The president, Mrs. Ernest Foster, on behalf of the Institute told how every member would miss Mrs. Ferguson as a wonderful worker in all the work of the community and as a friend to all. The ladies wished to give her a small gift as a token of the very high esteem in which she is held in the community. She then presented Mrs. Ferguson with a lovely bag and a pair of kid gloves. unselfish in his relationship to others and living in fellowship with God.

The afternoon gathering was also fetured by an impressive Gift Service at which Miss Ethel Knight, Mrs. Laura Mair and Mrs. Harold McDonald on behalf of the Sunday School, the Y. P. U. and the Women's Association respectively presented generous gifts amounting to $115 for the Anniversary Fund.

Another outstanding part of the service was the admirable reading by Mrs. William McLaren of a fascinating Historical Sketch of the congregation tracing its course from the granting by Royal Charter of the land upon which the Church and Old Manse now stand to the present time.

Large congregations assembled at both services and the augmented choir leading the singing, a finely rendered solo by Mrs. Hubley of Lower Montague and harmonious trios by Messrs. Willard Bruce, John Bears and Malcolm Munroe added much to the success of the day.

The Centenary was continued on the 16th, when the special preacher was the Rev. Dr. J. S. Bonnell of the famous Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York. An outstandinglander, Dr. Bonnell makes an appeal to his native province equalled by few. To meet and hear him people flocked to the Church so that its seating capacity was fully taxed. His superb reading of the Scriptures, his leadership in prayer and his stirring message will be long remembered. Taking as his text Heb. 12:27, the minister, with telling illustration, spoke of things which cannot be shaken. The moral of his still stands, the sovereignty of God inviolated. These matters remain and provide secure anchorage for the soul.

Trios by Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Miss May Renton and Mr. Ivan Robinson added much to the spiritual atmosphere of the occasion.

No definite financial aim had been set for the commemoration, but so generous has been the response of friends of the church that more than three hundred and eighty dollars have been received with more to come. Sincere thanks were tendered by the minister, the Rev. Sidney J. Boyce, B. A., to all who in any way assisted in this notable anniversary. St. David's goes forward into its second century with fresh zest and quiet confidence to grapple with its various tasks both material and spiritual.

After being shut out by rain for a couple of nights the Rockford Square Quoit Club resumed play Tuesday night and again, some big up-sets took place. E. Robin found the going hard and lost to A. McFarlane who was right on and displayed great marksmanship in finding the hole for eleven strikes, this is Robin's only defeat in eleven games.

Smith and McKenzie also staged a battle royal and Smith finally took the bow from the spectators. The tournament is supplying lots of excitement for players and fans alike. The time is shortening up, all games must be played by the 25th of the month in order to make room for the play-off which is now a certainty.

Every player meets every other player and should a player drop from the tournament without completing his quota of games, makes the schedule revert back as if he had not competed in any of the games. So now is your time to get in and give the other fellow a contest. The following is the summary of Monday night:

Paynter Reunion

An event which will long be remembered by those present, took place on Thursday afternoon, August 6th, when the descendants of the late William Paynter and his wife Mary Ann Hecker, gathered on the beautiful old homestead, now owned and occupied by Mrs. Wm. J. Paynter, her son, Leigh and his family. Incidentally, the present fifteen month old heir, and the fifth generation to live in the home is the third William in direct line.

The picnic was largely attended by the founder of the family having had eight children, five sons, Richard, Edwin, William, John and Thomas, and three daughters, Elizabeth, Maria and Isabella, and the family tree continues to grow.

The last reunion was held two years ago and the autograph book signed by those present at that time showed the number to be 110.

and on counting the names signed this year, exactly the same number was found to be present, although 24 were different individuals. Two children of Maria, (who married Wm. Bowman) namely Aquila, and Jane, Mrs. Arthur Smith, lives in North Wiltshire, and with members of their families were present. Pictures were taken during the afternoon, notable among them one of 12 first cousins, being the third and oldest surviving generation.

After a session of sports, conducted by Messrs Bruce Paynter and Alden Moase, results of which follow, supper was thoroughly enjoyed.

By putting the question to vote, it was unanimously decided to make the Paynter Picnic an annual event. The National Anthem was sung as the day waned, and the gathering dispersed with happy memories, and anticipations of future reunions.

RED CROSS Want Apples

An appeal has been made to the Prince Edward Island Division of the Red Cross Society for two tons of Apple Jelly for distribution in the British Isles.

This will require large quantities of Apples and a large supply of sugar. The Government realizing the importance of this appeal has issued the necessary permit to purchase sugar. Mr. J. D. Jenkins has very kindly placed his canning factory at the disposal of the Red Cross Society.

Those having Apples to donate please advise the Red Cross Headquarters at once the number of bags or barrels available, and whether they can be sent or shipped to Charlottetown, or if it will be necessary to send for them.

Those not having Apples to donate, and wishing to make a cash contribution for the purchase of Apples or sugar will please send or mail same to the below address as promptly as possible and it will be gratefully acknowledge and appreciated.

ALEXANDER R. BUNTAIN of eighty years. He was born at Rustico and when quite young man purchased a farm at Clifton, New London, and being of an industrious nature he was able to retire twenty years ago and live at Kensington. He leaves to mourning two sons, Rev. D. N. Buntain, Toronto, and Chester at Clifton, also two daughters, Mrs. Robert Fyfe, Boston, and Miss Gertrude, R. N., Kensington, P. E. I., who unstintingly cared for her venerable father during his declining years. The funeral was held from his late abode at the United Church on Saturday, Aug. 15th. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. D. Sterling, assisted by Rev. John Stirling and at the grave side by Rev. John Murchison. Mr. Stirling spoke effectively from the following text "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved we have a building of God, a house not made with hands eternal in the heavens." The Hymns sung were "The Lord's my Shepherd," "Peace Perfect Peace," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The many and beautiful floral gifts testified to the popularity of the deceased.

Centennial Celebration
ST. DAVID'S GEORGETOWN
Among the memorable days in the one hundred years of the history of St. David's Church, Georgetown, the celebration of "A Century of Service" on August 9th, and 16th, will be long cherished as occasions of great inspiration.

The guest preacher, on the 9th, was the Rev. W. S. Godfrey, B. A., of Sackville, the popular Religious Education Secretary of the United Church, who spoke at the 3 and 7.30 o'clock services bringing messages of helpfulness and power lit with arresting incidents. In the afternoon his text was, "And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him." (Mk. 3:14). In the evening he spoke on "Symmetry of Character" from the words, "The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal." (Rev. 21:17). The speaker stressed the necessity of a rounded-out personality. A Christian was to be right himself

SAVE YOUR NECK
Has your neck that "dingy look"? Cleanse this way: As soon as you're in the tub, take your fine white toilet soap and pat a layer of whipped cream lather on your neck. Leave the lather on, put a wet washcloth around it and continue your bath. Several soaps help lighten skin which has been discolored by the rubbing of a coat
