A VALUABLE PRIZE CONTEST

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the Internationaional Newspaper Bible Study Clubpoint, but from the point of view of the number of marks won by members each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1909. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. They will be published each week in the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily. Only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There is no fee for entrance, and no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prize without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS, BIBLES, BOOKS.

Persons may join the club at any time. It is however, desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study Club is for the purpose of procuring, answer the 53 questions hereinafter, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which attend every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a Local Club, and take up the simple course herein outlined barring City ordained clergy-fair to have them compete for the prizes. It is however desirable that the Club scholars, and church goes generally, may belong to this newspaper Club, also non-churchgoers, of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and compete for the prizes. The Guardian has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, D.D., which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing, and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

The Guardian is authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantees to all who join and fulfil the conditions, that everything here promised shall be faithfully carried out.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a paid-in-advance subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and the Local Club.
2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 53 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, August 23rd and the answers must all be two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.
3. Each question must be answered on one side only. No answer must contain more than two hundred words and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches.
4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, together with the date label of a current issue of The Guardian so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name will be cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.
5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verse or verses, upon which the question is based.
6. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to The Guardian office, and they will be forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent judges of the degree of their education.

Our vegetables are taken fresh from our garden daily, indeed we pick them in the morning again at ten and very often a third supply is taken in the afternoon. In this way the consumer has all the luxury of a garden at their door fresh and crisp from mother earth! Cauliflower, a dish fit for the Gods, cabbage with the dew sparkling on them, lettuce just as you like it, beets so tender and nice, peas in the pod the kind that melts in your mouth. The new way to use peas is to cook them in the pods the peas go to the bottom of the dish the pods float on the top, cooked in this manner they are just delicious, try them and be convinced.

With wax butter beans, bunch onions, turnips dry onions, parsley, cool crisp cucumbers, bunch carrots, new potatoes, and old, strawberries and many other lines not mentioned it goes without saying that we have something to suit the taste of the most fastidious and critical buyer.
