On Saturday morning one of Kingston's most beloved and genial residents, Miss Jennie M. McGregor, left en route to Boston, Mass., to visit her sister, Mrs. Isaac Laird, and numerous other relatives. On the evening prior to her departure an almost innumerable host of friends assembled at her home, Mrs. J. McGregor's to bid her a fond farewell and partake of the ecstasy that time made friendship alone can bestow. After spending a very cheerful time, the happy company departed for home at a late hour with the full assurance, that, Ever over this evening would memory wake, And fondly brood with miser care; Time but the impression stronger make, As streams their channels deeper wear.

Before dispersing all present joined in wishing Miss McGregor an extremely safe and pleasant trip, and hoping that ere long she would again resume her place in their midst. Miss McGregor had as a companion on her journey, her cousin, Miss Jennie Brown, who is returning, after a delightful visitation among her friends, to her present home in Baie City, Michigan.

On Saturday night a sneak thief entered the hall way of Mr. Stanislaus Blanchard's boarding house and removed a winter and a summer overcoat belonging to two of the boarders. In one of the overcoats were some valuable papers consisting of notes of hand, etc. and the owner is very anxious about them.

LIEUT. Col. Irving, of Halifax, was in Amherst on Thursday with a proposition in regard to the reconstruction of old Fort Cumberland. The Government will reconstruct the walls and magazine of the ancient defence if the people will take hold of the matter and find means of restoring the place as an object of historical interest to tourists and others.

At the opening session of the twelfth Biennial Convention of the Dominion W. C. T. U. the first session of which was held in Montreal on Thursday last Rev. J. A. Gordon appeared on behalf of the Ministerial Association, as well as on behalf of the Baptist Ministerial Conference, of which he is president, spoke in eulogistic terms of the work accomplished by the W. C. T. U., which was one, he said, that effected the nation and the home. In what they were doing the members of the Union were standing up for home, for the Church of God, and for country. He wished them God speed in their work.

The following address was presented to D. S. Wright, Esq., at a regular monthly meeting of the Trustee Board, held in the church on the 12th inst., and was responded to in a very pleasing manner by Mr. Wright, in which he thanked the Board on his own account as well as for the mention made of his partner in life and his family:

ADDRESS.
SEARLETTOWN, Nov. 12th, 1901.

The Right Thing.

A New Catarrh Cure, which is Rapidly Coming to the Front.

For several years, Eucalyptol Guaiacol and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for catarrhal troubles but they have always been given separately and only very recently an ingenious chemist succeeded in combining them, together with other antiseptics into a pleasant effective tablet.

Druggists sell the remedy under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and it has met with remarkable success in the cure of nasal catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N. Y. says: "When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter, more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and am glad to say that they have done wonders for me and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Catarrh Tablets are the right thing."

Mr. Geo. J. Casanova of hotel Griffon West 9th street, New York City, writes: "I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried."

A leading physician of Pittsburg advises the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in preference to any other treatment for catarrh of the head, throat or stomach.

He claims they are far superior to inhalers, salves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit as they contain no opiate, cocaine or any poisonous drugs.

All druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cents for full size package and they are probably the safest and most reliable cure for one form of catarrh.

You no doubt read some other drug ads.

LESLIE S. McNUTT & CO'S

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—We, the members of the Trustee Board of Searle-town Church, feel that we cannot let this opportunity pass without an expression of regret when we remember that you are about to sever your connection as an active and constant worker in our midst. We cannot but feel tonight that we are parting with a strong personal friend. We will miss your counsel and support as well as your gentlemanly demeanor. In your official capacity, energy and decision ever characterized your actions, yet your cheerful compliance to the constituted majority ever made it a pleasure to transact business with you. For the past half a century some of us have had the pleasure of association with you in the social circle and during all these years we have never found you shirking a duty, in church or state. Under none but the most striking circumstances was your seat ever vacant in the church, while your whole souled attitude for its welfare has been an inspiration to us. We are pleased however, that while your official duties will necessitate your absence a large part of your time from our midst, yet your interests both socially and financially will keep you in constant touch with one another; and now that for a time at least will take you into other fields, we can but wish you God speed. To your amiable wife and family, who ever stood for all that pertains to the up-building of a settlement, ever forward in every word or work, we would through you wish them a happy and prosperous life's journey and hope that it may be our pleasure to often have you all in our midst; and have you occupy the places held by you so many years in old Searle-town church, and in the by and by with life's work well and faithfully done, may be garnered in the Church Triumphant to be forever with the Master.
