CONCERT in Pownal to-night.

There was one arrest for drunkenness yesterday.

CORNWALL. The entertainment at Cornwall to-night promises to be a grand success. There will be refreshments served in the cheese factory after the concert. Come and enjoy a moonlight drive.

The funeral of Master Christopher Gallant took place yesterday forenoon and was largely attended. The funeral was under the auspices of the League of the Cross, and was attended by the members of that organization with their band.

ALL citizens having padlocks on their warehouses, barns, stores, factories, &c, are warned to have them secure, as a few nights ago a padlock mysteriously disappeared from a certain building and although discovered next day the finder is satisfied that some person or persons unknown wilfully tampered with the aforesaid padlock.

W. W. BUCHANAN, who lectured in this city last summer, formerly general manager of the Royal Templars of Temperance, at Hamilton, Ont., has been appointed assistant manager of an insurance company at Winnipeg, and will leave for there this week. Mr. Buchanan is a former Winnipegger, having been connected with the staff of the Winnipeg Sun. He is a brother of Mr. D. W. Buchanan, editor of the Winnipeg Commercial.

At the police court yesterday morning Peter Macdonald, Queen Street, was convicted of a breach of the Liquor Regulation Act and was fined $100 or two months imprisonment. George Rodd, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $4 or 20 days. John Donovan and Daniel McMillan, the younger for being drunk, disorderly and fighting on Lower Queen Street on the 11th inst., were fined respectively $10 or 60 days and $90 or 90 days. For a similar offence on the 14th inst., McMillan was fined $90 or 90 days; and a charge against John Gormley was dismissed.
