Sea View And Vicinity

The cars are again very much in sight on the highways, the recent thaw has taken the snow and the only means of travelling is on wheels.

Mr. and Mrs. John MacNutt returned to their home in Darnley after spending a pleasant visit with friends in Charlottetown.

Mr. Clark Caisley was a recent visitor to Sea View and spent a pleasant visit with friends there.

Miss Lulu McDonald, Belle was a recent visitor to Stanchel, the guest of her aunt, Lulu Champion.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin MacArthur and little daughter Joyce spent a few days pleasantly in Sea View the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford MacLaren.

The many friends of Mr. Herbert Dixon are indeed sorry to learn of the serious nature of the illness. Mr. Dixon is a patient in Prince Edward Island Hospital for X-ray treatment.

Mrs. I. M. Ramsay, Malpeque, is making a good recovery following her recent operation in Prince County Hospital.

Miss Mille Cousins entertained the members of the Sea View W. I. on Wednesday evening. Although the evening was unfavorable and the roads bad eighteen members were present besides a large number of visitors.

The snow plough has cleared the highway at Malpeque to Kensington and several are again making trips to Summerside by car.

The funeral of the late Pauline Coulson, R. N., was held from her father's residence at Sea View on Friday afternoon and was largely attended by many friends from far and near who came to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased who was greatly loved and respected for her loving and charming personality.

To know her was to love her, she was called to higher service in the Home Beyond. The service at the home was conducted by Rev. Mr. Fream assisted by Rev. Mr. Thomas. Rev. Mr. Fream spoke many comforting words to the bereaved and paid a fitting tribute to the many fine qualities to the life of the deceased and her cheerful willingness to help in every way possible in the Master's service. The deceased was a member of the choir of St. Stephen's Church, Burlington and greatly assisted in her voice of song. The hymns were, Peace, Perfect Peace, Safe In The Arms of Jesus, Mr. Roscoe Walker sang with deep feeling, Will The Circle Be Unbroken, Rev. Mr. Fream offered prayer and read the Scripture. At the close of the service the remains were borne to St. Stephen's Church of which the deceased was a faithful and devout member. The church was filled with sympathetic friends and Rev. Mr. Fream conducted the service. At the close the deceased was laid to rest in the family plot there. The pall bearers were Messrs. Eddie Murphy, Keir Duggan, Robert Sutherland, Ivan Duggan, Lane Campbell and James Murphy. There were many beautiful floral tributes from sympathetic friends also from the Nurses' Association and from the Sea View W. I. sincere sympathy of a host of friends is extended to her heart-broken partner.

The snow plough has cleared the highway at Malpeque to Kensington and several are again making trips to Summerside by car.

Mr. Roy Adams was a visitor to Charlottetown this past week on business.

Several of the farmers of this community have their winter's supply of wood cut and are patiently waiting for snow to get it hauled home.

Many from this community attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Littlefield which was held at St. Stephen's Church, Burlington, on Sunday past. The deceased was at one time a resident of Sea View and will be kindly remembered by many friends here who extend sincere sympathy to all sorrowing friends.

Mr. Keir McKay our local blacksmith is exceedingly busy horseshoeing those days, as the icy hard roads quickly dull the shoes - V.
