THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, John Dickieson, Agent, and in Alberton Herbert Clark, Agent.

—The latest news, first of all.

—Major Howatt, Coleman, has returned from Boston.

—Rev. F. H. Gallant, Bloomfield, was in Summerside yesterday.

—Miss Jane Bennett, Alberton, was the guest of Miss Eliza Yeo, Alma, last Friday.

—Rev Dr Fraser preached in the Presbyterian Church, Alberton, last Sunday morning.

—Robert Yeo, Montrose, met with a heavy loss last Saturday, six of his cows being poisoned.

—Miss Georgie Campbell, Alberton, was the guest of Miss Nellie Lewis of the same place last week.

—Miss Ruby Yeo, Boston, Mass, is spending a few days with her parents Robert and Mrs Yeo of Montrose.

—Part of the outward cargo of the Empress, yesterday was three carloads of starch and eight hundred bags of oats.

—One hundred and thirty passengers left Summerside by the Empress yesterday and one hundred and fifty returned in the evening.

—Rev F. M. Athinson, Alberton, went to N. B. last Monday on account of the illness of his wife who is residing at her home in Newcastle.

—Misses Emma Dunlar and Maggie Rix, Alma, were visiting friends in O'Leary last Wednesday. They will leave in a few days for Boston where they will spend the winter.

—Pat. Ryan, Summerside, lost a very fine horse yesterday. The cause of the death of the animal was from over feeding with new grain, which developed indigestion. Mr. Ryan refused $200 for the horse a short time ago.

—The following are the Alberton market prices:—Oats per bus fifty five cents, butter per lb seventeen to eighteen cents, eggs per doz nineteen cents, hay per ton seven to eight dollars and wool per lb twenty cents.

—Summerside dealers, yesterday, were paying sixteen to eighteen cents a lb for butter, thirty cents a bus for potatoes, twenty cents a dozen for eggs, eight fifty a ton for loose hay and four dollars and fifty for straw, forty cents a bus for oats and twenty cents a lb for wool.

—The happy home of Albert and Mrs Schurman, Central Bedouge, was made still the more happy yesterday at five p. m., by the marriage of their eldest daughter, Irene, to Albert E. Baker, Summerside. Rev R. G. Strathie tied the nuptial knot in the presence of only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The presents received were numerous and very valuable.

—A correspondent sends the following Hope River jottings:—James Pendergast of Kensington paid a flying visit to his uncles in Hope River. He thinks nothing of walking from Kensington to Hope River. If the rest of the young men around here were to follow suit it would be a great saving on carriages.—W. G. and Mrs Pendergast spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr and Mrs McKenna, Oyster Bed Bridge. Everett Hogan has purchased his brother Austin's farm. We are pleased to have him stay at home instead of seeking his fortune abroad as so many young men are wont to do nowadays.

—Miss Laura Hogan has spent the past week at Stanley Bridge, at the home of her sister, Mrs (Dr) James Flemming.—Miss Nettie Turner is visiting Miss Hogan at Riverside cottage.—It is almost equal to the Western harvest fields around here at present when we can see two of the farmers with two binders each mowing down the golden harvest. Douglas Hogan has left home to attend St Dunstan's College and Miss Marion Cullen to attend Prince of Wales College. Their friends wish them success.

—The many friends of John McKinnon will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering from his severe illness.

—Miss Laura Snowie, O'Leary, spent this week with her aunt Mrs Florrie Cavanagh.

—John McDonald, who has been in Earncliffe for the past three months, resumes his studies at St Dunstan's Tuesday.

—Edwin Doyle, who passed such a creditable examination at Prince of Wales last summer, has been engaged to teach at Orwell Cove School.

—Andrew McInnis is spending a pleasant holiday with his brother Austin in Alberta.

—Another week of fine weather and the grain crop, which is a splendid one here this year, will be nearly all gathered in. Augustus McInnis finished his harvest on the 10th, considerably ahead of most of the farmers in this locality.

—Rev George Steel will preach in the Methodist Church, Cherry Valley, Sunday, 2.30 p. m. Mr Steel was a former pastor of this church, and one of the ablest and most popular clergymen that ever came to Cherry Valley.

—Mrs Frank J. Stanley and daughter, Muriel, of Glace Bay, C. B., have arrived in this City on a visit to her parents, H. and Mrs Rackham.

—The branch office of the Charlottetown Guardian will be found on Water Street, Summerside, directly opposite the Railway Station. John Dickieson is the agent. 3-11d1rf.

—The manual training exhibit at the Prince Co. exhibition from the Summerside High School, shown in the Exhibition Building, was especially interesting. The work done on the articles shown being very nicely executed and showed great skill on the part of the pupils, and also reflected considerable credit upon the teacher, Mr C. V. Bent. Prizes were given for the collection of Wm Stavart, Neil McLeod, H. W. V. Stavert and J. E. Wyatt. Prizes are at follows:—Drawing: 1st Robert Mollison; 2nd Harry Horton, Jr; 1st Horis Baker, 2nd John Fraser, sr. Writing Grade 9: 1st Helen Strong; 2nd Thane Campbell, Grade 8 1st Neva MacIntyre; 2nd Harvey Duncan, Wood Work Jr.: 1st Fred Durant; 2nd Richard Sharp, Sr; 1st Herbert Newton; 2nd Jack McLeod.

—For perfect bread and pastry—Star Flour—at Brace, McKay & Co., Ltd, Summerside. 9-16dth84i.

—The light furnished for lighting the exhibition building and grounds, was furnished by A. W. P. Goultie, Summerside.

—Mrs T. Hogan, Hyde Park, Mass, returned to her home yesterday after spending four weeks with friends at Kensington.

—Brace, McKay & Co, Summerside, have exceptional value in rubber belting, gasoline and all engine supplies. 9-17d1ur1rf.

—The New Century washing machine is really a wonder—Brace, McKay & Co, Summerside, have them at right prices. 9-16mws6ir2i.

—Mrs Frank J. Stanley and daughter, Muriel, of Glace Bay, C. B., have arrived in this City on a visit to her parents, H. and Mrs Rackham.
