Stock Markets At A Glance

CHICAGO, Sept. 18 - (AP) - Substantial advances in all pits were recorded in today's grain futures trading. Before the closing bell all grains had advanced as much as 1 cent, with the tight September rye contract in the lead, up more than 2 cents.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 18 - (CP) - Rye futures prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today made new seasonal highs under buying by commission houses, locals and American interests. Trading was active and fairly liberal offerings were well absorbed.

TORONTO, Sept. 18 - (CP) - Index gains were recorded for all groups at the close of the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Turnover was $46,000.

A feature in the golds, Queenmont rose to a new high of $10.75 just before the close, up $1.15. Buffalo Addison was better at a 10-cent gain and Aubelle continued active turnover, up two.

MONTREAL, Sept. 18 - (CP) - Following their two-session downward trends, securities bounded up today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market. Market students reported that stronger trading sentiment after Friday's and Monday's technical corrections was bolstered by recovery trends on Wall Street. All pivotal groups were higher in the indices.

In industrial, General Steel Wares was the feature, moving up 1 to its best levels since 1930. It failed to hold all its rise. At the moment the company's management has under consideration an offer by U.S. interests to acquire its common stock.

SCALDING SILVER

It is always wise to scald silver after washing in soapy water. Not only from a sanitary angle but it removes odors and will keep the silver from having to be cleaned for many weeks. Always save a clean towel for the drying of the silver. Careful drying and polishing further does away with the silver cleaning necessity.
