

COAL

Customers should order and take delivery of their coal before the season gets late.

We are receiving daily cargoes of Sydney and Pictou coal.

C. Lyons & Co

BIRTHS

SWALLOW—In this city on Jan. 2, 1918, to Pte. William and Mrs. Swallow a son.

FORSYTHE—Born at Prince County Hospital, Summerside, Dec. 31st, to W. Merritt and Mrs. Forsythe, a daughter.

DEATHS

PURCELL—In this city, on January 6th, 1918, Patrick Lyons, infant son of Joseph and Barbara Purcell.

McPHERSON—Suddenly at Bellevue on January 3, 1918, John N. McPherson, aged 79 years. Funeral, Monday, January 7th at 1 p. m.

GODKIN—At the P. E. I. Hospital, January 5th, 1918, Annie Sabine, beloved wife of John L. Godkin, aged 52. Funeral from the residence of January 7, leaving the home at 1.19 of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jasper Pickard, 54 Bayfield Street, on Monday, p. m., for railway station, thence by train to Sherwood Cemetery.

NOTICE

The annual meeting of the P. E. I. Co-operative Egg & Poultry Assn will be held in the Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, commencing Monday, January 14th, at 2 o'clock p. m. The Live Stock Commissioner for Canada will be present. Transportation Standard Certificate Plan. All members welcome. 2040-1-7M4L

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Hazebrook Dairying Co., Ltd., will be held in the usual place on Wednesday, Jan. 16th at 2 o'clock.

W. J. MacEACHERN, Secretary. Mt. Allison, Jan 5th, 1918. 20351-1-10-14M31pd

Professional Cards

Dr. Clift

CHRONIC DISEASES
CURATIVE TREATMENT by the month in advance, Victoria Hotel Charlottetown, P. E. I., Canada.
HOURS, 12 to 3 daily. Now, 979-11-1M4mspd.

J. D. STEWART

Barrister, Solicitor and Notary Public
Office Newson Block, Charlottetown.
Branch Office, Georgetown
Money to Loan on Real Estate

S. S. Hessian

Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, &c.,
MONEY TO LOAN.
Montague, P. E. I.

WARBURTON & SHAW.

Barristers, Attorneys, Notary Public, Etc., Solicitors for Canada Bank Association, Bank of Montreal, Canada, Permanent Mortgage Corporation.

McLEAN & McKINNON

Barrister, Attorney-at-Law
Barristers Attorneys-at-Law
Office Royal Bank Building
Charlottetown, P. E. I.

McLEOD & BENTLEY

W. E. Bentley, K. C.
Barrister and Attorneys-at-Law
Money to Loan,
Office—Bank of N. S. Chambers,
Charlottetown, P. E. I.

MORSON & DUFFY

Barristers and Attorneys
Solicitors for Royal Bank of Canada
MONEY TO LOAN.

HEAT FLASHES, BIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the change of life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, drowsiness, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Killed in Action

The following letter was received by Mrs. W. A. Putnam, 85 Orchard St., Belmont, Mass., from O. C. "C" Coy, 49th Battalion, E. F. France: "Madam: A parcel was received from you for the marginally noted soldier, 81121 Pte. J. H. McTavish. It is with deepest regret that I have to inform you that he was killed in action on the 30th Oct., 1917. It was his request that his parcel be distributed amongst his chums, this I have done. Pte. McTavish was, and is yet, very much missed, besides being a first class soldier he was very popular with us all and I deeply regret his loss. Sincerely yours, L. MOONEY, M. C. Capt. U. S. Army, O. C. "C" Coy.

(Pte. McTavish was a son of Mrs. D. MacTavish, Newton, Belfast, P. E. I.)

Annual Meeting

Central Farmers Institute
TO BE HELD IN
PRINCE OF WALES COLLEGE HALL

January 16th, 17th
Commencing at 11 a. m.

Public meeting the evening of the 16th inst., commencing at 7.30 o'clock.
Delegates names to be in Secy's hands as soon as possible. Those attending are requested to buy tickets on the Standard Certificate Plan, good from Tuesday till Friday.

THEO. ROSS—Pres.
J. H. GILL—Secy.
Charlottetown, Jan. 2, 1918. 2024-1-5M5E12L

Notice

The annual meeting of the shareholders and patrons of the Cornwall Creamery Co. will be held in the Hall at Cornwall, Wednesday, Jan. 9th at 2.30 p. m.

D. H. MURCHISON, Sect.
1978-13-3M51pd.

ARENA RINK Programme

Week Ending January 12th
BAND FIXTURES
Monday & Thursday Nights 8 to 10 p. m.
Saturday Afternoon 3.30 to 5.30 p. m.
SPECIAL SKATES WITH BAND
Tuesday and Friday Nights 8 to 10 p. m.
SKATING WITHOUT BAND
Wednesday Night 8 to 10 p. m.
Tuesday and Friday Afternoons 3 to 5 p. m.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN BUCHANAN.
After a comparatively short illness of about five weeks Mrs. John Buchanan—nee Isabella MacInnis—passed into the great beyond at the age of 74 years; on the 29th day of December. During those weeks she suffered intense pain but bore it patiently and with perfect resignation to the will of Almighty God. Conscious that her earthly pilgrimage was soon to terminate, she looked forward to the great change with the utmost confidence and after repeating the 23rd psalm, almost immediately passed into the presence of her Sa-

ARENA RINK Programme

Week Ending January 12th
BAND FIXTURES
Monday & Thursday Nights 8 to 10 p. m.
Saturday Afternoon 3.30 to 5.30 p. m.
SPECIAL SKATES WITH BAND
Tuesday and Friday Nights 8 to 10 p. m.
SKATING WITHOUT BAND
Wednesday Night 8 to 10 p. m.
Tuesday and Friday Afternoons 3 to 5 p. m.

