ANGELICAN ORDINATION SERVICE—On Sunday, the 10th November, at 11 o'clock, His Grace Archbishop Worrell will raise to the holy office of Priesthood the Rev. W. J. Phillips, Deacon in charge of Alberton in St. Peter's Cathedral, Charlottetown. Usually the Anglican ordinations for this Diocese take place in All Saints Cathedral, Halifax. It is now about 26 years since the last ordination took place in Charlottetown, when the Rev. Walter Cotton was raised to the Priesthood by His Lordship Bishop Courtney. Church people generally will appreciate the action of His Grace the Archbishop, in holding this ordination here and so making it possible for them to be present at and take part in this solemn and beautiful service. The Venerable Archdeacon White will present Mr. Phillips for ordination and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Canon Malone.

NOVEL CONVENIENCES IN A BERLIN BALL-HOUSE

LONDON, Oct. 29.—(British United Press)—A certain amount of jealousy felt in Berlin at the magnificence of the new Theatre Pigalle in Paris has been pleasantly mitigated by the opening of a colossal specimen of that peculiar type of place of amusement at popular prices in which Germany specialises. The very name of the establishment, "Femina," would, in any other city than Berlin imply the naughtier or at least coarsely intimate. In Berlin, however, it signifies a vast ball-room, surrounded by every conceivable kind of bar, in which some two thousand people by the rest of the families, Berlin's

BELFAST NOTES

We regret to report that Mrs. Roland MacDonald, of Eldon, has been obliged to go to the P. E. Island Hospital for an operation. Her many friends are hoping to see her soon restored to sound health.

Mr. Sophas Phalen, of Ocean View, was married on Wednesday, October 23rd, at Iona. The bride was Miss Lena Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, of the Valley. Their many friends wish them many years of happy wedded life.

The regular monthly meeting of the Pinette Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. John D. MacRae with an attendance of six members. Next month the society will meet at the home of Mrs. Whitte.

The many friends sincerely regret the continued illness of Miss Kathleen Ross, of Eldon. They are looking forward to her recovery.

Mr. J. J. Larrabee, of Eldon, recently purchased a fine cow from Mr. William MacLeod, of St. George's for which he paid a neat price.

Miss Gillan, Red Cross Nurse from Charlottetown, accompanied by Dr. J. P. Martin, of Eldon, visited the schools in Belfast and vaccinated the children. This is, we believe, a great protection when sickness comes.

Mr. Watson Bishop, who was erecting a dwelling house for Mr. Harold Beaton, of Alexandria, is at his home in Mt. Buchanan owing to a bad cold.—O.
