THERE WILL BE NO ELECTION UNTIL AFTER REDISTRIBUTION

Census Will be Taken This Year to be Followed by Redistribution Which Means There Can be no Election Till After 1922 Session.

(Special to The Guardian) OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—The significance is placed here upon the intimation of Sir George Foster in his Peterboro speech to the effect that there will be a general election soon as the government considers it expedient to hold one and no sooner than maybe a year hence unless something untoward occurs, the government will not hold a general election until there has been a census and a redistribution of the Federal constituencies. The census will take place this year but will not be finished in time to prepare a redistribution this session. It may be recalled that Premier Meighen in his Peterboro speech declared that in 1917 the government had given no pledge to cut its constitutional term.

WHY SHOULD PEOPLE GROUSE? PROJECTS NEVER BETTER

Mr. C. L. Miles of the Canadian Bank of Commerce Here Writes Sensibly and Authoritatively on Present Situation.

Sir—Referring to Mr. Lonsdale's letter in your edition of 18th instant, it is difficult to believe that any sane or experienced business man can have placed any credence in any rumors which may have been circulated reflecting on the financial position of the prominent Charlottetown business houses. The public of this province appear to have within the last few months become quite depressed over conditions generally. I cannot see that there is any real reason for this. I have recently returned from a trip to some of the larger centres on the mainland and this despondent atmosphere certainly does not pervade those centres, but the contrast is quite noticeable on returning to the Island. Why should this be so here if it is not the case in the other provinces? The farmers and others in Prince Edward Island have benefited to quite as great an extent by the high prices of the

A SERIOUS INDUSTRIAL SITUATION IN ENGLAND

Conflict Between Capital and Labor. Former Declares Wages Must Come Down or Competition With Foreign Countries Is Impossible. Labor Declares Other Means Than Reduction of Wages Must be Adopted.

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, Jan. 23.—Great Britain faces an industrial and social crisis of extreme difficulty and uncertain issue. It hinges on the question of wages. Capital declares that wages must come down; labor declares that wages must remain as they are now or advance.

C.P.R. Owes Trotsky $40

(Special to The Guardian) NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The Canadian Pacific Railway owes Leon Trotsky $40. This was admitted with a smile by Lord Shaughnessy of Montreal, Chairman of the board of the Railroad system at the dinner of the Canadian Club here last night. Mr. N. W. Rowell, Canadian delegate to the assembly of the League of Nations, was speaking of E. W. Beatty, the new president of the railroad who was also president of the C.P.R. Beatty is not the only young man of prominence Lord Shaughnessy has produced. Our guests may not be so proud of it but when Trotsky lived in New York he also worked for the Canadian Pacific Railway here. "True," interrupted Lord Shaughnessy, "and we still owe him $40."

BRITISH SUBMARINE LOST WITH ALL HANDS

The Disaster, Cause Unknown Occurred Off Land's End. Probably Fifty to Sixty Lives Lost.

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, Jan. 23.—British submarine, K-5, commanded by John Gaines, was lost with all hands Thursday at the approaches of the English Channel, the Admiralty announced this afternoon. The commander of the lost submarine was not given but vessels of this class carry approximately six officers and fifty men. The disaster, the Admiralty announcement states, occurred 10 miles off Land's End. The submarine, it is added, had a full complement of officers and men on board. The cause of the disaster to the K-5 is not known.

Newspaper Woman Released From Jail

(Special to The Guardian) BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Margaret Harrison, newspaper correspondent imprisoned as a spy by the Bolshevik at Moscow has been released, according to a letter received yesterday by Dr. Hugh H. Young, from the secretary of Lord Beaverbrook, owner of the Daily Express. Her release from prison does not mean necessarily that she will immediately leave Russia though this is the hope of her friends.

Free Meals For The Unemployed

(Special to The Guardian) MONTREAL, Jan. 22.—The announcement that the real unemployed and needy of the city would be given meals at a city refuge any time, day or night, that the unruly element which had been fomenting disorder here will be checked was made this afternoon by E. R. Decary, Chairman of the Civic Administrative Committee. The statement was issued following the storming of one of the restaurants by unemployed ex-service men and the attempted raiding another.

