The Aketa C. G. I. T. of the Montague United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Malcolm Patterson on Thursday evening with eight members present. The meeting opened with the C. G. I. T. purpose and prayer followed by the devotional period led by Miss Millie Lake, assisted by Helen Hamilton and Lorraine MacLure. The minutes of the last meeting were then read and approved. A business period followed, and plans were made for C. G. I. T. week which is to be held Feb. 13-20th. Some suggestions were made, and members were elected to look into the matter, and report at the next meeting. The business part of the meeting then closed, and a social half hour was enjoyed.

During the past week the Montague hockey squad has shown their superiority by defeating both the Murray Harbour and Georgetown squads, the former by a score of 4-1, and the latter by a score of 11-7. Beginning the year 1948-49, the squad, under the expert coaching of Doug McGowan, soon began to find its pace, and the real hockey came to the fore. The smooth passing plays of the forward line is a pleasure to watch, as is also their growing finesse around the opponents' net. Although, as a team, they do not go in for heavy body checking, they are, however, not adverse to sending a player into the ice when the occasion demands. Moreover, as they play more hockey, the defensive play is becoming more organized, so that seldom is an opponent left in the clear in front of the net. With such results, many fans who were displeased with performances of past years, are now returning to lend their support to the team. It is not at all impossible that playing such hockey as has been seen during this past week, the local team could come out on top for the coveted Taylor's trophy for the Southern King's League.

with her, offers to cut cards for the $16,000 she owes him—if she wins, the debt is cancelled; if he wins, she marries him. She loses, but even wedding is better than marrying Clark, so Paulette files the coop. Clark sets private detective Macdonald Carey on her trail and the elusive Miss Goddard leads him on a merry chase. Always her overwhelming desire to gamble, betrays her, and Carey finally takes her in tow after he bails her out of jail following a raid. They head back to Clark in New York and it is their adventures en route that bring Paulette to her senses and finally, after considerable trouble with Clark, into Carey's arms. "Hazard" was directed by George Marshall.
