COMING TO MARITIMES—Among the more prominent United States touring parties covering the Maritime Provinces during the present summer will be a Raymond and Whitcomb party of about one hundred of more tourists from every section of the neighboring country, who will be in this section of the Dominion early next month. The complete itinerary of the tour has not yet been received, but it is understood to embrace a wide section of the Maritimes.—Moncton Transcript.

O'HEARN-HUSSEY—A very pretty marriage was solemnized in Sacred Heart church Monday morning at 7 o'clock, when Miss Theresa O'Hearn, daughter of Mrs. M. O'Hearn, became the bride of Mr. J. Harry Hussey, of Halifax. The bride looked charming in a beautiful fawn georgette ensemble, and carried a bridal bouquet of carnations and roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Genevieve O'Hearn, who was nicely garbed in poudre blue georgette. Johnny O'Hearn, brother of the bride, did honors for the groom. Rev. Fr. J. H. McDonald, pastor, was celebrant. Following the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's mother, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. They leave today by motor on a honeymoon tour of Prince Edward Island and other points in the Maritimes, and upon their return will reside in Halifax. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful fox fur, to the bridesmaid a travelling bag.—Sydney Post.

Southern News

Mr. George Blue, of Little Sands, has recently gone to Trenton. Mr. Murdoch McPhee, of Glen Forest, has not gone to New Hampshire as reported in these notes recently. Our information in that respect was at fault.

Miss Laura Simonds, of Cable Head West, is at present visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Keenan, of Port Wood.

The writer of these notes received a pleasant surprise when a motor party from Peter's Road and Greek River unexpectedly called upon him a short time ago. They were Messrs. Joseph G. Jenkins, Edgar VanDerstine, Alexander VanDerstine, Edward Jenkins, Edward Munn and Harry Jenkins. Mr. Sam Dixon, of Little Sands, had come previous to their arrival. Mr. Edward Munn, whose skill on the violin is well-known, delighted his audience with a fine selection of reels, jigs, strathspeys, Highland flings, waltzes and polkas. I question if any violinist in the province is superior to him in the old Scottish tunes. Mr. Harry Jenkins is also a player of great cleverness and a nimble-footed step-dancer, as is also his father, Mr. Joseph

RODERICK McDONALD

The death occurred at Bristol, of Roderick McDonald, at the home of his son William on Saturday, June 15th, 1929, at the ripe age of 85 years. He was in fairly good health within two weeks of this death when he was taken suddenly ill and despite medical and tender care he peacefully passed away on the above mentioned date. He was frequently visited in his illness by his beloved pastor, Rev. Father Rooney, who administered to him the last rights of the Catholic Church of which he was a devoted member. He leaves to mourn their loss, two sons and one daughter, James, William and Florence, all of Bristol, his wife having predeceased him four years ago; also one daughter who predeceased him eighteen years ago. He also leaves to mourn two brothers and one sister, John of Charlottetown; Wallace of Pictou and Mrs. James McIntyre, Grand River, P. E. I. His funeral, which took place on Sunday to St. Lawrence Church, Morell, was largely attended and testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. Father Rooney, P. P., when all that was mortal of a true christian, was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, there to await the glorious resurrection. The pall bearers were: Alex R. McDonald, Angus R. McDonald, Hamilton McEwen, Albert McEwen, Donald McDonald and Joseph McDonald. (May his soul rest in peace) (Patriot please copy)

Jenkins. Sweet music, lively and varied discussion and games combined to make the night a most enjoyable one.

Owing to the painful accident which occurred to Rev. Ewen Macdonald, the sacrament did not take place in Murray River at the appointed time which was last Sunday.

After searching for some years with intervals, some long and some short, I at last stumbled accidentally upon the object of my quest, which was the struggling shrub called Dogwood, known to botanists as Cornus Stolonifera, which is the Red Osier Dogwood and is found in wet places in the deep woods. There is another species called the Alternate-leaved Dogwood, but this I have never seen. I think it must be rare, at least in these parts.

Believed to be the largest in the world, a motor lifeboat just built at Cowes, England, is 61 feet long and has cabin accommodations for nearly 50, with room for 300 people on deck in calm weather.

Fitted with a new high-speed electro-pneumatic brake, trains on the London District Railway can travel at a speed of 40 miles an hour and stop within a few inches of any given spot within 20 seconds.
