Half-Company Of
R.C.N.V.R. Found
Satisfactory

The Charlottetown half-company of Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserves was inspected last evening by Commodore Walter Hoes, C.B.E., R.C.N., Chief of the Naval Staff of the Department of National Defense, Ottawa. Commodore Hoes was accompanied by Lieut.-Commander J. C. Edwards. Commodore Hoes after the inspection expressed great satisfaction on the efficiency of the ratings, who have been under the instruction of Mr. Jack Hearn.

The unit was very smart in every way, Commodore Hoes stated, and gave evidence of careful training. The drills were very smartly carried out, and the records of attendance at drills is a very high percentage. The unit is exceedingly satisfactory and stands well with them all.

This inspection completes the round from Vancouver through the Prairie Provinces to the east coast. All the reserves are in a high state of efficiency, and all the units are 100% strong with a large waiting list. Commodore Hoes was pleased to find in each of the units a percentage of men in the fourth period of enlistment. Charlottetown has several men who were in the original unit organized in 1923.

Commodore Hoes arrived in Charlottetown from Halifax yesterday afternoon in a R.C.A.F. plane flown by Squadron Leader F. C. Higgins, and will remain here till Monday morning.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of MR. AND MRS. GEO. T. THROWSDALE who departed this life on July 29th, 1926 and June 21st, 1927.

Today we are thinking of that sad day
When you, dear father, and mother,
Were called up home to Heaven
Where pain and sickness are no more
But you'll never be forgotten by the ones
Who loved you best.
The days are sad without you
We miss your loving smile that
Brightened our home for a year
But some day, dear parents, we will
Meet you up in Heaven where parting
Will be no more.

REFUSAL OF APPLICATION FOR NEW TRIAL

Judgment Rendered Yesterday in Slander Case of Savidant vs. Day, by Mr. Justice Arsenaull.

The application of the plaintiff in the appeal case of Leo Savidant vs. R. L. Day was refused by judgment of Mr. Justice Arsenaull in the Supreme Court yesterday. Mr. Justice Saunders concurred.

Following is Mr. Justice Arsenaull's judgment:

"This is an action for slander and was tried at the last term of this Court before the Honourable the Chief Justice and a jury. At the conclusion of the case and before the addresses to the jury on motion of counsel for the defendant the learned trial judge withdrew the case from the jury and gave judgment for the defendant on the ground that the words were uttered on a privileged occasion and there was no actual malice.

"This is an application for a new trial on the grounds set out in the application.

"I am of opinion that the Chief Justice took the proper course in withdrawing this case from the jury and in entering judgment for the defendant.

"The occasion on which the alleged slander was spoken was clearly privileged and I can find no evidence of malice that should have been left to the jury.

"The plaintiff claims that the evidence on the plea of justification was conflicting and that the judgment for the defendant amounts to a pronouncement on the part of the trial judge that the plea was proven. I do not think so. The plea in my opinion was simply to enable the defendant to adduce evidence in proof of absence of malice, which otherwise might have been inferred.

"The defendant's son, who took the bag of flour from the party who had carried it from the store, swears that it was the plaintiff from whom he took it. The defendant swears that sometime before the meeting of the City Council at which the words complained of were spoken his son had told him that it was the plaintiff who had carried away the flour from the store. Up to this time the defendant had shown himself sympathetic to the plaintiff and appeared willing and anxious to assist him and his change of mind was brought about by learning that he was the party who had taken the flour. In the circumstances I can find no evidence of malice.

"No purpose would have been served by leaving the issue on the plea of justification to the jury. Even if the jury had found this issue in favour of the plaintiff and had given him damages by reason thereof, the verdict could not have stood in view of the fact that the occasion was privileged and that there was no evidence of malice. It would then have become a question of law for the judge to decide.

AIR MAIL SERVICE PETITION

Postmaster General Requested to Begin Service Immediately Summer Ry. Schedule Ends.

The following communication, referring to a meeting of which mention has already appeared in this press, has been forwarded to Hon. Arthur Sauve, Postmaster General, Ottawa:

Dear Sir:

At a representative meeting of the citizens of Montague, Lower Montague, Georgetown and Cardigan held at Montague on June 29th, at which Hon. J. A. MacDonald, a member of the Federal Cabinet, was present, the question of air mail service between Prince Edward Island and the mainland was discussed and the undersigned were appointed members of a committee to submit this matter to yourself as Postmaster General and the other members of the Government.

For a number of years this province has been enjoying the advantages of an air mail service between Charlottetown, Summerside and Moncton, a service which was very greatly appreciated by the business men and by the people generally. This service was discontinued this year on May 29th when the railway summer time table, providing for two trains between the Island and the mainland daily, went into effect.

We respectfully request that when this service is discontinued that the air mail service will be immediately resumed. This was the case last year, as the air mail did not start until two months after the second train service was discontinued, so that our people were subject to a very serious inconvenience, as it meant a delay of twenty-four hours in receiving the mails from Upper Canada, the United States, and the province of New Brunswick, etc.

We sincerely thank you for the mail service you have given us in the past, and trust that you will take our request into serious and favourable consideration with a view of having the air mail start immediately the second train, so called, is discontinued.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) W. L. Poole, W. A. MacLaggan, L. H. Coffin, Preston MacIntyre, M.D., Martin MacKinnon, Committee.

SMALL BRUSH TO CLEAN VEGETABLES

Keep an extra small scrubbing brush by your kitchen sink. You will find it invaluable for scrubbing potatoes and cleaning vegetables. Some vegetables, leeks for instance, are very hard indeed to get clean and a scrubbing brush always facilitates matters.
