Partridge, and George Sutherland, both of Charlottetown. The father, who was given away by her brother, carried a shoulder-length blue and white dress and carried a shower bouquet of callian roses. Miss Olive Partridge, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a blue taffeta dress trimmed with pink and carried a bouquet of carnations and maidenhair fern. Mr. Donald was groomsmen. The guests were ushered into the Church by Mr. G. Carlyle Partridge, brother of the bride. The bride wore a blue and white dress with a large number of plants cut flowers and autumn happy couple left for a three days honeymoon to Boston, New York and other American centres. While away they will attend the wedding of the bride's sister, Miss Glendon F. Partridge, who is to be married in New Rochelle, N. Y., on Saturday, October 8th. The bride's going away train consisted of a wine coat with mink collar, hat and dress and accessories to match. The many valuable and useful gifts which they are held by a wide circle of friends, with whom the bride joins in extending best wishes for happiness.

STUDENTS RECEPTION IN ZION CHURCH HALL—On Monday evening, October 3rd, an enjoyable evening was spent in Zion Church Hall when a reception was tendered the Presbyterian students and friends by the Christian Endeavour Society of Zion Church. Following the welcoming remarks of Rev. G. Carlyle Webster a specially arranged programme was presented. Vocal solo, Olive Partridge, reading, Mrs. F. A. A. Mutch, vocal solo, Miss Claire McMillan. A song solo led by Rev. Mr. Webster, in which all present took part was also a pleasing feature of the evening's programme. The accompanist for the evening was Miss Jean Fraser. At the conclusion of the musical programme games and contests were held in the lower hall. Refreshments were served by the social committee then the evening was brought to a close with the singing of Auld Lang Syne and Bless Be The Tie That Binds.

W. M. S. MEETING—An interesting service was held in North Pastico Church on Sunday evening, Sept. 25th, under the auspices of the W. M. S. President, Mrs. B. C. Woolner, presided and the following program was pleasingly rendered. Opening Hymn No. 252. Scripture reading, Mrs. D. M. Court and Mrs. L. L. Lure. Prayer by Mr. O. C. Page. Quartette Mrs. Walter Buntain, Roland Buntain, Olaf Stevenson and B. C. Woolner. Missionary exercise by boys and girls of Sunday School. Due "Only Jesus" Mrs. MacMurdo and Mrs. Waugh. Selection by the choir. The Church by the side of the Road. Address by Mr. H. J. Toombs, Solo, Mrs. W. G. Simpson. Choir Hymn No. 271. Closing Hymn No. 628. Mrs. Toombs gave a most inspiring address based on Matt. 28:7, our Lord's first message after His resurrection and was listened to with rapt attention. She vividly portrayed conditions existing in the world today and especially the needs of the various mission fields of our church challenging all Christians to greater consecration and greater self-sacrifice. The W. M. S. is most grateful to all who assisted in the service.
