Personals

Mrs. Catherine Callaghan of Droichead has received a cable announcing the safe arrival in England of her son Joseph V. Callaghan.

Mrs. David Edwards and her two daughters Miss Joyce and Mrs. Russell Smith were among the passengers Saturday to Sackville where they met the latter's husband who returned with them on the evening train.

Presentation

A large number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Bulman, Rustico, on the evening of March 12th to honor their son Sgt. Fred L. Bulman of the R. C. A. F. and a former member of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mr. Garfield LePage acted as Chairman and called upon Mr. Roland Buntain to read an address while Mr. Roy Dickieson made the presentation of a well filled envelope.

Fred in his usual quiet manner thanked them one and all after which all joined in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." A dainty lunch was served and a pleasant evening enjoyed by all. Sgt. Bulman has since called his parents of his safe arrival in England.

Following is the address:—
Sgt. Fred Bulman, R. C. A. F.

Der Fred—In this awful tragedy of war when the forces of evil actuated by a desire to rule, are locked in mortal combat with the forces of righteousness, you with your brother Elmer and thousands of other brave boys from Canada are leaving your homes, friends and country to help defend the rights and liberties of the Christian world.

We cannot allow this occasion to pass without expressing an appreciation of the esteem in which you are regarded by us, and also our gratitude to you for your heroic stand in helping to defend our King and country from an inhuman foe. Please accept this gift as a small token of our gratitude to you in this time of trouble and we sincerely pray that you and the boys with you will return home safely when the war is ended.

From Your Friends.

In Memoriam

WARREN HADDON BREHAUT

Warren H. Brehaut, a life long resident of Guernsey Cove passed away at his home on April 2nd at the age of 64 years. He had been in failing health for some years, but except for a period in a provincial sanatorium, he was able to be about, until a short time before his death. Always a kind and good neighbour, he was a devoted member of the community. His staunch Christian faith was shown in the way he endured his afflictions and in his assurance to his loved ones just before he passed away that he felt himself being called home to be with his Saviour.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, formerly Effie MacInnis of Glen William, also two brothers and one sister—J. R. Brehaut, Montague; D. C. Brehaut, Regina, Sask.; and Mrs. E. B. Richards, Vancouver, who helped nurse him for a period during his illness. His funeral was held on Sunday, April 4th from the United Church, Murray Harbour as he had himself requested. The service was conducted by the minister of the church, the Rev. W. C. Pickett. The hymns sung were the 147th and 148th of the hymns of the deceased: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus"; "There'll be no Day in Valley when Jesus Comes"; "On the Happy Golden Shore." Mr. W. M. Kingston and Gordon MacFarlane sang as a duet. The floral arrangements were by Mrs. E. B. Richards, Vancouver, who helped nurse him for a period during his illness. Floral offerings were:—
Crescent—Wife
Wealth—Brothers and Sister.
Spray—Mr. Reuben Machon and Mrs. Fred Dovey.
Spray—Mrs. Kathryn Reed, Mass. 4-20-11.
