

Good Horse Racing Yesterday at the Exhibition Track

SPLENDID RACES YESTERDAY IN THE OPENING CONTESTS

Wilteen Boy, Dan Patchen and Capt. Jackson Were the Winning Horses.

Yesterday was the first day of the four days' horse racing in connection with the Provincial Exhibition. There was a very cold, raw wind blowing which kept the attendance somewhat below the average of a Wednesday's crowd. The bleachers were only sparsely filled, but the racing was excellent, all three events being well contested, the 2.20 Trot being unusually close.

Starter A. C. Thompson, of North Sydney, handled the bell and conducted the meeting in an excellent manner, getting the large fields away without undue scoring. In two classes he had some trouble with the bad actors, but he did his best to give the owners a fair show, and succeeded.

The 2.20 Class Trot, Purse $500. Was the first race called, and, as expected, turned out to be a hard fought battle between Brenton H., Our Peggy and Wilteen Boy, the latter horse winning the necessary three heats and race, although it took six heats to give him the victory.

1st Heat.—The eight starters got away on the fifth score, Our Peggy going out into the lead, closely pressed all the way by Brenton H. In the final quarter Wilteen Boy came very fast and the three horses—Our Peggy, Brenton H., and Wilteen Boy—finished within a few yards of each other, Wilteen Boy making a slight break near the wire which lost him his chance. 2.18 1/4; Batonette 4th, Harry T. 5th and Jessie Aubrey 6th. The 2nd Heat.—Our Peggy made a break shortly after the word "go" and Brenton H. assumed the lead, which he never relinquished, winning the heat in 2.19 1/4, with Wilteen Boy right on his neck. Our Peggy third, and Harry T. fourth. 3rd Heat.—This was another great duel between Wilteen Boy and Brenton H., Wilteen Boy winning by inches after a very exciting finish. Our Peggy third, and Harry T. fourth. 2.20 1/4. 4th Heat.—This proved another hard race between Brenton H. and Wilteen Boy, Brenton H. winning by a length, Wilteen Boy, second, and Batonette, who trotted exceptionally well, third, and Our Peggy fourth. The 5th and 6th heats were won by Wilteen Boy in 2.23 1/4 and 2.25 respectively. Brenton H. being a close second. The time made in this race, while on paper not exceptionally fast, still, taking into consideration the weather conditions into account, was probably equal to 2.16 on a favorable day.

2.20 Class, Trot Stake, Purse $500. Wilteen Boy, (A. L. Hodgson, Halifax) 3 2 1 2 1 1 Brenton H. (H. C. Hooper, Ch'town) 2 1 2 1 2 2 Our Peggy, (Manson Drug Co., Sydney) 1 3 3 4 0. Batonette (C. A. Fraser, Alma, N.S.) 6 4 3 0 Harry T. (John Rooney, Orwell Cove) 5 4 5 5 Tessie Aubrey (H. M. Sweeney, Bridgewater), 6 5 6 Radiant and Glenmore distanced. Time: 2.18 1/4, 2.19 1/4, 2.20 1/4, 2.19 1/4, 2.22 1/4, 2.25 1/4.

McIntosh, Thorburn, N.S.) 5 9 7 Marjorie (A. H. Murphy, Ch'town) 7 10 9 The Pup (J. Arbing, Ch'town) 11 6 10 Dick Bingen and Forward Boy were distanced. Time: 2.21 1/4, 2.21 1/4, 2.20 1/4.

The officials on the stand were: Starter—Mr. A. C. Thompson, N. Sydney, N.S. Judges—Messrs. Jack Grant, N. Glasgow; Walter Brown, Ch'town; F. J. E. Wright, Summerside. Timers—Messrs. E. F. Acorn, L. B. McMillan, T. Ranaghan.

NOTES. Wilteen Boy, 2.17 1/4, is owned by Mr. A. L. Hodgson, and was a good performer in the United States before coming to the Maritime Provinces. He is a tough trotter and will race all day. Brenton H., 2.18 1/4, owned by Mr. H. C. Hooper, of Charlottetown, has been campaigning for seven years, and has always been a real sterling horse. Yesterday he showed the greatest gameness and had lots of admirers although beaten. Dan Patchen, 2.16 1/4, is owned by Col. D. A. McKinnon. He was quite a good ice pacer on the circuit last winter.

