany by the new scale Williams Co., of Ontario, a splendid example of the Mendelssohn piano, manufactured in Toronto by this company, a Sherlock and Williams, a London, Ont. instrument, a Sherlock & Mountain piano, and an elegant Amherst model make up a comprehensive variety of the most reliable high grade instruments on the market.

A large variety of both Pathe disc and cylinder records of all the leading stars of the operatic world, band selections, etc., are, there and these are constantly being added to.

Violins, guitars, mandolins and zithers, as well as cases, strings and fittings for those instruments, are all here in fine variety; piccolos, flageolets and mouth organs are also stocked, while all the latest song hits of the old and new world in sheet music can be supplied.

The floor above is used for a show room for second hand pianos and organs, where a large selection of reliable instruments in fine condition may always be seen. Four different makes of sewing machines are also on view here. An extensive repair shop occupies part of the premises above, with an elevator for the safe handling of the instruments.

SIMON W. CRABBE.

S. W. Crabbe, whose Island wide reputation as the proprietor of the leading stove store is well known, has put on for Thanksgiving week a splendid display of seasonable specialties. The centre of one of the spacious windows is occupied by a magnificent "Britannia" range. Every feature in range construction that modern skill and long experience can devise is combined in this high-class steel range. The top is beautifully burnished, the oven large and roomy, and the working of the different parts simplicity itself. And the price $38 for a No. 9 size, is a remarkably moderate one. The splendid specimens of the Silver Moon base burner shown in the right hand window include the new Barrel-Johnson and the Louisburg styles. Made in heavy cast iron throughout, with nickel urn on top and plated trimmings, this stove is the embodiment of efficiency and economy in heating. Freight is prepaid on stoves priced at upwards of $10, and prompt despatch is guaranteed. Some of the most effective, economical little air-tight heaters manufactured are also to be seen in this window. For quick heating and portability these little heaters are unrivalled. They will burn any kind of wood, and are priced at from $1.50 to $5.50. The Perfection oil heater, which for convenience in bringing the heat into every desired room at short notice stands unbeaten, is another strong claimant for the consideration of householders. Stove assessories, including stove boards, coal hods in many patterns, shovels, piping, enamel stove ware, as well as an immense variety of every class of hardware and household equipment are also displayed within the bounds of this firm's extensive warerooms. Particularly worthy of notice is their showing of aluminum cooking utensils, and the universally famed Cedar mops, as well as other makes of specialties for cleaning and polishing etc.

NATIONAL CLOTHING COMPANY.

It is interesting and encouraging to know that today, when one hears so much the patriotic cry to boost home-made goods, there is a firm right here in Charlottetown that supplies a large number of articles manufactured in Canada. The National Clothing Company has in stock quite a large assortment of "Made in Canada" goods, which compare more than favourably with the best foreign products. Their "Tooke" shirts are unsurpassed for their value, while "Zimmerknit" underwear is of supreme merit. Other lines which they carry are Eastern Caps. Stanfield's underwear—which is supplied to a large part of the Army— "Monarch" sweaters, fashion-craft clothes. "Truefit" raincoats, Maritime Caps, Royalty hats. Carrhartt's overalls and Carrhartt's working men's clothing. The National Clothing Company has established for itself a splendid reputation, and their service never belies that reputation.

MACKINNON DRUG CO.

"Rexall" is a household word throughout America, and it represents the acme of perfection in everything that is for the protection and restoration of health and the prevention and cure of disease. The efficacy of Rexall Remedies is unquestionable, and thousands of grateful users of them testify to their wonderful properties. In Prince Edward Island the MacKinnon Drug Co., one of the leading establishments of the kind in the city, are sole agents for all Rexall goods, of which they are making a special display this week. Samples of these goods may be seen in their window on Great George street. It is interesting to learn the way in which the "Rexall" idea was conceived and developed until, at the present time, it is famous from one end of the continent of America to the other. Boston claims the distinction of being the birthplace of "Rexall." The following extract gives an idea of its manufacture: "Acres upon cres of floor space, and yet it is too small for what it has to do, and they are building a lot more to it. Bostonians are proud of it— because it isn't merely a plant but an idea, a big new thought first, and a big thing afterwards. When a Western city recently did a bit of courting to get the concern to pull up and move, the Mayor of Boston and other public men did counter-courting to keep the working idea on its original ground. They regard it as not so much invested industry for Boston, but as an object lesson in exalted co-operation, worthy of Boston origin." Cleanliness is the outstanding characteristic of everything produced in the "Rexall" factories, and there are some three hundred concoctions prepared. A few of the "Rexall" goods which may be had are Harmony Cold Cream, Cold Tablets, Corn Salve, Cream of Almonds, Diarrhoea Compound, Cherry Bark Cough Syrup, Beef, Iron and wine, Blood Tablets, Baby Cough Syrup, Aromatic Castor Oil, Baby Laxative, Catarrh Jelly Chilblain Remedy, Eczema Ointment, Hair Tonic, Kidney Treatment, Mentholine Balm, Mother Kroh's Colic Remedy, Mother Kroh's Soothing Syrup, Mother Kroh's Teething Mixture. There are numerous excellent remedies mentioned of which space does not permit, A complete line of toilet preparations is in stock, the "Harmony" goods being particularly good. A visit to the MacKinnon Drug Company's will satisfy any requirements.

