U. S. Athletes Will Visit N. B. On Hunt Trip

BOSTON, July 16.—There'll be a notable group of athletes on a hunting trip "somewhere in New Brunswick this fall, but because of the fact that "freedom from the public glare" will be the slogan adopted, not a prospective member will divulge the exact location of the camp. Included among the tourists will be Jack Sharkey, heavyweight title contender; Dick "Honeyboy" Finnegan, N. E. lightweight king; Gus Sonnenberg, former Dartmouth grid star, who created a sensation in wrestling circles this past winter, and "Curly" Edes, 1927 baseball captain at Brown University. Sport writers, a cook and a guide will complete the party, which plans to leave the Hub about Oct. 10.

FRUIT PRODUCTION OF CANADA, 1927

For the Year Ending May 31, 1927

Prince Edward Island is Not Included

What is flatterly dubbed an annual report of the Fruit and Floriculture for the year ending May 31st, 1927, has been published by the Bureau of Statistics of Canada, and is at hand, containing all the provinces except P. E. Island. It says: According to the statistics, the total production is estimated at 2,810,000 barrels of commercial fruit, of the value of $10,411,035, as compared with 2,954,370 barrels of the value of $9,688,162, the finally revised estimate for 1926. These were valued at $3.70 as compared with $3.28 in 1927. Of the other fruits the estimated production and value for 1927 are as follows, with the corresponding figures for 1926, placed within brackets. Pears, 332,300 bushels, $663,730; $2.00 per bushel; and a lot of other fruits and small fruits which we need not ask Islanders to feel interested in. The mystery of the situation as to this Province being overlooked should be solved at the earliest date possible. There is no valid reason for such a cool discrimination. Should an honest estimate be submitted it would be found that our apple crop is well worthy of attention, and ought to arouse resentment among P. E. Islanders at least. Apart from the apple crop we may not raise fruits extensively, but we consider it an insult to make no mention at all of our Province in this report. It shows the omission was quite intentional on the part of the official in charge, or some defect in our crop which we are not aware of. It may be found, however, that the defect is in the official. That we produce a valuable crop of apples of the best qualities is a well known fact, and is kept in full view in all the reports in which the other eight Provinces are set forth. That unfairness was quite plainly intended is quite visible, owing to the fact that New Brunswick's name and quota are coupled with that of Nova Scotia. The report for 1928 is no doubt in course of preparation just now, and ought to contain a just statement of this Island up to May 31, 1928 last. And in future it would be only fair to include this Province in all the reports.

FREDERICTON SCHOOL

On the afternoon of June 27th, about thirty visitors gathered in Fredericton schoolhouse for the semi-annual examination. After the examination of the pupils by their teacher, Miss Grace Ackland, assisted by Miss Mary A. Andrews and Miss Mary G. Stevenson, the following well prepared program was most successfully rendered by the pupils: Chorus, God Bless Our Native Land; recitation, A Friend or Two; Edith Curcliffe; recitation, Summer is Here; Louis Hickox; monologue, Peter's Parley; Millar Stevenson; song, Musical Alphabet; Primary grades; recitation, Driving from the Rear; Wesley Murray; recitation, You, Mary Ross; monologue, An Accident; Dismal; Hannah Hickox; recitation, Mother; Wilmot Sellar; dialogue, Painting a Chair; by Millar and Catherine Stevenson, Wesley Murray and Roland Hickox; recitation, Housecleaning; Carol Ruby; Stevenson; dialogue, Days of the Week; by seven girls; recitation, The Flower Girl; Helen Stevenson; song Ho, Ho! Vacation Days Are Here; by senior grades; presentation of Public School certificate, to Ruby Stevenson. Prize for Arithmetic, Edith Curcliffe. After the program, the chairman, Mr. N. S. J. Murray, and others visitors, complimented Miss Ackland on the very marked improvement of the pupils' work during the past two years, when she was teacher in our school. Pupils and visitors were then treated to ice-cream and candy by the Women's Institute, and the meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

MILBURN SCHOOL REPORT.

