Sask. Only Province To Reduce Debt

REGINA, Dec. 19 - (CP) - Provincial Treasurer C.M. Fines said today that Saskatchewan was the only province to reduce its total debt in the fiscal year ended last March. For verification Mr. Fines quoted the latest figures released in the statistical summary of the Bank of Canada, which showed Saskatchewan's total debt at $163,000,000, about $2,500,000 less than the 1947-48 figure.

Rich Deposits Of Manganese Found

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 18 - (AP) - Discovery of rich deposits of manganese, vital ingredient of good-quality steel, in the iron-ore fields of Labrador and Quebec was reported here Saturday. Announcement of the find, said to test 50-per-cent pure, was hailed by steel men, whose companies have been "mining" the slag-dump piles to reclaim used manganese compounds. During the Second World War, manganese was a scarce item on the receipt for steel. Most of the world's previously-known supplies are located in South Africa, India, South America and Russia.

Farm Official Sees Start of Depression

TORONTO, Dec. 18 - (CP) - V. S. Milburn, secretary of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, said Saturday that loss of some British food contracts means "the beginning of our depression." With the egg contract for 1950 gone and purchases of wheat and bacon cut down, city-dwellers might think the new arrangements will mean cheaper food for Canadians. Mr. Milburn said "but it will also mean fewer purchases of urban products by the farmers. Every depression begins with a depression of farm prices."

Something New In "Give-Aways"

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 19 - (AP) - Something new in "give-aways" was turned up here today. A Youngstown housewife reports she recently received a phone call and an unidentified voice offered her $100 for the best suggestion on "How to tame your wife." She said she quickly replied: "Why, a spanking, of course." The voice then repeated the promise of $100 if she would have her husband pat her on the posterior hard enough to be heard over the phone. Anxious to win the "century note" she called a neighbor to administer the spanking, since her husband was not at home. When the spanked housewife called a local radio station to arrange for the $100 prize, she was told the call was a hoax.
