

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. LEONARD MOONEY.

A very sad event took place at Greenvale, on Tuesday, July 29th in the death of Flora Morrison, beloved wife of Leonard Mooney, of this place, at the early age of twenty-seven years. She had been in failing health for some months but no serious apprehensions were felt. Her youth, her former robust health coupled with tender care all thought would restore her again to health, but God willed otherwise and to the heartfelt grief of a large circle of friends besides her own family her pure spirit passed to its reward. She leaves two children of tender years, two young to realize their life's duty. Three step-children feel her loss even more, for she was to them a loving mother and she received from them a devotion rare to see. The deceased was the daughter of Jas. Morrison, Poplar Point. She leaves besides her husband and children two brothers and one sister to mourn their loss.

According to her request interment was in St. George's cemetery on Thursday, July 31st. The funeral was largely attended. Many friends from Greenvale accompanying her remains to St. George's. The pall bearers were: Aeneas McAulay, Andrew R. Mooney, Dan. F. Mooney, Joseph McKenzie, Alex. McDonald, and Peter Walker. May her soul rest in peace.

ANNIE MAY McLEOD.

The sympathy of the whole community of Mt. Buchanan and vicinity goes out to Mr. and Mrs. John W. McLeod, in the great sorrow that has come to them by the death of their dearly beloved daughter, Annie May, after a brief illness at the early age of 10 years. All that tender care and medical skill could do was done to retain her, but her heavenly Father had willed otherwise, and on August 14th her sinless soul passed through the open portals of eternity in all its purity to be forever with the Lord. Little Annie was in the home and community she endeared herself to all by her many amiable qualities, gifted with a beautiful sweet voice; it was a pleasure to hear her sing, as she often did. The funeral, which was held on Tuesday, 5th, was one of the largest seen in the vicinity for some time, friends coming from far and near to pay their last tribute to one so dearly loved. The services at the home and grave were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. W. McKenzie, who spoke feelingly of the beautiful child, as she peacefully lay in her little casket, among the flowers she so dearly loved. 'Tis hard to part with those we love, but her parents are comforted with the thought that their loss in her gain, and that she is spared the many trials and temptations that attend life in this world below. That she has only gone to that world above where parting is unknown, a whole extortory of love formed for the good alone, and faith beholds the dying here translated to that happier sphere. The pall-bearers were: Willie Ross, Percy McJean, Frank McDonald, Fred McDonald, William Malkman, Joe Robertson and all that was mortal of little Annie May was tenderly and lovingly laid in the beautiful cemetery at the Belfast Church.

THE LATE MR. GEORGE WALLER

The death occurred at an early hour yesterday morning of Mr. George Waller of this city after a protracted illness. The deceased was born in Perth, Australia fifty-five years ago and when a boy of twelve removed to this city with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Waller. At an early age he engaged in the dry goods business which he followed for a number of years. When the Dominion Express Company began business in Charlottetown, he was appointed its first manager a position, which he filled to the satisfaction of the company and the public until obliged to retire on account of failing health and since which time, practically until his death, he was confined to his bed. During his active years he was widely known and a general favorite, honourable to a degree, always obliging, bright and companionable and his memory will long be fondly cherished by the many who knew him. He was for many years, and until his death, an honored member of Willey Lodge, I.O.O.F., and through his long illness his brethren of that institution faithfully redeemed their fraternal obligations by frequent and kindly visits to his bedside, visits which he enjoyed and looked forward to with pleasure, and which his bereaved widow and relatives now remember with gratitude. All that human skill and the tender ministrations of a devoted wife and loving friends could do during his long illness was done to restore him to his wonted health but it was otherwise willed and he has entered into His eternal rest.

There are left to mourn his wife, formerly Miss Bessie Aitken, daughter of the late Mr. James M. Aitken, Montague and Mrs. Aitken now of Charlottetown, and three brothers, William of Shirley, Mass., Edmund, of the Dominion Express Co., Charlottetown and Fred, of the firm of Waller and Doyle this city, to all of whom the Guardian tenders deepest sympathy.

The funeral which will be conducted by the Odd Fellows, takes place this afternoon from The Russ, the service beginning at 3 o'clock, interment at the People's Cemetery.
