A very enjoyable concert was held at Falconwood Hospital on Friday evening last. A well rendered program of instrumental music, step dancing and song by Worsell's band of this City was enjoyed through with very high by the great enjoyment of the patients. At the close a vote of thanks was passed by Diet & Goodwill which was heartily accorded by the patients who responded to the motion by putting up one hand. Some who were specially anxious to have the musicians return put up two hands to emphasize their desire. Refreshments added an interesting item to the evening's enjoyment.

An order for the oral examination of E. O. Brown was made last week by one of the judges of the Supreme Court and to carry this out it was necessary for the examination to be taken in Queen's County jail where the defendant is confined. On Friday last the examiner, stenographer and lawyers went to the jail and invited Mr. Brown to the Court Martial room in order that he might be examined, but Mr. Brown refusing to accept the invitation the legal fraternity decided to visit him in his private room and take the examination there. As the party entered this room the defendant selected one of them, whom he accused of being the mover in the matter and made an onslaught on him with the result that a general retreat took place and an adjournment of further proceedings.

To secure the highest market prices for their goods is the aim of every shipper and this the firm of Healy & Lyons, commission fish merchants, 184 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, always succeeds in getting for their customers. They are large buyers, and with the ready trade which is always theirs will handle and quickly dispose of melt or else sent them from this Province. There is good call for Provincial shipments on the American market at present and intending shippers would do well to look up this firm's which appears in this issue, before making same.

Tonight and Tuesday the Nickel is putting on four elegant pictures. An interrupted Ouing is a laugh from start to finish, two tramps furnishing most of the fun. William the poacher is a story of a poacher who is caught snaring rabbits and shot by the warden. This film has the exterior scenes beautifully tinted for moonlight effects. A Heart's bidding is a nice story plainly told by the clear film. Victoria Falls Zumbal River is an elegant picture of those grand falls. This film is also partly tinted adding greatly to the beauty of the scenes. The Nickel is cozy, warm and well ventilated and it has been remarked that that there is the best of order and the pictures, clear, steady and flickerless.
