GEORGE BERNARD NOW STATES

If King Made Him a Duke, Sensation Would be Complete.

LONDON, June 27.—(Special)—Another of George Bernard Shaw's, press cuttings, has been forbidden production by the censor. Mr. Shaw in a humorous letter to the Times, characterizes the censor's act, as a revenge, because King Edward, in his birthday honors, made Beethoven Tre, who was to have produced Mr. Shaw's censored play, "Showing up of Blanche Poquet," a knight, and he adds, "It only remains for the King to make me a duke in order to complete the sensation."

WILL STAY FOR ANOTHER YEAR

ST. JOHN, June 26.—During the recent session of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island conference at Woodstock, Rev. Jas. Crisp, who for the last three years was stationed at Zion church, was appointed to the Springfield circuit. As a result of the appointment the quarterly board of Zion church was called and passed a strong and unanimous resolution asking that Mr. Crisp be left at Zion for a fourth year. So strong was the feeling in this direction and the president of the conference and the chairman and financial secretary of the St. John district last evening made a readjustment by which Mr. Crisp will remain in Zion a fourth year. There being no other station available, Mr. Deinstadt was appointed to Springfield.

THE FAMOUS GOULD TRIAL IS OVER.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Katherine Clemens Gould obtained a legal separation, with alimony, from her husband, Howard Gould, by the decision of Justice Dowling, after a trial which lasted three weeks. The Court decided that $36,000 a year was sufficient, though Mrs. Gould asked $250,000. She has been receiving $25,000 a year from Gould, so that the amount fixed by the court is but a slight increase over what he had voluntarily allowed her.

A FABLE.

Once there was a Gander who was fond of Cheese. In the place where the Gander was there was a large piece of Cheese which belonged to the Gander. The only question was whether or not to eat the Cheese. "If I should trust myself to open my mouth and eat this Cheese," said the Gander, "I might be making a mistake. How can I know that I ought to eat the Cheese? How can I be sure that it is wise to eat the Cheese?" With these considerations the Gander was much troubled, and stood looking longingly at the Cheese until a Fox came up and inquired about the Gander's trouble. "Trust yourself in a question so intimately concerning your welfare and future happiness?" exclaimed the Fox, when he had heard the Gander's trouble. "I should say not! What you need is a representative, somebody to look after your interests and to make wise decisions in all matters involving the consumption of Cheese. If you will kindly adopt this ring which I will put around your bill, and these iron clamps which I will slip upon your legs, you will be perfectly safe. There will be no danger of your doing anything unwise for yourself!" At this proposal the Gander was delighted, and, with warm expressions of thanks, assisted in putting the clamps upon its legs and the ring around its bill. "This," said the Fox, "will afford you ample opportunity to wait for your second thoughts on anything you may think you want to do." Whereupon the Fox set down and proceeded to eat the Cheese. "I am sure," said he, "that this will be for the wider interests of the whole community."

MIGHT OF THE MITE

(By H. J. Kallogg.) A SPEECH BY LORD ROSEBERY

At the Closing of International Press Conference. General Plan For an Empire Navy.

LONDON, June 27.—(Special)—Lord Rosebery was the principal speaker, at the closing meeting of the International press conference on Saturday, and gave his views of the Empire, and the Navy. The Speaker's general plan for an Empire Navy, as outlined in his speech, contemplates distinct fleets for each of the five nations of the Empire.

Great Britain, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa. In the event of war, all the fleets of the Empire would have to act under a general, strategical bureau, which would have to be established by the admiralty.

TO EDIT A TOWN INTO PROSPERITY

DES MOINES, June 26.—W. J. Pilkington, of Des Moines, editor of the Merchants' Trade Journal, has taken absolute charge of every business house in Dexter, Iowa, a town of 800, for seven months for the purpose of proving that city methods will bring prosperity to the merchant in a country town. Mr. Pilkington has placed the town in the hands of Guy Pogue, who is personally conducting every business from the bank to the lumber yard. At the end of seven months he declares the profits will be doubled, and that the town is being transformed into a metropolitan city. All the members of the City Council are merchants who have placed their business in Pilkington's hands, the latter is also controlling municipal government and has cleaned streets and adopted many new ordinances. Mr. Pilkington believed in advertising, with the result that the Dexter paper has more advertising than the editor ever had before. The remarkable experiment is attracting attention of business men all over the Middle West.

A YOUNG GIRL PASSES AWAY.

MURRAY HARBOR NORTH, June 26. It is with deep regret and heart-felt sorrow that the death of Miss Mammie Kennedy is recorded. After five months of severe and painful illness her death occurred at the home of her parents on Thursday June 17th. Just as the sun in the heavens was drawing near to the horizon in the western sky, the sun of her fair life set bright and peacefully in the full hope of a glorious rising in the land of the blessed. The deceased was the youngest daughter of James and Mrs. Kennedy of Murray Harbor, North. She leaves a devoted father and mother, one sister and four brothers, to mourn their loss. "Mammie" as she was familiarly called, was greatly beloved in her home and was a general favorite in the community, loved by many hated by none. Her death occurred at the early age of twenty-four years. Though she was short it was beautiful and exemplary. Her character was adorned by many virtues and Christian graces. In her placid nature a fascinating artless blended itself with a mature consideration. Few possess by nature a more gentle and cheerful disposition than did "Mammie." She always had a pleasant smile and a kind word for all she knew. Her winning amiable manners will long be remembered and cherished by her friends. Her dispositions enriched and sweetened by grace, make bright helpful happy Christians. The deceased was a devoted and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church, and an attentive, worthy and esteemed member of the Sunday School. Much sympathy is felt for her bereaved parents in their irreparable loss, for her surviving brothers and her only sister, "So faithful unto death." Hope may whisper with the dead: "By bending forward where they are, But memory with a backward tread Communes with them afar. Thy joys we love are but forsoat And we shall find them all once more. But low! tis all before. Her funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended, many coming many miles to extend their sympathy to the bereaved and to pay a last tribute of respect and love to the dead. Her beautiful casket was laden with flowers. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor Rev. Andrew Gray. The hymns sung were favorites of the deceased, which she requested to be sung at her funeral. An appropriate address was given from the words, "These which are arrayed in white robes, who are they? and whence come they? These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the lamb. Rev. 7, 13, 14; All the members of the family were present at the funeral except her brother Andrew, who resides in the city of Winnipeg.

THE ANNUAL SING.

In the spring a woman's fancy lightly turns to cleaning house. In the spring the soapy water she will vigorously douse On the window-glass and mirrors, while her husband hies away To some dingy spot of refuge, to escape the dretful day. In the spring a newer polish tints the burnished kitchen stove, In the spring your coats and trousers (May be "hove") is wrong to use here, but it surely fits the case.) In the spring a smudge of cobwebs decorates the housewife's face. In the spring you come home weary and as through the wreck you creep You discover there's no dinner and you've not a place to sleep. And when gently you remark that there might be a smatter plan For house-cleaning, shrills a chorus: "Fuh! Well, that's just like a man!" —Wilbur D. Nesbit, in Chicago Evening Post.
