THE COLONIAL STOCK COMPANY.

It is with regret that Manager Hopkins of The Colonials finds it will be impossible to play the east end of Prince Edward Island, as he has always done heretofore, This is due to the fact that Exhibition in Charlottetown falls a week later than usual this year and is followed so closely by the exhibitions in Nova Scotia which the above company arranged to play last Spring.

However, the Company hopes to see all of their friends during Exhibition Week in Charlottetown, where they are assured the same courteous treatment and better plays than ever before. All the old favorites will be there to welcome the audience.

DIXON-McKINLAY

The beautiful home of Mrs. MacKieson Dixon, of Clyde River, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday evening, Sept. 20th, at 7 o'clock, when her eldest daughter, Miss Mary Irene, became the bride of William Ernest McKinlay, one of North River's most successful farmers. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Leslie McEwen, of North River. The bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her brother George. The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves, ferns and flowers. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride wore a gown of Canton silk, with pearl trimmings, with a bridal veil, and arange blossoms. She also carried a beautiful bouquet of rare flowers. The interesting ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alexander Craise of West River. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful gold watch and chain. The bride was very popular wherever known she having been a successful teacher in different parts of the Province, and especially in her own vicinity, as was attested to by the large and magnificent display of wedding presents given her. After the ceremony the guests, to the number of sixty, sat down to a sumptuous repast, gotten up in Mrs. Dixon's best style. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation, music and song. Among the songs, were two beautiful gaelic songs, given by two of the guests, which brought down the house. The bride travelled in a suit of London smoke broad cloth, black hat, trimmed with Ostrich plumes. The groom and bride left by the morning train for a wedding trip of four weeks, to Boston, New York, and Niagara Falls, and on their return they will visit Montreal, Quebec and other Canadian cities. The charavarie boys turned out in force, and to show the esteem in which the young couple were held by them, they presented them with a beautiful silk handkerchief apiece with the groom's and bride's monogram neatly worked on each and after giving three cheers for the young couple they retired in marshalled order.

ARE STILL IN DOUBT IN MAINE

Attorney-General Believes Repeal Will Lose by Corrections

AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 19.—After having completed the tabulation of the official returns on all four questions which appeared upon the ballot at the special election a week ago, the Governor and Council tonight adjourned until Thursday, Sept. 28, when they will meet to consider corrections. There is still a grave doubt over the repeal measure.

FOUR DECISIONS.

The results, as announced today, were as follows;

On repeal of the constitutional prohibitory amendment:

Yes, for repeal	60,487
No, against repeal	60,461
Majority for repeal	26

On question of forever locating State Capitol at Augusta:

Yes	59,678
No	41,294
Majority in favor	44,036

On question of increasing the debt limit for cities of 40,000 and over:

Yes	39,242
No	68,712
Majority in favor	530

Over Three to One.

On adoption of State-wide primary system:

Yes	65,810
No	21,774
Majority in favor	44,036

All of these returns are subject to correction, but there is little possibility of such steps being taken except in the case of the prohibitory amendment.

Attorney General Pattangall today communicated by telephone with the town officials of three of the disputed towns and learned for himself the exact condition of affairs as regards the prohibition vote. He found, he stated tonight in the towns of Porter, Athens and Westfield that the municipal officers insisted that their vote was the reverse of what had been recorded at the State House. These and other towns leave the matter still in grave doubt, but Attorney General Pattangall believes corrections will show a majority against repeal of considerable size.

Mr. Pattangall found from his investigation today that in Athens at least there was a proper and correct record, which is what the law requires to allow corrections. In Limestone, he said, he has learned that there is no record, but he is satisfied that the vote can be established. Either place, if corrected, would throw the majority on to the prohibition side.

At their meeting next week, the council will receive notice of any intended corrections, and will then set a date on which a hearing will be held, this hearing to be open to all interested parties. The time for receiving corrections will not expire until Oct., 9, 20 days from today. It is expected at the State House that not less than 1000 defective ballots were thrown out at the election. Word also reached the State House today that the town clerk of Sanford was not represented by a substitute or deputy. The possible effect of this is not indicated.

Aroostook county, in addition to voting upon the four questions which appeared upon the State ballot, also noted on the matter of the establishment of a registry of deeds for northern Aroostook. The returns of this vote have not yet been tabulated, the council having delegated the duty to a committee.

Governor Plaisted in discussing the situation tanight said that although the apparent result had been announced, showing 26 votes in favor of repeal, he anticipated that corrections would be made in the returns of several towns which might materially alter the result.

"We are trying in an orderly manner to get at the will of the people and to determine the result," he said.

The Governor declared that he believed the errors brought out by this canvass should receive careful consideration. Regarding the action of the election officials in the town of Sherman, where the counting of ballots was started and the result announced before the polls closed, the Governor said that he believed it was a matter for the attention of the county officers, pointing out that had such a thing occurred in some city ward where the vote was close it would have given opportunity for workers to have hurried voters to the polls and possibly have changed the result.

The question of a possible special session of the Legislature is being held in abeyance, pending the outcome of the corrections, which may be made next week.