By W. W. COOK, M. C. G. G. Unsanitized publication of this story will not be used for.

SIBERIAN LECTURE AND ENTERTAINMENT

Serbian Lecture and Entertainment under the patronage of His Honor Lieutenant-Governor McDonald and Mrs. McDonald in the People's Theatre, Wednesday, January 9th.

PROGRAMME.
PRELUDE.
1. Marseillaise by Fourth Regiment Band.
2. The Star Spangled Banner, by Mrs. Byron Brown and Prof. Vinnicombe.
SERBIAN PROGRAMME.
3. Serbian Instrumental Music by Prof. Hinton.
4. Lecture, "Mid Serbian Heroes," by Prof. Leitch.
5. Song, "The Dying Hero," by Prince Street School Choir.
6. Serbian Dance, "Low Step," by boy dancers.
7. Song, "Moushka Shishka Mala."
8. Serbian Dance, "Double Step."
9. Song, "Now Girls Look at Me."
10. Serbian Dance, "High Kick."
11. Serbian Comic Reading, "The Devil and the Peasant," by Dr. Ross.
12. Serbian Dance, "Kola Plane."
13. Serbian Song, "Battle Song."
14. Serbian Dance, "Battle Dance."
15. Serbian National Anthem, by Choir and Fourth Regiment Band.
PRELUDE.
16. March by Piper J. K. McKenzie.
BRITISH PROGRAMME.
17. Scots Wa' Hae, by Fourth Regiment Band.
18. Sword Dance by Master Raymond McNeill.
19. Solo, by Austin Trainor; accompanist, Mrs. Byron Brown.
20. Highland Fling, by Miss Rita McDonald's pupils.
21. Club Swinging, by Wallace Scantlebury.
22. Solo by Miss Lucy Blanchard; accompanist, Mrs. Byron Brown.
23. Sailors' Hornpipe by Misses Constance McFarlane and Elsie Biffin.
24. Classical Music by Prof. Watkins.
25. Reading by
26. Killarney, by Fourth Regiment Band.
27. British National Anthem.
28. Mrs. Justice Matheson, Mrs. Justice Stewart and Mrs. Paton have kindly consented to act as chaperons and as chairman.

Notes.—In the Serbian programme, the accompanists for both dances and songs will be Professors Hinton and Vinnicombe; for the British programme, Mrs. Byron Brown; for the Scotch dances, Piper J. K. McKenzie. To save money for patriotic purposes no programmes will be issued except in the press. Tickets, 25c, 50c and 1.50.

Notes.—In the Serbian programme, the accompanists for both dances and songs will be Professors Hinton and Vinnicombe; for the British programme, Mrs. Byron Brown; for the Scotch dances, Piper J. K. McKenzie. To save money for patriotic purposes no programmes will be issued except in the press. Tickets, 25c, 50c and 1.50.

Notes.—In the Serbian programme, the accompanists for both dances and songs will be Professors Hinton and Vinnicombe; for the British programme, Mrs. Byron Brown; for the Scotch dances, Piper J. K. McKenzie. To save money for patriotic purposes no programmes will be issued except in the press. Tickets, 25c, 50c and 1.50.

Notes.—In the Serbian programme, the accompanists for both dances and songs will be Professors Hinton and Vinnicombe; for the British programme, Mrs. Byron Brown; for the Scotch dances, Piper J. K. McKenzie. To save money for patriotic purposes no programmes will be issued except in the press. Tickets, 25c, 50c and 1.50.

Notes.—In the Serbian programme, the accompanists for both dances and songs will be Professors Hinton and Vinnicombe; for the British programme, Mrs. Byron Brown; for the Scotch dances, Piper J. K. McKenzie. To save money for patriotic purposes no programmes will be issued except in the press. Tickets, 25c, 50c and 1.50.

STOMACH ACTS FINE! NO INDIGESTION, GAS, HEARTBURN, ACIDITY

"Pape's Diapiesin," fixes sick, sour, upset stomachs in five minutes.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action. In lecture, "In the Mail of the Gasc" regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headaches, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Sir Robert Borden

Amid the general rejoicing that is following the triumph of union and patriotism over sectionalism and cowardice, let not the nation forget tribute to the men whose union, courage and perseverance made victory possible.

It is precisely easy to extol the virtues of union; it was less easy to perceive its advantages six months ago. And the truth is that all frankly admit it—that so far as the active politicians in both parties were concerned, Sir Robert Borden, when he first conceived the idea of union, was a voice crying in the wilderness.

On the one hand, he was assailed as a traitor, callously bent upon betraying and deserting the Conservative party; on the other hand he was vilified as an arch-conspirator intriguing for the disruption of the Liberal party. Thus assailed by friends and foes alike, he almost insuperable task which the Prime Minister undertook when he determined to storm the battlements of entrenched partisanship and create a united public sentiment for the prosecution of the war.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

Only when the story of the Union negotiations is written with clearness and authority, will the public adequately appreciate the almost insuperable obstacles that stood in the way of his path. Difficulties and discouragements that would have crushed the spirit and killed the enthusiasm of less courageous men, were encountered at every turn. But through it all, at times when prospects of success were darkest, Sir Robert remained undaunted and undismayed. Unalterably convinced that the course he was pursuing was for the national good, and with an abiding faith in the patriotism and common sense of the Canadian people, he toiled on unceasingly at his task until, finally, the goal of his determination was achieved.

She will be much missed, not only in the home and in the community but in the congregation with which she regularly worsh