

The WEEK at S.D.U.

Mid-term examinations have been posted on the bulletin board for High School and College years. The dates set for the examinations are Mar. 6th and 9th.

Debating: The Freshman-Sophomore public-speaking group which regularly meets on Sunday have cancelled all meetings until after examinations. The other three societies postponed their regular Wednesday evening meeting because of the second game of the intercollegiate hockey series which was played at the Forum Wednesday, Feb. 25.

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 18 the students held a concert in connection with a drawing for a lottery the proceeds of which were for the assistance of Mount Allison University students, victims of the recent fire which destroyed one of their resident buildings. The concert, under the direction of Eugene M. Gorman revealed considerable talent in the student body and was a complete success.

Hockey: In the second game of the P.E.I. Intercollegiate Series our boys met defeat at the hands of a vastly-improved P.W.C. sextet. The town lads, with their backs to the wall, exhibited a "never-say-die" spirit and deserved their 6-2 victory. The Saints, perhaps over-confident in this game are determined to give a better account of themselves in the final encounter, one which promises to be a thriller.

Intramural hockey: The second section of the league finished Saturday, Feb. 21 and the records show the following: League standing: Lawyers, 10 pts. Farmers, 9 pts. Resulters, 9 pts. Commandos, 9 pts. Wreckers, 3 pts. Individual leaders: Leading goal-getter, Jim Morris, 10 pts. Leading goalie, Leo Rossiter. Leading "bad-man" Ray Forbes.

Rev. A.O. Murphy, Parish Priest of Grand River, was a visitor at the college for several days last week.
