—MODERN SCHOOL — The trustees and ratepayers of Kelvin Grove are to be congratulated on their initiative, in having a new and modern school building erected. The work has been completed by a group of carpenters, under the capable management of Mr. Gerald MacLean, and a furnace has been installed in the basement. When the interior furnishings have been placed, the school will be ready for occupancy.—Bur.

—SOCIAL EVENT — A delightful social event took place on Monday evening, November 22nd, 1948, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heath Montgomery, Park Corner, when friends and neighbors descended upon the couple, to join with them in celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. Mr. C. S. MacKay, in the well taken capacity of chairman, called the gathering to order, and with a few appropriate remarks called upon Mr. James Campbell, who read an address, which presented in no uncertain terms, the esteem in which the honored couple are held in their community. On behalf of their friends, a well filled purse was presented by Mr. Preston MacLeod. The celebrants also received a pressure cooker a gift from their family. In their usual happy manner, Heath and Mary Ella thanked their friends and family for remembering them so generously, on their silver wedding day. Lunch was served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and in singing favorite songs. — Bur.

J. A. McGowan. The hymns sung were "When He Cometh" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus". Misses Marion and Elnor MacArthur sang sweetly "Jesus Loves Me". The pallbearers were Lea Sample, Jackie Thompson, Elnor Oatway and Nelson Best. Interment was made in Kensington People's Cemetery. The funeral was under the direction of Mr. J. L. Davison, Mortician.

—POST NUPTIAL SHOWER — On Friday evening, November 19th Mr. and Mrs. James T. Montgomery were tendered a post-nuptial shower, at their home at Park Corner. The happy young couple were escorted to especially chosen chairs by Miss Ruby MacLean, and Mr. Maurice Cousins. The many lovely gifts were opened by Misses Margaret and Jean Campbell, and the accompanying good wishes were read by Mrs. Donald Lamont, Miss Amy Cousins arranged the gifts. In a few choice words, the groom thanked their friends, for the kindness bestowed upon his bride and himself. "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung. A delicious lunch was served, and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. — Bur.

—MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—Miss Doris MacLean was guest of honor, at a miscellaneous shower, at her home at South West, Lot 16, on Monday evening, November 8th, 1948. When all had assembled, the bride-to-be, was escorted to the seat of honor by Mrs. Elmer Ramsay. The many presents were opened by Misses Lena MacNeil and Nellie Montgomery, while the accompanying names and good wishes were read by Miss Doreen MacLean. The wide variety of beautiful and costly gifts were arranged by Mrs. Elmer Ramsay. Doris gracefully expressed her thanks, and all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was served and dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.—Bur.
