She had reached the advanced age of 83 years and was in apparently good health until two weeks before the end came. On the morning of her death she got up and dressed as usual and in walking from her room she was overcome by weakness. Medical aid was at once summoned but before its arrival she had passed away. Her home was always open to the stranger and the visits of her relatives and school friends were always a source of delight to her. Her maiden name was Bella MacDougall and she was the last member of a large family. Her last brother, Angus MacDougall of Newtown having passed away about a month ago. She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, two sons, Sidney and James all residing at home. Her funeral on Feb. 12th was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Armstrong assisted by the Rev. Mr. Sterling, and considering the inclemency of the weather was very largely attended. The remains were laid to rest in the new cemetery. Thus all that was mortal of a true wife and loving mother was received by the earth there to await the resurrection. (Patriot please copy.)

To the Electors Of the Town of Summerside

Ladies and Gentlemen:—
You are aware that we, the undersigned, are candidates for Mayor, Councillors and Water Commissioner for the forthcoming Civic Election. Each and every one of us has previously served at the Council Board and our record is well known to the electors.

We believe that this Town has come to a time, and that time is now, when its great problem must be solved. First of all permit us to state that it is not our intention to criticize the work of those who have been responsible in the past. They have faithfully performed their arduous duties. Neither are we unmindful of the many improvements which they have made.

We however come before you with a definite policy regarding our street difficulties. We are convinced that something of a permanent nature must take the place of our old method of handling our streets and with this uppermost in our minds we appeal to you for support on February 23rd.

The laboring class of this town must also be considered because they are the backbone of any community and, if elected, we will make every effort within our power to bring about a condition with a view of providing more employment.

- WINSLOE J. LIDSTONE For Mayor
- M. F. SCHURMAN
- JOHN Y. PHILLIPS For Councillors
- JOHN J. McNALLY
- THOS. D. CARRUTHERS, For Water Commissioner.
