CANADA'S GOVERNOR GENERAL ARRIVES

The safe arrival in Canada of the Earl of Athlone, new Governor-General of the Dominion, and his wife, Princess Alice, was announced June 19th. Already the vice-regal pair have made themselves popular with Canadians by their visit of inspection to troops of the first division training in England, and their keen interest in all things Canadian. At LEFT, the Earl is shown as he spoke to one of the men during the visit. "Your unit is magnificent; you should be proud of it," he told Lieut.-Col. E. W. Haldenby, officer commanding Toronto's 48th Highlanders. At RIGHT, Princess Alice consults a military sectional map during the manoeuvres staged in honor of their visit and at CENTRE the pair leave St. Paul's cathedral in ceremonial dress. "We feel that we shall love Canada and we hope to be worthy of the opportunity that is before us," the Earl said.
