Ruth, Johnson Top war relief Ball show

By Sid Feder Associated Press Sport Writer NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—Babe Ruth, who "broke the Yankee Stadium, came back today to fill it with fans—and gold—for soldiers and sailors.

Naturally the big guy, hitting two "homers" off Walter Johnson as the top attraction on the card, had a lot of help bringing 69,138 fans into the Bronx ballyard...

But all you had to do was hear the folks holler for old moonface to realize that the lure his big bat has always had for the fan still works, and that he was the drum major in the parade that included a showing of what's left of the 35-year-old Johnson's smoke-ball, a double-header between the Yanks and Washington Senators, and a hitting-running-throwing field "meet" between players of both clubs.

Seventeen times Johnson pitched with that machine-smooth motion of his. Seven were balls. Three were called strikes. But two had the old Ruth trademark on them—right among the customers in the right field grandstand. And with the last one—which, to tell the truth, was slightly foul—the Babe gave it the old Ruthian flourish, circling the bases with his miening, cone-toed steps and acknowledged, pigeon-roof-shaking roars with his traditional hat-wave.
