TEAR DOWN STRETCH IN CLOUDS OF DUST

Feature of recent Calgary stampede was the chuck wagon race seen here. All cowboys know chuck wagon is the cook pantry on wheels. In it are stowed food, pots and pans, camp stove and what have you. Many of these wagons are still in use among ranches in Alberta and other sections of Western Canada.

SWANSEA RESIDENTS VICTIMS OF CRICKET PLAGUE

Thousands of crickets, breeding in a dump in Swansea, Ont., have infested the homes in the neighborhood, eating clothing, wall paper, curtains and food. Chloride of lime will be used in exterminating the pests. The photograph shows a piece of wall paper eaten by crickets which are also shown. Citizens were puzzled to know how to get rid of the pests which swarmed through their homes by thousands.

QUEEN OF THE RODEO

Betty Bond—possibly a cousin of Betty Co-ed, since she is a junior at the University of Oregon—has just been chosen to rule as queen over the 1931 round-up being held at Pendleton next month.

A CHAMPION MUSKIE FISHERMAN

F. B. Molyneux got this splendid specimen of a muskie in Lake Scugog, Ontario, on a wooden plug he made himself. The same day he caught this 17 pound, 40 inch fish Mr. Molyneux had the extraordinary luck to catch a 7-pound muskie and a 3-pound bass on the same cast, the muskie taking the lure first, and a moment later, the bass struck the plug while the muskie was being played. He landed both fish in front of a boatload of witnesses.
