3rd CHARLOTTETOWN PACK

Monday night was a Special Night for the Kirk Cubs. The first thing that made it "special" was the treat of ice cream that Mr. Ian Burnett, chairman of the Group Committee, brought to the Cubs on behalf of his father, Mr. J.R. Burnett, and the other thing was having the Pack's photograph taken again by Mr. Norman Saunders.

Another "special" was the introducing of two new Cubs to the Pack. These new Cubs, Craig Foster and Donnie Stewart were welcomed to the Pack and we hope they will become valuable members of World Wide Cubbing.

The Silver Six, under Jackie Garnum, was presented the Inter-Six Competition prizes and a new competition was begun. The score at the end of the evening was Red Six 37, Silver Six 61, and Blue Six 61, but there is no telling what will be the result at the end of next week's meeting.

2nd SUMMERSIDE PACK

Hawkeye visited the 2nd Summerside Pack Tuesday night and met a fine group of some 44 Cubs. The group, which will soon be split into two Packs, is under the leadership of Mr. Lowell Hancock, Rex Thompson, and Gordon Lidstone. The meeting opened with the Grand Hymn and then progressed to special inspection. The Pack was then divided into two parts and "Boom Comin' Over" was played until, as usual, the Captains lost their voices. Mr. Hancock then took the group in singing which was followed with a yarn by Hawkeye. A game of "Four Pusses" and the Mouse Howl closed the meeting.

SCOUT MOVIES AT THE KIRK

Movies of Camp Buchanan, English Scouting, and a Nature Film were shown to nearly 100 Charlottetown Scouts at the Kirk Hall on Wednesday evening.

The movies of Camp Buchanan showed the Jamboree held in 1928 when the camp site was presented to the Boy Scouts Association by the Hon. George D. DeBlola, then Lieutenant-Governor of the Province.

Officials recognized in the film include the Hon. G. D. DeBlola, J. R. Burnett, J. J. Morris, R. G. Parent, John Stiles, W. L. Currier, A. P. Ceretti, R. L. Mollison, Lt. Col. W. W. Reid (then as now, Scoutmaster of the Ninth Troop), Bill Burnett, J. A. Lawson, Harry Pineau, George Anderson, and many others.

The projectionist was the Queens County District Commissioner, Mr. Stanley McInnis of the National Film Board, to whom we are grateful for the service placed at the disposal of the Scouts.

Those who "live alone and like it" should watch their diets, nutritionists warn. It is too easy for a bachelor or a bachelor-girl to make a "snack" out of a meal instead of eating properly.