Big League Recruits

Travis Jackson
NINE TEEN YEAR OLD YOUTH WHO HAS PROVED TO BE ONE OF THE GREATEST UTILITY INFELDERS OF THE YEAR.

Here's a youngster who has earned a berth with a championship outfit in his first year out of the minors. Not only that, but he has been called upon to fill the shoes of none other than the best third baseman in the National League, and has covered himself with glory doing it.

Travis Jackson—for we are speaking of none other than the versatile utility infielder of the New York Giants—is but 19 years old and hails from that good old state of Arkansas, where his dad is a grocer of some importance.

The town of Waldo claims Travis as its most favored native son. This part of Arkansas raises hogs, cotton and back as sharp as razors, cotton, corn whiskey and ball players, with varying success.

Due time Jackson graduated from the Waldo brand of baseball and struck out to plant himself in a more fertile field. Little Rock being the biggest city in the world, Travis headed for it. Here he managed to interest the club, with the result that he appeared and grew into the best ball player in the aggregation.

So he soon found himself at the Polo Grounds basking in a Giant's crack shortstop, was sent to the sick bay and Travis was hurried into the fray to plug the hole.

Did he plug it? He sure did, it he slapped that ball and gobbled up some home runs.

He booked a hall he'd come right back at the next hot skimmer as though he'd never made a fumble in his life. Big League surroundings failed to rattle him. Nerve seemed to comprise 90 per cent. of his make-up.

So Jackson made good.

WHILE JACKSON IS NOT A GREAT HITTER, AS AVERAGES GO, HE COMES THROUGH WHEN A HIT IS NEEDED.

THAT BIRD THINKS HE CAN BEAT IT OUT.

HAS A WHOLE OF A WHIP.

BARNEY GOOGLE NOSES THE BUDDIE OUT IN GREAT RACE

Thrills and Chills Intermingle in Yesterday Morning's Contest When the Miniature Yachts Braved the Elements and Staged One of the Most Spectacular Races of the Season.

Close and exciting finishes seem to be the order of the day during the last few yacht races held on the harbour.

Yesterday morning's race which was won by the Barney Google, was easily the most spectacular and thrilling event of the kind this year.

Five boats, Barney Google, Sheik, Buddie, Emerald J. and Miss Charlottetown answered the starter's gun shortly after ten o'clock; the course being the same as last Saturday.

A wicked north easter together with a heavy sea running tested the eighteen footers to the limit. On the first round, the Emerald, J. and Miss Charlottetown withdrew from the race, leaving the Google and Buddie to battle it out to the finish. The Sheik although different tactics, the Google finally winning from the Buddie by five seconds, after the most interesting and closest yacht race of the year.

The Google's time was 1 hour 46 1/2 minutes; a minute and a half outside her previous record for this course of 1 hour and 45 minutes—best time.

The time made by the Google and Buddie in this race was so remarkable considering their size and the heavy sea and wind which they had to buck up against.

Special mention is due the crews of the different boats who braved the elements for sport's sake and the great extent of the contest was to a great extent offset by the chills afterwards.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, who stopped here on his way to Salt Lake City to join the champion, said tonight that tentative negotiations were under way with James Coffroth to match Dempsey for a fight at Tia Juana, probably around the first of the year.

No opponent for the champion had been selected, he said, but added that it would not be Harry Willis, the negro fighter. He indicated that Tom Gibbons was being considered.

WOMAN KISSED A HORSE, SHE IS ARRESTED.
London, Sept. 26.
A WOMAN who kissed a horse in the streets of London was arrested for disorderly conduct. She blamed the horse.

"He looked at me," she told the magistrate, "and I always loved horses."

