Happenings of the Week

Britain's King and Queen have a fourth-floor flat in a building in London's fashionable Mayfair... Princess Alice has accepted an honorary life membership in the National Council of Women... The Naval dance at Government House Thursday evening was the social event of the season...

Dorothy Dix Says— YOUTHS REBEL AT OLD MODES Friction Caused By Parents Refusal To Admit Life Speeded Up, Teen-Agers Mature

One of the reasons why there is so much friction between parents and children is because the fathers and mothers are trying to force out-moded manners and customs upon them and the youngsters rebel... It is not the principle of the things that the children wish to do which their parents object to. It is whether they did those things themselves or not.

YOUTHS' APPAREL SCANDALIZES PARENTS

On the contrary, they wear the latest up-to-the-minute clothes and they step out at night so often that they seldom see their children after dark. But they are scandalized by Susie's shorts and Johnny's shirt-tails and dirty shoes and their not wanting to go to bed with the chickens, because they never did that way when they were boys and girls.

ELLEN'S DIARY

By An Island Farmer's Wife

The Saturdays seem to overtake me so quickly. It's Monday and the bread-box is comfortably full and then presently Judy looks up from an inspection of our stores there, enquiring, "Are we getting bread tonight, Mrs. Ellen?"

MODERN ETIQUETTE

Nursing and National Health

Before September 1939 no one, not of the profession, spoke of a "nursing situation". Then came the National Emergency, Men and women flocked to the Services—among them members of the nursing profession. Thousands of the population, the hitherto unemployed, housewives, the retired, school children, joined the ranks of the wage-earners. Industries expanded their medical services. War plants established medical departments with one or more nurses in attendance.

Living & Leisure THE WOMAN'S REALM

THE EARLY IMPRESS I found a piece of plastic clay And idly fashioned it one day. And as my fingers pressed it still It moved and yielded to my will.