The annual examination of Milburn school was held on Friday, June 28th, and was attended by a good number of parents and visitors. The pupils were examined in the various subjects "by their teacher," Miss Fannie Minchin, assisted by Mr. Daniel McNeil (teacher in Morell East School) and by Mr. Donald who so kindly assisted in class work acted as chairman. Programme:— 1. Drill Canada East and West by 11 pupils 2. Recitation—Dorothy Cobb, 3. Chorus—Vacation Song by School 4. Recitation—Mullins 5. Recitation—Eileen Mullins 6. Recitation—Reagh Moore, 7. Motion Song by 6 pupils, 8. Recitation—Alton Rapson, 9. Recitation—Vernon Pyke, 10. Dialogue—Olden Times, by Ruth Moore and Marion Pyke, 11. Recitation—Alfred Pyke, 12. Recitation—Margaret Flynn, 13. Recitation—Annie Mae and Alvin Robbins, 14. Reading—How Jimmy Tended the Baby—by Genevieve Mullins, 15. Recitation—Muriel Cobb, 16. Recitation—Elsie Pyke, 17. Dialogue—When Women have their rights, 18. Recitation—Ruth Moore, 19. Recitation—Jean Cobb, 20. Recitation—John Mullins, 21. Drill—Fair Canada, 22. Recitation—Mary Flynn, 23. Recitation—Marion Pyke. After complimentary remarks were made by parents present a well spent afternoon was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. Miss Minchin who was in possession of a camera arranged all "who attended" in groups and took snapshots out in the sunlight. Our school is now vacant of a teacher and we feel that Miss Minchin has set a pace in Milburn school the past year that will be hard to follow.

VICTORIA NOTES.

While the sun in peace is setting, And the dew is softly falling, I take my pen to my quiet room, My holidays will soon be over, With pleasure I'll tell the latest news, July for holidays I would choose.

The Baptists held their picnic on the church grounds last Wednesday, and bringing a lovely day a very large crowd gathered, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The supper table was laden with all kinds of goodie-goodies.

The Misses Reta and Dorothy Boulter, of Arlington, Mass., arrived at their old home on Tuesday evening. They will spend July and August with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Boulter. These young ladies have been away for three years, but are glad to come back to good old Prince Edward Island.

Only A Miracle Can Stop Yanks

Figures don't lie and there's mathematical proof for the assertion that the New York Yankees have yet to clinch the American League pennant. But alleged contenders in that circuit are coming day by day of the realization that it will take a miracle to head off Babe Ruth and Company from their third successive appearance in the world series this fall.

The maddening part of the situation to the contenders lies in the fact that for a month the champions have done little better than break even yet they still lead the procession by ten and a half games. The answer to that apparent paradox is that the closest competitors, the Philadelphia Athletics and the St. Louis Browns have done no better over the same period.

The figures on how three leaders have fared since June 10th, have an interesting story to tell. Tabulated they show: Club W. L. P.C. Yankees 19 15 .559 Athletics 20 16 .556 Browns 18 16 .529 Thus, although the Yankees have won only four more games than they've lost during this period, they've increased their advantage by one percentage point over the second Athletics and by 30 points over the Browns. If this sort of thing keeps up the Yankees can coast into the pennant.

TEACHER HONORED.

Miss Grace Douglas, of Georgetown teacher at Cornwall, has resigned her position after a year's very satisfactory work in that school. Friday evening, Miss Douglas was tendered a farewell surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crosby. Miss Douglas was presented with a silk umbrella and an address from the Young People's Society of Cornwall, the address being read by Mr. Gordon McMillan, and the presentation made by Miss Hilda Crosby. Yesterday she was also the recipient of a pair of candlesticks, candles and a bouquet of flowers, and an address presented her by the pupils of the school. The address was by Thankful Bain, and the presentation made by Louise Bain. The addresses are as follows: From the Y. P. S.—Dear Teacher, We are gathered here tonight to say farewell, because we know you could not bid adieu to Cornwall for the last time, but to give visible expression of our appreciation of the place you have taken in our school, community's life and welfare. Since coming to our midst only a few months ago, you so thoroughly endeavored to adapt yourself to the circumstances you met, that we never felt you were a stranger, but one of our own number. You have succeeded in your work as teacher, you have done your part to make a valuable contribution to the community life, you have shown your keen interest in the life of your church, and our Young People's Group owe no small debt to the place you have filled in their winter's work, and all together join in regretting that we cannot look forward to having you with us during the coming year. We wish you every success and hope that as we shall long remember your brief stay with us you shall not soon forget the friendships made while here. Kindly accept this little gift as a poor expression of our highest appreciation of what you have been, and have done, during your residence in Cornwall. —Rev. E. M. Melville Aitken, minister, on behalf of Y. P. S., Cornwall United Church.

From the School, Cornwall—Dear Teacher, We have again arrived at the close of another school term, and we feel we cannot let the opportunity pass without expressing our appreciation of your kindness to us in the classroom, your careful teaching, and your daily example to us as a citizen. We have fallen short of perfect in our lessons and work more than once, yet you did your best to enable us to get along, and make the most of our school days. We ask you to accept this gift, not for its value, but as a remembrance of your pupils in Cornwall. And now we say "farewell," wishing you every success in whatever your choice of work may be. Signed on behalf of the Pupils of Cornwall School.