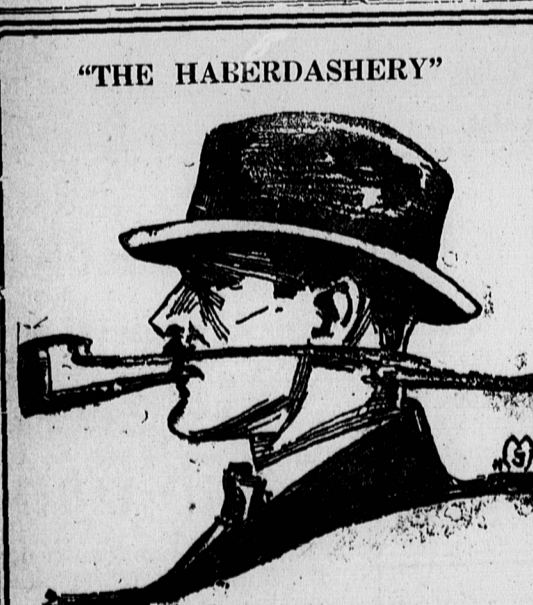

The magistrate decided it was not disorderly to yield to such an osculatory urge.

But because she was under the influence of liquor at the time the defendant was fined one pound.

FARRELL TELLS WHY JACK DEMPEY SLUGGED WITH LUIS FIRPO

He Started Out to Box the Argentine But Got a Terrible Clout on the Jaw. That Punch Knocked the Champion off His Feet. His Next Best was to Slug and Hard.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
George Carpentier was knocked out when he fought Dempsey by a psychological punch more than the right hand of the champion which crashed over on him in the fourth round.

The Frenchman practically lost the fight in the third round when he got over the punch upon which everything depended, a straight right hand square to the jaw. When Dempsey did not drop, Carpentier knew that he was through. He realized he had played his best and only card and that the only thing left from him was defeat.

Firpo, whether he was influenced by it or not, surely felt the same way and the reaction was apparent in the lack of spirit that was evidenced in his work when he came out after the first round.

The same psychology that must have reduced the morale of Firpo, of course, increased the fighting spirit of Dempsey. After what he had gone through in the first round, the champion could not help but feel that the breaks in the following rounds would be all in his favor. He had taken everything the South American had to offer and he had been able to weather the storm. He knew that every time he was landing he was dropping the Argentine and he knew likewise that Firpo was not going to come up after one of those punches in the following rounds.

Dempsey's greatest advantage of Firpo rested in his unusual ability to recuperate quickly. The champion was just as badly off as his opponent at the end of the first round. In fact, he looked worse than Firpo because he was so dizzy he couldn't locate his corner.

Jack Kearns may say for the rest of his days that Dempsey was not hurt or was not in danger at any time during that first round, but all his insistence will not influence the belief and the knowledge of everyone close to the ring that the champion was in a terrible way all during the opening round.

Dempsey, however, cleared quickly during the minute rest between rounds, and he came out almost fresh, while the South American derived no benefit whatever from the ministrations of his seconds and he floundered out groggy and ready for the knock-out punch.

Zev or My Own Will Race Papyrus

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The selection of the three year old to race Papyrus, English derby winner, in the $100,000 international contest at Belmont Park, October 20, may not be made before October 6.

Under the terms of agreement with Ben Frial, owner of the English thoroughbred, the Jockey Club under whose auspices the race will be held, has until two weeks before the contest to pick the American representative. The Jockey Club also has the privilege of naming an alternate.

Zev, Kentucky, derby victor, and star of the Rancocas stable and My Own, Admiral C.T. Crayson's string, stand out as the two leading candidates, with the odds favoring the selection of Zev, which has made a more impressive record for the season. Zev was the Lawrence Realization first official trotter, while My Own captured the National Trial Sweepstakes, the second best. They have never met and efforts so far to bring them together have failed.

Within One Game of the Pennant

CINCINNATI, Sept. 26.—The champion New York Giants advanced to within one game of their pennant goal by winning the last game of their western tour from the Cincinnati Reds today, 3 to 2. Luque was hit hard in the early rounds, but with good control and excellent support managed to keep the score close. The Giants scored in the second inning on Muel's triple to the scoreboard and a single by Stengel. They bunched four singles for two earned runs and the game in the third, after which they could do little with the Cuban who struck out six men. Watson was very effective except in the first and last innings. Burns and Daubert opened the even by driving out four of their remaining victory to clinch their third straight flag. They left for the east to-night and will close their season with four games with Brooklyn and one with Boston. If they win any one of these five games, the Reds cannot overtake them.

The Giants need only one more victory to clinch their third straight flag. They left for the east to-night and will close their season with four games with Brooklyn and one with Boston. If they win any one of these five games, the Reds cannot overtake them.
