TRACK CHAMPIONS TENDERED DINNER

A dinner was tendered to the Champion McGill Track Team in the Blue Room of the Windsor Hotel last week says a Montreal Exchange. A pleasing programme was arranged and all of the members of the team spent an enjoyable evening. The dinner was not held earlier in the season because the executive wished to give the team as good a time as possible, and the men were amply repaid for the small period of time which elapsed between the championship games and the present time. In addition to the team, Tom Cradon, the successful coach, was present, and gave some of his reminiscences about the former teams which bore the colors of the Red and White. Dr. Lamb and W. C. Nicholson were also guests at the dinner. A special menu card has been prepared for the event, on which the autographs of the various men were placed, and were retained as souvenirs of the greatest team ever turned out on the track by McGill.

The members of the team are: W. S. Antliff, R. L. Hamilton, W. R. Kennedy, D. B. Foss, L. Mullen, (Charlottetown) J. C. Hay, E. R. Hall, J. D. King, D. F. McLellan, J. J. Notman, D. J. McDonald, A. D. Dickie, M. K. Wells, W. A. James, A. L. Gnaedinger, E. H. Kyle, C. H. McNider.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY ON THE DEATH OF THE LATE REV. D. McLEAN

We as a people the church of Scotland find it an inextricable and bewildering difficulty to be reconciled to the death of our dear and well beloved pastor who has been called from time to eternity. No other pastor on this Island could leave so many mourners as he has left for his parish was the largest and he has merited devoted attachment and love from all his people and adherents. This eminent servant of God never showed any negligence to his people but was ever ready to fill his appointments, he would rather suffer wrong than show any reproach to his people, or any person always taking the word of God as his guide following in the foot steps of his Master and if any should smite him on the church he would turn the other also. He has suffered reproach from some but, we are told, "all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 2 Tim. 3:12.

Some would try to lacerate or separate him by violence from us but he was never afraid, but he has told us his work was almost to an end. He never preached to please man but according to the Scriptures, always ready to turn up scriptural proofs for his doctrine and would fearlessly say, "I'm here to preach to please God and not man, he never tried to conceal or modify his own views of truth and duty, but preached Christ and Him crucified. He was very sincere and earnest always warning the young of the many fascinating allurements that entice the young mind, but to seek that strength and wisdom from Him which shall frustrate Satan's Wiles. His memory shall long be revered by many who knew him as the honored instrument in God's hand in bringing them to a knowledge of the truth as it is found in Christ Jesus. Some may speak irrationally to this but I am able to testify as being a witness that he was the great instrument in God's hand in bringing me from that natural form of religion with all its speculations which extendeth not to the deep things of God. But as it is written eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him, but God hath revealed them to us by His Spirit. Yes, he hath been obedient to the voice of the 'Prophet' which saith cry aloud! Spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet and show my people their transgressions and the house of Jacob their sins, to blow the trumpet and sound the alarm of danger that the people may take warning, and often has he said, if you do not take the warning other is thy blood not required at my hand. We know that he was a truly sent messenger of the gospel for the word preached was accompanied by the Holy Spirit and there are many to bear witness to the gracious sanction of the presence of the Lord of the harvest. Though dead, he yet speak-eth.