Female Labor Available for Canada

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, Jan. 21.—If Canadian housewives are willing to train in domestic English women for domestic service, the apply of such labor will shortly be assured. The British authorities, your correspondent learns, have practically decided they will assist emigration of inexperienced women of the servant class to Canada and other dominions if they are guaranteed opportunities there. This is the first result of the desire of the British Government to grant further assistance to emigration in order to help to solve the unemployment problem as announced by Premier Lloyd George a month ago, and which proposal was bitterly opposed by the Northcliffe press.

Broadening Scheme

The next step, which, it is understood to be contemplated, is the broadening of last year's scheme of assisted emigration of ex-service men to include men who were under military age at the time of the armistice, but who are now twenty-one. As a matter of fact, so general was mobilization during the war, that this is the only important class not cared for by the executive plan, which latter is to be continued this year. By assisting this new class of possible emigrants whose number is estimated at half a million, the British authorities will be doing practically everything possible to implement Lloyd George's statement. The decision rests finally with the dominions as to what class of immigrants they will accept and what numbers they can absorb. It is not generally realized either in Canada or here, that there are a million people in Britain today who would have been citizens of Canada, Australia or other new countries, had not the war put a stop to the usual emigration of two hundred thousand souls. It is understood that a conference of British and dominion emigration authorities will be called to consider the whole question.

THE NEW COMMANDER OF THE CANADIAN NAVY

Captain Walter Hose Who Succeeds Admiral Kingsmill Has Seen Considerable Service in British Navy.

(Special to The Guardian) OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 23.—Capt. Walter Hose, who has been gazetted to succeed Admiral Kingsmill as commander of the Canadian Navy Service came to Canada to command the Rainbow sometime before the war. He had seen considerable service in the British navy in Atlantic waters, prior to his transfer to the Canadian service. On his arrival in Canada his work was confined to the Pacific and he it was who sent the Komagata Maru back with its cargo of Hindus. When war broke out Capt. Hose ran the Rainbow south and com-

FIRST ICE RACES OF SEASON GOOD DRAW-CARD

The Track Was Heavy But Good Contests Were Furnished. Mary Pickford and Winnifred W. the Winners.

The first of the Charlottetown Driving Club series of ice races was held on Saturday afternoon. The weather conditions were not entirely favorable, the track being quite heavy and sloppy. There was a good attendance of spectators who seemed to enjoy the speed contests. The first race called was Class "B" Trot with four starters. (Three of these tried campaigners), was won by Mary Pickford, owned by Mr. James A. King. Mary Pickford showed that she was a real high class trotter marching off in front and winning each heat apparently within herself. She is by Harry T. 2:16 1/2, owned by Mr. George H. Graham and her dam is Gracie Mac, 2:20 1/4, a famous Island race mare some eight years ago. The fastest time was made in the second heat when Harry G. splendidly driven by owner A. Godkin made Harry T. tend herself from wire to wire. The race was between these two out in the last heat Juanta Aubrey displaced Harry G. for second position.

The "Class B" Pace was another straight heat affair. Winnifred W. owned by Mr. J. Stanley Wedlock carrying off the honors being closely pressed the first by Nellie D. and in the second and third winning by a very small margin from "Commodore K." This race was marked by close and exciting finishes. The second heat was the fastest exactly equalling the time made in the second heat of the trot.

SUMMARY Class "B." Trot Mary Pickford, (J. Arbing.) 1 1 1 Harry G. (A. Godkin) 2 2 2 Juanta Aubrey, (W. Fox) 4 4 7

Canada Can Meet High U. S. Tariff

With Resources and Not Without Success, Declares Premier Meighen

(Special to The Guardian) OTTAWA, January 21.—Speaking at a banquet of the Ottawa Valley Holstein Club here tonight, Premier Arthur Meighen said that Canada was confronted with the prospect of a high industrial barrier on the part of the country to the south of us. If such comes, as it would appear at present, Canada can meet the situation uncomplainingly and not without resource—and not without success. If such comes, it will probably result in a great impetus to the dairy industry of the Dominion of Canada. His words were greeted with hearty cheers.