"THE TWO MACS" DRUGGISTS

The Two Macs Drug Store has always enjoyed the reputation of keeping for sale only preparations of merit and they have made it a point to live strictly up to that reputation. This week in their large display window they are showing a large stock of the famous Pratts' Stock Foods and Animal Regulators. These preparations are put up by the Pratt Food Co. of Chicago, and enjoy an immense sale, being used by all the leading farmers and stock raisers in Canada and the United States. Besides handling all the leading stock preparations they have a free veterinary bureau where farmers and others may obtain expert advice absolutely free. One thing very noticeable about the store was that everything is kept under glass thereby thoroughly eliminating dust and all foreign matter. In the large all glass silent salesman are to be seen an elaborate display of Toilet and Fancy Goods, Cream Lotions, Combs, Hair Brushes, Pipes, Cigars, Chocolates, Cameras, Soaps, Talcums, French, Ivory and Ebony goods of all kinds, in fact everything found in a first class drug store. A little look in at the dispensary revealed a department that is unexcelled in the province. Here everything that is known to modern pharmacy for the prompt and efficient dispensing of prescriptions is to be found and four qualified licensed pharmacists are always present to compound your prescriptions. Up till this date they have dispensed over 70,000 prescriptions. The Mail Order Department is another important part of this business and by this means out of town shoppers can purchase goods and receive the same prompt attention as if they were to call in person. This store well deserves the name "The Little Store With the Big Trade" and the staff and management are always happy and willing to have the pleasure of catering to the wants of the buying public.

REDDIN BROTHERS, DRUGGISTS

Reddin Brothers have the right goods at the right price. Their old established pharmacy on Richmond Street has for many a long year held a foremost reputation as reliable dispensers and druggists. Qualified experience and scrupulous care in prescription work has earned them an enviable reputation in this respect. The drugs used are of the best quality and the utmost purity. This firm is one of the few who still retain their independence, and refuse to come under the control of any combine whatsoever.

In toilet requisites Messrs. Reddin have all the indispensable adjuncts of the bathroom and the boudoir. Talcum powder, face creams, tooth powders, pastes, and lotions, are the specialties they are featuring specially for Thanksgiving week.

The favorite brands of Tobacco and cigarettes, as well as a varied selection of pipes and smoker's requisites are also a specialty of this store.

Chocolates in bulk and in fancy boxes are also another attractive feature of Messrs. Reddin's store. Moirs, Ganong's and Neilson's delightful dainties are all displayed.

THE APOTHECARY'S HALL.

There is a splendid display in the window of the Apothecary's Hall, Synol Soap being an outstanding feature. This is a particularly fine brand of soap, and any bathroom without it is the poorer. It can be used equally well for the complexion, the sterilisaion of the hands, the cleansing and disinfecting of the sick room, and gives an excellent shampoo. It may also be used as a general antiseptic for cleansing wounds, etc., and to the outfit of every Red Cross corps a large supply of "Synol" is an indispensable adjunct and plays not the least important part. This ideal soap is manufactured by the well-known and highly reputable firm of Johnson and Johnson, of New Brunswick, N. J., who also prepare "Red Cross Plasters." The Apothecary's Hall is noted throughout the province for the excellent quality of its supplies and the careful and prompt attention paid to all orders.

JAMIESON'S DRUG STORE.

