THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

A VERY sincere and touching letter of sympathy has been addressed by Victoria Mrs. S. U. T. of this City to Miss Kate Keane on the death of her mother.

SPECIAL music for the Christmas festival will be a bright feature of the services at St. Paul's Church. A choir practice is to take place at 7.15 this evening.

MISS MARY McISAAC formerly of this City the new lady superintendent of the public hospital, has arrived in Edmonton accompanied by Miss Bessie Sargent, who will also join the hospital staff.

OWING to the disagreeable weather, the concert which was to have been held in McDonald Consolidated School last night was postponed till tonight. If the evening is fine, concert will begin at 7.30.

ABOUT thirty of the members of Prince Edward and Victoria Divisions paid a fraternal visit to St. Annapole Division, Thursday night. A good program was furnished and a very pleasant evening spent.

RAIN, which began to fall early yesterday morning did a great deal to cut down the high snowbanks which have lined the highways for some time. As there is not much ice foundation under the roads it looks as if the snow might be cut quite through if the mild weather continues. But colder weather is predicted, which may be in time to save the sleighing.

As usual Bruce Stewart & Co's calendar for 1907 is one worthy of more than the usual attention which has given to new calendars. The picture is a reproduction of Roselle's famous painting depicting the party between Bonnie Prince Charlie and E. la McLeod, and is something that will be appreciated by many customers and others to whom the firm sends them.

LETTERS received by friends here contain the gratifying news that Alfred Stewart, a native of this Province, now living in Colorado, has been elected to the Legislature for a second term, defeating a candidate who had been in office for six successive years. He ran for Douglas County. He is a son of the late Alexander Stewart of Marshfield, and a brother of W. S. Stewart, K. C. of this City and of Mrs. James Stewart, Dore's affiance.

A sad gloom was cast over Ellerslie on Sunday morning, Dec. 16, when the angel of death visited the home of John Morrison and deprived it of a beloved wife and mother. Although her death was not unexpected it comes as a sad blow to the family. She had been in failing health for some time past of cancer, which she bore with Christian patience and resignation. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, four sons, and five daughters to mourn the loss.

The case of John Jones vs Ellen Smith came up before the Moot Court last evening by the plaintiff to recover $300 amount expended in repairing defendant's property while she was the wife of John Smith. The plaintiff declared on the witness stand, and payment on which is now being made. At the hearing the counsel for the defendant asked leave to amend the plea by adding a plea of coverture which was allowed, with costs. The counsel for the plaintiff were George W. McPhee and Geo. Matheson; for the defendant, N. A. Campbell and Fred K. Conroy. Stipendiary Magistrate John A. McDonald presided as judge. Judgment was reserved.

The gathering of parents and friends of the little children who are pupils of the Kindergarten on the occasion of the Christmas celebration on Thursday morning, exhibited to those who attended a manifestation of the delight that the Christmas season brings to the hearts of the little ones. The pleasure was very apparent, and the intelligence they displayed in the proceedings gave one a very favorable impression of the system of education which is taught. A most spirited program was carried out markedly well by the children and they were completely under the spell of the Christmas spirit when from a prettily decorated tree, they had the pleasure of giving to their parents and friends gifts as souvenirs of the happy occasion. The Kindergarten is evidently the garden of happiness where the growing children are receiving that cultivation of mind which is the greatest value to them. That the school is successful needs no saying, and the closing was an event most gratifying to all who are interested in the welfare of the young.

MARKET HALL will present a busy scene this morning when the ladies who have undertaken to manage the Christmas dinner will be engaged in sending them out to the persons for whom applications have been made. It is important that all donations and contributions be sent in this morning, the earlier the better so that none may be disappointed.

MISS DARY W. BRACE, the clever young lady who assisted in reporting the speeches on Thursday night at the Christmas closing of the Charlottetown Business College, left last night for Saint John, N. B. where she has secured a position as stenographer and assistant bookkeeper. Miss Brace was a member of the graduating class this term, and the manner in which she did her work in reporting at the closing was not only a credit to herself but to the institution as well. She is certainly a very talented young lady.

THE Presbyterian Witness regrets to learn that Rev D Davidson is not nearly so well as he was a few weeks ago. For a few weeks in the autumn he assisted Pastor Ingram of River John in special work. His many friends will sympathize with him and his family in their trying experience.