Jamieson's Drug Store, one of the most up-to-date and enterprising establishments in Charlottetown, is replete with medicinal requisites of every description, toilet goods, smokers' material— and in this connection they stock a fastidious variety of pipes—and everything else that may be found in any drug store. Some of the things they sell are, Danderine, Syrup of Figs, Cascarets, Eno's Fruit Salts, Williams' Pink Pills, Zambuk, Albert Soaps. They have a good supply of Gillette's Safety Razors, while in Moir's chocolates their variety is large and excellent.

D. GORDON & CO.

This old established firm of boot and shoe merchants have one of the most striking and effective displays of any in the square. A huge red heart occupies the background of their window, with trailing ribbons festooned to the different pairs of boots artistically arranged on the stands. The boots are all of the celebrated Hartt brand—a purely Canadian made article. The Company's works are at Fredericton, N. B., and they claim to lead all Canada in high class shoe-making and their products are shipped from coast to coast. Messrs. Gordon have been handling this shoe for nearly eight years—in fact since they started business, and have never had a complaint regarding its wearing qualities. The well known Amherst boots and shoes is another of their leading lines, while the Princess and the Classic makes of ladies' footwear represent the last word in elegance, style and comfort in high grade boots for walking and evening wear. Featuring this week as they are doing the products of Canada's leading shoemakers, in the newest styles, shapes and leathers, their enterprise is worthy of the support and patronage of all who seek the best in footwear.

JENKINS & SONS

An attractive and well displayed variety of seasonable Thanksgiving goods decorates the window of Messrs. Jenkins & Sons, in Grafton Street. Jellies, seasonable fruits, grape juice, Lantic sugar and many other delectable dainties of the season appeal to the passer-by. In the staple needs of the housewife this firm holds an enviable position. No better brand of flour for domestic use than the famous Beaver Brand has come on the market and this firm carries heavy stocks of this flour. Red Rose Tea and Chase & Sanborns Coffee are among the specialties in universal demand at this store. Cereals, breakfast foods, sugars, dried fruits, fancy and plain biscuits, jams, jellies and syrups, jelly powders, canned soups, chickens, salmon, pork and beans, pickles, spices, and an unlimited variety of the everyday needs of the home are here to be found in prime condition and at extremely moderate prices. Messrs. Jenkins' reputation stretches back for a long number of years, and their clientele is an ever-growing one.

THE ENGLISH AND SCOTCH WOOLLEN CO.

This firm's name and fame are known throughout Canada. They specialize on one line only—the made to measure suit or overcoat at one price —$15. This is an unequalled value, and is only made possible by the elimination of all middlemen's profits. Their slogan is "Mill to Man." A splendid selection of tweeds and serges from British mills, in all the popular colours and weaves is to be seen at their showrooms on Richmond Street. The quality and fit of every garment are guaranteed, and they are man-tailored throughout. Any man on the look-out for the best in suits and overcoats is welcome to visit this store and look the goods over. When they see these magnificent offerings their patronage is assured. Customers are not kept waiting for an indefinite length of time. A suit can be turned out in perfect style in from 10 to 12 days time. This store is so arranged that the quality and texture of the materials can be inspected with the minimum of trouble. Mr. W. M. Nelson, the firm's local manager, who has been before the buying public of this city for a great number of years will spare no pains to give customers the utmost attention. This exceptional $15 value is worthy of the consideration of the men of Charlottetown.

How You Can Reduce Your Weight as I Reduced Mine

BY KATE THOMAS.

A year ago my weight was 176 lbs., my complexion was dull, dark and yellowish. My circulation was bad and I felt tired and sleepy most of the time. My liver was inactive, my stomach flatulent, my heart seemed weak and I was unable to stand the slightest exertion. At times I had rheumatism, and I made up my mind that if I could reduce my weight I would feel better, so I tried every so-called fat reducer that I could hear of, and after I had finished with them I weighed more than before. Finally a friend told me of oil of orilene capsules, which I knew had reduced her weight many pounds. I tried them, and in a short time I had reduced my weight 34 lbs., and my complexion is fresh and bright. The color has left my nose and has gone to my cheeks, which are as rosy again as in youth. The condition of my stomach is excellent, my liver is no longer inactive, my heart is strong, rheumatism gone, my figure willowy. I studied the action of oil of orilene capsules and found that they not only reduce excessive fat to stay reduced, but are wonderful to build up the general health. If you need them, or any of your friends need them, they are not expensive.

Any durggist can supply you, or a large size box will be sent on receipt of $1.00. Address D. J. Little Drug Co., Box 1240, Montreal, Can.
